IOWA PUBLIC RADIO HIRES DES MOINES STAFF

August 1, 2012 (Des Moines, IA) — Deirdre Giesler has been named Executive Assistant for Iowa Public Radio.

Deirdre Giesler joined Iowa Public Radio as Executive Assistant on May 1, 2012. Prior to working for IPR, Giesler served as Executive Assistant at the Iowa Department of Cultural Affairs, where she managed scheduling and travel for the executive director, provided support to the board of directors, and served as a front-line representative for community members, government officials, and other constituents. She received her bachelor's degree in Social Science from Central College in Pella, Iowa.

Iowa Public Radio informs, enriches and engages Iowans through radio programming and other media. IPR enhances civic and cultural connections across the state, strengthening Iowa's communities and reflecting Iowa's sense of place.
