10 THAT CHANGED AMERICA

Three-Part Series Visits 10 Homes, 10 Parks, and 10 Towns

10 HOMES THAT CHANGED

AMERICA highlights homes that transformed residential living, from grand estates such as Thomas Jefferson's Monticello and Frank Lloyd Wright's Fallingwater, to the pueblos of Taos, New Mexico.

10 Homes offers a primer in residential architecture and a fascinating lesson in the history of American domestic life, as the evolving design of these homes over time reveals our changing relationship with nature, technology, and each other.

Taos Pueblo, New Mexico (c. 15th century)

America's first "green buildings," the pueblos of the Taos Indians of New Mexico were built with adobe (mud), which kept the dwellings cool during the day and warm at night. Their closely-packed design fostered a sense of community and offered protection against enemies.

Fallingwater – Mill Run, PA (1937)

Often considered the greatest triumph of America's greatest architect, Fallingwater was Frank Lloyd Wright's masterwork. Using a cantilever structure, Wright's creation descends in layers like the waterfall that graces the site, taking the concept of integrating a home into its landscape to its ultimate extreme. The house would change our perception of how a home could be integrated with its environment, and resuscitate the career of a great American architect.

Eames House – Pacific Palisades, CA (1949)

In 1945, the publisher of Arts and Architecture Magazine challenged a handful of architects to design modern, affordable housing that could be easily replicated. Among those to answer the challenge was the husband-and-wife team of well-known furniture designers Charles and Ray Eames. Despite being created from a wide variety of prefabricated materials, the Eames House showed that a factory-made home could still have style and personality. 10 PARKS THAT CHANGED AMERICA tells the story of ten innovators who took open canvases of land and transformed them into serene spaces that offer city dwellers a respite from the hustle and bustle of urban life.

From the elegant squares of Savannah, Georgia, to a park built over a freeway in Seattle, to the more recent High Line in New York, each story introduces us to the heroes who brought these parks to life.

San Antonio's River Walk - Texas

The San Antonio River had been always prone to flooding; in 1921, more than 50 lives were claimed. But 27-year-old architect Robert Hugman transformed the floodravaged banks into a Spanish Revival promenade that would serve as a commercial district with elegant shops and cafes. The River Walk not only transformed San Antonio, but showed other American cities the possible economic upside of urban parks.

Freeway Park - Seattle, Washington

In Seattle, the damage was already done when a freeway cut the city in half in 1966. But landscape architect Lawrence Halprin would heal the wound with a new kind of park built on top of the freeway, embracing both nature and the changing face of the city.

Gas Works Park - Seattle, Washington

A toxic waste site is an unlikely place for a park. Yet in the mid-1970s, landscape architect Richard Haag designed a park that celebrated the hulking ruins of the Gas Works that had poisoned the site. Using the new science of bioremediation to clean the soil, Haag transformed one of the city's worst eyesores into a place of wonder as well as a reminder of Seattle's industrial past.

10 That Changed America will be broadcast on 3-2 on three consecutive Tuesdays at 7:00 p.m. beginning the 5th. On HD3-1, it airs on the same Tuesdays at 9:00 p.m. beginning the 5th. On HD3-1, it repeats Wednesdays at 6:00 a.m and 1:00 p.m. beginning the 6th. 10 TOWNS THAT CHANGED AMERICA takes a a look at ten "experimental" towns that did not evolve organically over time, but instead were designed (or redesigned) from the ground up by architects, corporations, and citizens who sought to change the lives of residents using architecture, design, and urban planning.

St. Augustine, Florida

America's oldest colonial town and the first planned town in America was designed using King Phillip II of Spain's 148 "Laws of the Indies," which governed how colonists should settle the new world. The laws governed everything from the width of the streets to the proper place for the market.

Salt Lake City, Utah

When the first blocks were laid out in this Mormon town in 1847, the man who planned it—Joseph Smith—was long dead. But Salt Lake City, built by Brigham Young using Smith's "Plat of the City of Zion," combined divinely-inspired urban planning designed to create a city dedicated to God.

Pullman, Illinois

In 1879, railroad car tycoon George Pullman started building a new factory town south of Chicago that would be a workers' utopia—or so he thought. His architect created a variety of housing, large homes for managers and tenement blocks for unskilled workers, which Pullman would rent out at a profit. When a strike ensued in 1893, the Illinois Supreme Court ruled that a company does not have the right to control the housing of its workers.

Levittown, New York

Between 1947 and 1951, Abraham Levitt and his sons William and Alfred built 17,447 houses in a former potato field on Long Island and named it Levittown. Cheap and geared toward returning GIs and their young families, Levittown offered buyers an inroad into the American dream of home ownership—but only if you were white.

RIDE THE TIGER

Explores the Bipolar Brain

NOVA Can Alzheimer's Be Stopped?

A PET scan helps determine if the patient's brain contains amyloid plaques, one of the hallmarks of Alzheimer's disease.

Alzheimer's disease strikes at the core of what makes us human: our capacity to think, to love, and to remember. The disease ravages the minds of over 40 million victims worldwide, and it is one of the greatest medical mysteries of our time.

In "Can Alzheimer's Be Stopped?" on Nova, investigators gather clues and attempt to reconstruct the molecular chain of events that ultimately leads to dementia, and follow key researchers in the field who have helped to develop the leading theories of the disease.

Along the way, individuals from all walks of life reveal what it's like to struggle with Alzheimer's. Among them, members of a unique Colombian family who have learned that their genetic predisposition all but guarantees early onset Alzheimer's. Yet there may be hope.

Nova follows courageous patients participating in clinical trials, and then goes behind the scenes of the major drug trials to see how researchers target and test therapies that may slow Alzheimer's and even prevent it.

"Can Alzheimer's Be Stopped?" on Nova airs on 3-2 Wednesday, the 13th at 8:00 p.m., Saturday, the 16th at 10:00 p.m., and Sunday, the 17th at 12:00 midnight. On HD3-1, it airs Thursday, the 14th at 12:00 noon, Friday, the 15th at 8:00 p.m., Saturday, the 16th at 11:00 p.m., and Sunday, the 17th at 4:00 p.m.

The reality of bipolar disorder man: is hard to fathom: nearly six million Americans have been diagnosed with the disorder and yet so little is known about how the illness manifests itself in our brains.

Ride the Tiger seeks to find out where the biological breakdowns occur and how we can possibly pre-empt, fix or rewire our brains back to recovery.

Scientists and scholars on the cusp of discovery explore questions and connections that are spurring four scientific disciplines of mental health research: genetics, the brain, treatment, and basic science.

Ride the Tiger weaves together brave and compelling stories of highly accomplished individuals—congressmen, attorneys, pastors, authors, and stay-at-home moms—who have been diagnosed as bipolar. It introduces viewers to high-profile entrepreneurs who have risen to the top despite—or perhaps because of—their bipolar disorder and who, while appearing brilliant and successful to the public, are often secretly wrestling with a devastating emotional cost.

Ride the Tiger will be broadcast on 3-2 Wednesday, the 13th at 9:00 p.m., Sunday, the 17th at 10:00 a.m., and Monday, the 18th at 9:00 p.m. On HD3-1, it airs Wednesday, the 13th at 8:00 p.m. and Thursday, the 14th at 8:00 a.m. and 3:00 p.m.

New Mexico Masterpieces

From stone, to canvas, to words on a page, for centuries New Mexico has served as an inspiration to artists. New Mexico Masterpieces features some of the Land of Enchantment's most enduring, pivotal, provocative, and beautiful artworks. This one-hour special tells the stories behind Chaco Canyon's Pueblo Bonito, Georgia O'Keeffe's "Grey Cross with Blue," John Nichols' The Milagro Beanfield War, and more.

"It's important to take a moment and stop and understand our history, its significance and how it's connected to so many cultures," explains Michael Kaming Executive Producer "These ar

Kamins, Executive Producer. "These artworks reach out to us. Through them we learn about how profound New Mexico really is."

New Mexico Masterpieces highlights painter Georgia O'Keeffe's first visit to New Mexico in 1929 that changed her life forever; the somber and beautiful painting "Winter Funeral" by Taos landscape painter Victor Higgins, that captures a moment in the history of Taos Valley; "The Torreón Fresco, Mundos De Mestizaje" in Albuquerque, one of New Mexico's great artworks completed after nine years of tremendous effort by artist Frederico Vigil; author John Nichols' The Milagro Beanfield War, with its timeless mix of culture, social justice, and humor; renowned filmmaker Godfrey Reggio, who created the internationally acclaimed film "Koyaaniqatsi," and many other masterworks.

New Mexico Masterpieces airs on 3-2 Friday, the 1st at 9:00 p.m. and Sunday, the 3rd at 10:00 a.m. On HD3-1, it can be seen Thursday, the 28th at 12:00 noon.

the most important—not to mention notorious—stage works of the 20th century, "Lulu" is the drama of a young woman who sexually and emotionally dominates a wide range of willing victims. Herself a victim of society, she seems to embody all the frightening aspects of the human condition, a combination of primal instinct and distinctly modern amorality.

Berg died before completing Act III of the opera, and "Lulu" was first performed as a fragment in 1937 at the Zurich Opera House. Efforts to finish the score based on Berg's notes were hindered by his widow and only realized, after her death, by the Austrian composer Friedrich Cerha, in 1977.

The Met's gifted cast is headed by the charismatic German soprano Marlis Peterson as Lulu, who has sung the title role to great acclaim around the world. Soprano Deborah Voigt hosts the 3-1/2 hour broadcast.

"Lulu" on Great Performances at the Met can be seen on 3-2 Sunday, the 17th at 12:00 noon.

JAZZ

Filmmaker Ken Burns tells the story of Jazz-the quintessential American art form. The 10-part series follows the growth and development of jazz music from its beginnings to the present. Nine episodes cover a period of 45 years, from 1917 to 1961, while the final epsiode examines 1961 to 2001.

Jazz is born in the unique musical and social cauldron of New Orleans at the turn of the 20th century. In chronological order, the series emphasizes innovative composers and musicians and American history. Louis Armstrong and Duke Ellington are central figures, and the contributions of Charlie Parker, Dizzy Gillespie, Miles Davis, John Coltrane, and countless others are discussed. In the 1960s, jazz becomes divided into "schools"-Dixieland, swing, bop, hard bop, cool, modal, free, avant-garde. Rock 'n' roll groups dominate record sales and radio and by the late 1960s, jazz is struggling to find its way. But by the mid-80s, jazz begins to bounce back and as it approaches its centennial, jazz is still alive-and still changing.

Jazz airs on 3-2 Sundays at 10:00 p.m. beginning the 3rd. On HD3-1, it airs Saturdays at 7:00 p.m. beginning the 2nd.

National Parks: America's Best Idea

National Parks: America's Best Idea is a six-part documentary series directed by Ken Burns. It is the story of an idea as uniquely American as the Declaration of Independence and just as radical: that the most special places in the nation should be preserved, not for royalty or the rich, but for everyone.

The series begins in 1864 as Congress passes an act that protects Yosemite for "public use, resort and recreation," the first time in world history that any government has proposed this idea.

National Parks continues through the 1920s and 30s as the advent of the automobile allows more people than ever to visit the parks. The final episode makes its way to Alaska, where America's "Last Frontier" becomes a testing ground for the future of the park idea.

The six episodes of National Parks: America's Best Idea will be broadcast on 3-2 Monday through Saturday, the 25th thru the 30th at 8:00 p.m. and on HD3-1 at 7:00 p.m.

farmers in rural Georgia and raised in Pasadena, California, Robinson challenged institutional racism long before he integrated Major League Baseball. As a teenager, he demanded service at a Woolworth's lunch counter and refused to sit in the segregated balcony at a local movie theater. In 1944, while serving as a second lieutenant in the U.S. Army, Robinson was arrested after he defied an order from a civilian bus driver to move to the back of a military bus. He was found not guilty.

In the spring of 1947, Brooklyn Dodgers General Manager Branch Rickey signed Robinson to a major league contract. To help ensure the success of their endeavor, and protect the big league prospects of future African-American players, Robinson agreed to ignore the threats and abuse that Rickey assured him he would face.

That season, Robinson kept his word, remaining silent while he dazzled fans with his brilliant play and helped lead the Dodgers to the National League pennant. By the end of the year, he finished second only to Bing Crosby as the most popular American.

In 1949, Robinson began to speak out, challenging opposing players, arguing with umpires and speaking his mind to the press, and he played some of the best baseball of his career, winning the National League MVP award. Despite his accomplishments on the

Jackie Robinson

Jackie Robinson, a new two-part, four-hour film directed by Ken Burns, tells the story of Jack Roosevelt Robinson, who rose from humble origins to break baseball's color barrier and waged a fierce lifelong battle for first-class citizenship for all African Americans.

Born in 1919 to tenant

field, his outspokenness drew criticism across the league, from the press and even from black fans and players. When he retired in 1956, many were happy to see him go.

After throwing out the first pitch before game two of the 1972 World Series, Robinson told the crowd, and millions watching at home, that it was long past time for Major League Baseball to hire its first black manager. He died nine days later at just 53 years of age from the ravages of diabetes.

Jackie Robinson airs on 3-2 (Pt. 1) Monday, the 11th at 8:00 p.m. and (Pt. 2) Tuesday, the 12th at 8:00 p.m. On HD3-1, (Pt. 1) airs Monday, the 11th at 7:00 p.m. and (Pt. 2) airs Tuesday, the 12th at 7:00 p.m.

SIGNS of the TIME

During the early days of baseball, fans experienced the game without the benefit of an umpire's colorful hand signals: the defiant fist as the perfect pitch crossed home plate, the cross-hand sweep as the runner slid into home, and the dramatic fist pump as the runner, ball, and baseman converged at first base. The umpire's voice, usually drowned out by the screams of thousands of excited fans, served as the only means to signal a ball or strike or to call a player safe or out.

Signs of the Time explores the origins of baseball's hand signals and the pioneers responsible for this pivotal innovation. Narrated by Richard Dreyfuss, the award-winning documentary features full-scale re-enactments of early games and interviews with historians, retired umpires, and former players.

Signs of the Time airs on 3-2 Tuesday, the 12th at 10:00 p.m.

Welcome to Leith

"Could be the scariest film of the year. . ." -Los Angeles Times

"Welcome to Leith" on Independent Lens chronicles the attempted takeover of a small town in North Dakota by notorious white supremacist Craig Cobb. An unsettling exploration of what happens to democratic principles when they're pushed to the limit, the film asks: In a free society, how do we deal with people whose views we find abhorrent?

Leith, North Dakota, is home to 24 people, mostly farmers and ranchers. In 2012, an outsider named Craig Cobb moved in and started buying up property. Residents initially welcomed the bearded stranger, figuring he'd moved to be closer to the oil fields, but Cobb had other motives. Posting on racist online forums that he'd found the perfect place to start an all-white enclave, Cobb implored other white supremacists to move to Leith and help take over the town's government.

But far from the prairies of North Dakota, Ryan Lenz, an investigator from Montgomery, Alabama's Southern Poverty Law Center, discovers Cobb's posts and informs Leith's mayor, Ryan

Call the Midwife 5

As season 5 of Call the Midwife premieres, it's 1961 and Poplar is beginning to feel the winds of social change, along with improvements in housing, sanitation, and healthcare.

In eight new episodes, the midwives and nuns of Nonnatus House encounter complex and challenging cases, from an outbreak of typhoid to the increase in lung cancer, and a pregnant teenager and a mother who vanishes. All are shaken when, several months apart, two babies are born with severe deformities. As they struggle to understand the thalidomide scandal, they must find ways to deal with the resulting medical and emotional fallout.

If that were not enough, the end of season 5 brings the peaceful passing of a fanfavorite character.

Call of the Midwife 5 airs on 3-2 Sundays at 7:00 p.m. beginning the 3rd. On HD3-1, it will be broadcast Sundays at 6:00 p.m. beginning the 3rd.

neo-Nazi group in the

U.S. to stage a town hall meeting, and

The vicar and the cop are back! Reverend Sidney Chambers and Inspector Geordie Keating return for another round of mysteries in "Grantchester 2" on Masterpiece.

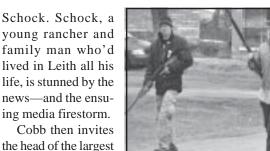

When we last left Grantchester, Geordie was shot on duty in the final episode which aired in January 2015. A year on, he appears to have put this behind him. The vicar is still single and Geordie makes it his missison to find him a woman. But the vicar clearly still only has eyes for Amanda, whom we last saw when she was about to marry Sidney's rival, Guy.

As season 2 opens, Sidney is suspected of murder. But then, so are a fellow priest, a photographer, and a classmate of the victim. Geordie makes up his mind about who will hang.

"Grantchester 2" on Masterpiece airs on 3-2 Sundays at 9:00 p.m. beginning the 3rd and repeats Fridays at 11:00 p.m. On HD3-1, it airs Sundays at 7:00 p.m. beginning the 3rd and repeats Mondays at 6:00 a.m. and 1:00 p.m. beginning the 11th.

Kynan Dutton, Craig Cobb (center), and Deb Henderson patrol the Leith neighborhood.

nearly 300 people show up. Soon after, a family of white supremacists from Oregon moves in to start fixing up Cobb's properties.

As the town struggles to fight against one man's extremist vision, Cobb and his followers ratchet up the intimidation tactics, disrupting city council meetings with shouts of "Sieg Heil" and posting residents' names and home addresses on racist web sites. But when he takes to patrolling the streets with a loaded rifle and shotgun, residents decide they have had enough and proceed to take matters into their own hands.

"Welcome to Leith" on Independent Lens can be seen on 3-2 Monday, the 4th at 9:00 p.m. On HD3-1, it airs Monday, the 4th at 7:00 p.m. and Tuesday, the 5th at 7:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m.

The Secrets of Saint John Paul

The Secrets of Saint John Paul details previously unknown correspondence between Pope John Paul II, now Saint John Paul II in the Catholic Church, and an American woman. Through the course of hundreds of letters over three decades, a deep and close relationship began between the then-Cardinal Karol Wojtyla and Polish-American philosopher Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka, and continued after he was elected Pope John Paul II.

Tymieniecka worked on an English translation of one of Wojtyla's philosophical books, and their friendship grew from letters to holidays spent together. Journalist Edward Stourton's program notes that there's never a suggestion that Pope John Paul II broke his vow of celibacy, but delves into the questions raised by this intense correspondence, which now rests in the Polish national library.

The Secrets of Saint John Paul airs on 3-2 Tuesday, the 5th at 8:00 p.m., Friday, 8th, 9:00 p.m., and Sunday, 10th at 10:00 a.m. On HD3-1, it airs Tuesday, the 5th at 7:00 p.m. and Wednesday, the 6th at 7:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m. 7
