The Farthest — Voyager in Space

The Farthest — Voyager in Space, a two-hour special, tells the captivating tales of the people and events behind one of humanity's greatest achievements in exploration: NASA's Voyager mission, which celebrates its 40th anniversary this August. The twin spacecraft—each with less computing power than a cell phone—used slingshot trajectories to visit Jupiter, Saturn, Uranus, and Neptune. They sent back unprecedented images and data that revolutionized our understanding of the spectacular outer planets and their many peculiar moons. Front cover shows the Voyager encapsulation at the Jet Propulsion Laboratory.

The Farthest — Voyager in Space includes participation from more than 20 of the original and current mission scientists, engineers, and team members. From supermarket aluminum foil added at the last minute to protect the craft from radiation; to the near disasters at launch; to the emergency maneuvers to fix a crucial frozen instrument platform, viewers get a sense of how difficult—and rewarding—space exploration can be.

After completing its mission to Jupiter and Saturn, Voyager 1 turned its camera inward and, at the insistence of the eloquent and insightful astronomer Carl Sagan, took one of the most famous images of Earth ever captured. As described by Sagan in the film, the image showed Earth as a pale blue dot on which "everyone you love, everyone you know, everyone you ever heard of, every human being who ever was, lived out their lives ...on a mote of dust suspended in a sunbeam."

Still going strong four decades after launch, Voyager 1 has traveled more than 12 billion miles and Voyager 2 more than 10 billion. Both nuclear-powered spacecraft continue to send back data. Each spacecraft carries an iconic golden record with greetings, music, and images from Earth—a gift for any aliens that might one day find it. Voyager 1, which is traveling at more than 320 million miles per year, left our solar system and ushered humanity into the interstellar age in 2012. It is the farthest-flung object humans have ever created.

A billion years from now, when our sun has flamed out and burned Earth to a cinder, the Voyagers and their golden records will still be sailing on—perhaps the only remaining evidence that humanity ever existed.

The Farthest — Voyager in Space airs on 3-2 Wednesday, the 23rd at 8:00 p.m. and Monday, the 28th at 9:00 p.m.. On 3-1, it airs Wednesday, the 23rd at 7:00 p.m., Thursday, the 24th at 6:00 a.m. and 1:00 p.m., and Saturday, the 26th at 11:00 p.m.

Eclipse Over America

On Monday, August 21st, 2017, America's eyes will be glued to the skies as the mainland United States experiences the first total solar eclipse since 1979. "Eclipse Over America" on Nova will capture the event in a special presentation to air hours after it takes place.

This extraordinary spectacle will pass through 13 states, and everyone in the continental U.S. will have the opportunity to see at least a partial eclipse, making it the most widely viewable eclipse of all time.

Commencing at 10:15 a.m. PDT (1:15 p.m. EDT), a lunar shadow 73 miles wide will take one hour and 33 minutes to travel from Oregon on the west coast to South Carolina on the east, allowing continuous observation for 90 minutes.

Join scientists and citizens alike as they observe the first total solar eclipse to traverse the US mainland in more than a generation.

"Eclipse Over America" on Nova ais on 3-2 Monday, the 21st at 8:00 p.m., Wednesday, the 23rd at 7:00 p.m., and Saturday, the 26th at 10:00 p.m. On 3-1, it can be seen Tuesday, the 22nd at 7:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m., Thursday, the 24th at 4:00 p.m., Friday, the 25th at 8:00 p.m., and Sunday, the 27th at 4:00 p.m.

Vienna Philharmonic Summer Night Concert 2017

"Vienna Philharmonic Summer Night Concert 2017" comes to Great Performances with special guest Renée Fleming. German pianist and conductor Christoph Eschenbach returns to conduct a varied program of works from "Sleeping Beauty," "Hansel and Gretel," and "Harry Potter." The world-renowned Vienna Philharmonic's 14th open-air concert is set in Austria's Im> perial Schönbrunn Palace Gardens, the summer residence of the Hapsburg Emperors and also between 1805 and 1809, the residence of the French Emperor Napoleon.

The evening's program is inspired by fairy tales, myths, legends, and sagas. Some are new and some are old, and some are German, Bohemian, and Russian. Renowned soprano Renée Fleming performs two arias from operas by Antonin Dvorák as well as three songs by Sergei Rachmaninoff.

> "Vienna Philharmonic Summer Night Concert 2017" on Great Performances airs on 3-2 Friday, the 18th at 9:00 p.m. and Sunday, the 20th at 11:00 p.m. On 3-1, it airs Saturday, the 19th at 8:00 p.m.

Next Act takes a fresh look at her life and her legacy. Born Diana Frances Spencer, she ascended to the heights of the English monarchy and captivated the world with her grace and humanity. Now, as her former husband draws closer to the throne and her sons begin to publically discuss their loss, PBS brings you extraodinary new insights into the life and times of one of modern history's most admired and beloved women.

JEREMIAH

Abby Abinanti is Chief Judge of the Yurok Tribe and first Native American woman to pass the California bar exam.

Tribal Justice

"Tribal Justice" on P.O.V. is about a little-known, underreported but effective criminal justice reform movement in America: the efforts of tribal courts to create alternative systems of justice.

There are more than 300 tribal courts across the country. In California, two formidable women lead the way. Abby Abinanti, Chief Judge of the Yurok Tribe on the north coast, and Claudette White, Chief Judge of the Quechan Tribe in the southern desert. These two Native American judges are creating innovative systems that focus on restoring rather than punishing offenders in order to keep tribal members out of prison, prevent children from being taken from their communities, and stop the school-to-prison pipeline that plagues their young people.

Studies show that Native Americans have the highest meth usage of any ethnic group in the nation, resulting in extremely high crime and incarceration rates. By addressing the root causes of crime, these judges are modeling restorative systems that are working, and mainstream courts across the country are beginning to take notice.

"Tribal Justice" challenges the entrenched cultural narrative of Native Americans as hopeless dependents unable to better their own circumstances. The film shows the featured judges asserting tribal sovereignty and invoking their own traditions to heal their people and raise them out of poverty and inequality.

"Tribal Justice" on P.O.V. airs on 3-2 Monday, the 21st at 9:00 p.m. On 3-1, it can be seen Sunday, the 27th at 9:00 p.m.

On July 18th, 1965, U.S. Navy Commander Jeremiah Denton took off from the aircraft carrier USS Independence leading a 28-plane mission over the city of Thanh Hoa in North Vietnam. Denton's plane was hit by anti-aircraft fire during the attack, and for the next eight long years, he would battle the North Vietnamese as a prisoner of war in the infamous Hanoi Hilton.

As the senior American officer at the prison, Denton was forced by the North Vietnamese to participate in a press conference and told he must say the POWs were being treated well. Looking weak and beaten from the severe punishment he had undergone, Denton took advantage of that opportunity to send a secret message home, blinking out the letters T-O-R-T-U-R-E in Morse code.

Jeremiah tells the story of this American hero who led the way for prisoners in Hanoi and returned from Vietnam to become a U.S. Senator from Alabama. Interviewees include Robert Shumaker, James Mulligan, and George Coker, who were part of the Alcatraz Eleven, a group of hardline resistors (including Denton) that the Vietnamese removed from the Hanoi Hilton and sent to an even worse prison that the POWs named Alcatraz.

Jeremiah airs on 3-2 Wednesday, the 16th at 7:00 p.m. and Sunday, the 20th at 10:00 a.m. On 3-1, it will be broadcast Monday, the 28th at 7:00 p.m.

The Arab Americans places the Arab-American immigrant experience within the context of American history, tying the rise and tribulations of this often misunderstood immigrant community to historical markers. The film tells the untold story of almost 150 years of enrichment of the American fabric by immigrants from the Middle East, North Africa, and the Arabian Peninsula. It explores multiple waves of immigration, along with the impact of 9/11 on the Arab American community.

The Arab-American immigrant experience includes inspiring stories of extraordinary people: Senator George Mitchell; consumer advocate Ralph Nader; actor Jamie Farr; Pulitzer Prize-winning reporter Anthony Shadid; White House correspondent Helen Thomas; actor and founder of St. Jude Children's Research Hospital Danny Thomas; General John Abizaid (Ret. Four Star), and Indy 500 winner Bobby Rahal, among others.

The Arab Americans airs on 3-2 Friday, the 4th at 10:00 p.m. and Sunday, the 20th at 7:00 p.m. On 3-1, it airs Monday, the 14th at 7:00 p.m.

MASTERPIECE Endeavour 4

Shaun Evans returns for a fourth season on Masterpiece as the young Endeavour Morse, before owning his signature red Jaguar but with his deductive powers already running in high gear.

As the new four-part series begins, it's the summer of 1967, and the effects of the Cold War and sixties counterculture are being felt in Oxford. It has barely been two weeks since the events depicted in the season three finale, and we find Oxford's finest picking up the pieces of their personal and professional lives. Endeavour waits to hear the result of his Sergeant's Exam, and selfmedicates to numb his heartache over Joan. Meanwhile, Thursday and Win deal with their own sense of grief. Their home is empty, Sam has gone to the Army, and Joan...who knows where?

"Endeavour 4" on Masterpiece airs on 3-2 Sundays at 8:00 p.m. beginning the 20th and Fridays at 10:00 p.m. beginning the 25th. On 3-1, the miniseries airs Sundays at 7:00 p.m. beginning the 20th and repeats Mondays at 7:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m. beginning the 21st.

I'll Have It My Way with Hattie Bryant

Some 70% of Americans say they want to die peacefully surrounded by friends and family, while in actuality, 70% are dying in institutions surrounded by strangers. I'll Have It My Way with Hattie Bryant informs viewers that anyone who is willing to take four simple steps now, while healthy, can minimize, if not avoid entirely, the suffering, confusion, and disagreements that can arise when end-of-life healthcare wishes are not clearly spelled out. Often those unable to make critical end-of-life decisions for themselves spend their last days in overmedicalized, painful, and protracted situations.

Bryant has gathered information from national experts in palliative care, geriatrics, oncology, bio-ethics, psychology, and spirituality. She passionately presents the case for personal responsibility in the healthcare, legal, and procedural decisions that all of us must make—if they are not to be made for us.

I'll Have It My Way airs on 3-2 Sunday, the 6th at 2:00 p.m. On 3-1, it airs Saturday, the 5th at 2:00 p;m. and Wednesday, the 9th at 7:00 p.m.

Ethan Bortnick: Generations of Music

Sixteen-year-old singer, songwriter, pianist, and composer Ethan Bortnick returns to PBS in Generations of Music, an all-new concert. Appealing to audiences of all ages and musical tastes, the spectacular song selection spans multiple generations and genres, from Beethoven's Pathétique Sonata to an entire audience dancing to "Rockin Robin." The concert includes special guests Peter Yarrow (Peter, Paul and Mary) and singer Bethany Yarrow.

At the age of three, Ethan asked his parents for piano lessons and discovered his uncanny ability to hear a song once and play it back note for note, the musical equivalent of a photographic memory. He soaked up the music of Beethoven, Mozart, jazz pianist Bill Evans, Little Richard, Billy Joel, Elton John, and others and began creating original compositions at age five. At age nine, he was recognized as "The Youngest Musician to Headline a Solo Concert Tour."

Ethan Bortnick: Generations of Music airs on 3-2 Saturday, the 13th at 8:30 p.m. On 3-1, it can be seen Monday, the 7th at 8:30 p.m.

Folk Legends: Isn't This a Time!

Folk Legends: Isn't This a Time! is one of the greatest folk concerts of all time. The Weavers, Peter, Paul & Mary, Pete Seeger, and Arlo Guthrie performed together at Carnegie Hall in 2003 and now that concert is being televised on PBS for the first time.

Folk Legends: Isn't This a Time! is linked to the famous 1955 Carnegie Hall concert by the Weavers that was masterminded to defy the blacklist and to restore The Weavers' right to perform publicly. Some music historians attribute the start of the modern folk revival to that historic performance. Pete Seeger and Arlo Guthrie continued the tradition of the 1955 concert by holding annual concerts at Carnegie Hall every Thanksgiving. The performances in this concert are considered by the artists themselves to be among their best.

Folk Legends: Isn't This a Time! will be broadcast on 3-2 Saturday, the 5th at 9:00 p.m. and Thursday, the 10th at 7:00 p.m. On 3-1, it airs Saturday, the 12th at 7:00 p.m.

The Healing Mind with Dr. Martin Rossman

At its best, worry provides a way for us to turn over and solve a problem in our minds, but for many it becomes a negative cycle of unnecessary suffering. Based on cutting-edge brain science, Dr. Martin Rossman in The Healing Mind has developed a program to help break the worry cycle and transform worry into a positive force.

Using proven clinical techniques that harness the very power of imagination that creates worry and stress, The Healing Mind reveals the five basic skills that will help clarify worries, sort them into those we can and can't do something about, and tap the wisdom buried deep within to help solve problems creatively.

Dr. Rossman has taught clinical guided imagery to over 10,000 health professionals since 1982.

The Healing Mind can be seen on 3-2 Sunday, the 13th at 12:30 p.m. On 3-1, it airs Sunday, the 6th at 2:00 p.m. and Wednesday, the 9th at 8:30 p.m.

Play the Ukulele with the Atomic Sharks

Millions of people worldwide are picking up the amazing little ukulele for the first time ever. Its fans include George Clooney, Ryan Gosling, and Paul McCartney. George Harrison adored the uke and Pearl Jam's Eddie Vedder released a ukulele album. But some people aren't sure they can master playing the instrument, or that it may be too late to learn. Play the Ukulele with the Atomic Sharks is here to prove them wrong.

Kris Hensler and Kenny Taylor—the Atomic Sharks—can get anyone strumming along on the ukulele in no time. With the ease of learning a few basic chords, anyone can start playing their favorite songs in hours. By the end of Play the Ukulele, viewers will be strumming "Happy Birthday," "Somewhere Over The Rainbow," and Jimmy Buffett's "Changes in Latitude."

Play the Ukulele can be seen on 3-2 Saturday, the 5th at 3:30 p.m. On 3-1, it will be broadcast Thursday, the 10th at 9:00 p.m. and Sunday, the 13th at 3:00 p.m.

Mindfulness Goes Mainstream

Mindfulness meditation has gone beyond mainstream into the most unlikely places from British Parliament to the Marine Corps to Fortune 100 boardrooms—fueled by scientific evidence that confirms its benefits and positive impact on health and well-being. No longer limited to Eastern philosophers or California hippies, mindfulness is now embraced by millions of ordinary people trying to survive in a totally stressed out world. Mindfulness Goes Mainstream explores this revolution and the power of meditation to transform lives, Meditation, one of the oldest methods for cultivating inner calm and stability, has now been proven by modern science to have a positive impact on our health and quality of life. Over 1,500 studies have now been published citing how meditation lowers stress, improves heart and lung functionality, and dramatically enhances focus and performance. Steve Jobs credited his daily meditation practice with the ability to clear his mind in order to access intuitions that led to the creation of Apple products. Tina Turner attributes meditation as the key to turning her life around. And the coach and most of the players on the Seattle Seahawks are meditating regularly.

Mindfulness Goes Mainstream explores mindfulness through the voices of some of the very best teachers, business leaders, and experts in the field, focusing on areas where mindfulness has proven to have significant benefits, including stress, anxiety, and depression; pain, cravings, and mindful eating; focus and performance, and compassion and empathy.

Mindfulness Goes Mainstream can be seen on 3-2 Sunday, the 6th at 1:00 p.m. On 3-1, it airs Saturday, the 5th at 3:30 p.m., Friday, the 11th at 7:00 p.m., and Sunday, the 13th at 2:00 p.m.
