KDNK hired a fifth full-time employee in November 2017:

In Q4 2017, KDNK posted a full-time Development Director position and conducted our search across local, statewide, and national outlets. We published ads in the local newspaper, The Sopris Sun. We posted the position on our website, and shared that listing on the national National Federation of Community Broadcasters listserv, national Public Radio Association of Development Officers listserv, statewide Rocky Mountain Community Radio Network listserv, and local DEVO Roaring Fork Valley listserv.

KDNK engaged in the following initiatives:

KDNK offered a news internship to a high school senior in Spring 2017.

KDNK station manager, program director, underwriting director, and membership director participated in the National Federation of Community Broadcasters conference in June 2017.

KDNK station manager attended Our Community Listens 3-day course in June 2017.

KDNK station manager and board members participated in the DEVO Roaring Fork Valley workshop series in Fall 2017.

KDNK station manager participated in the Glen-X Career Expo at Rifle High School in November 2017.
