THE SULTAN AND THE SAINT

The Sultan and the Saint tells the little-known story of St. Francis of Assisi and the Sultan of Egypt, Muhammad Al-Kamil, two charismatic men of different faiths who met on a bloody battlefield and found common ground. In 1219, during the height of the Crusades — the bitter religious war between Muslims and Christians — St. Francis risked his life in an attempt to bring peace. What he encountered when he crossed enemy lines was a Muslim leader who welcomed him, listened with respect, and who ultimately responded with one of the greatest humanitarian acts in the history of warfare.

By the time the two men met, Christians were on their Fifth Crusade, fighting a holy war to reclaim Jerusalem after five centuries of Muslim rule. To motivate men to travel to faraway lands and engage in bloody conflict, Christian leaders stoked religious fervor and hatred of the enemy. “Destroy that vile race,” wrote Pope Urban II in his letter of instruction to the first crusaders. “To persuade them further, political and religious leaders preached lies and dehumanized the enemy, tapping into something primal and dangerous,” said director Alex Kronemer.

In 1218, the Fifth Crusade launched an attack on Damietta, Egypt, a fortress city at the mouth of the Nile, where fate would bring the Sultan and the Saint together. Francis decides to bring his message of peace to the Crusades, and in 1219 travels to Egypt with a fellow friar, Illuminato.

“Francis tells us that he clearly heard God asking him to be a peacemaker in this world, a peacemaker in the manner of Jesus Christ,” says Catholic scholar Kathleen Warren. “Francis realized that the message he was given to promote peace in the world necessitated him going to the Muslims.”

Crossing the corpse-strewn battlefield at Damietta, Francis and Illuminato are intercepted by guards. When Francis explains that they come in peace, guards escort them to the Sultan’s tent, where Al-Kamil offers them food and allows them to stay in the Muslim camp. Francis then returns to Italy, profoundly changed. “The biggest indication that Francis was changed by his encounter with Sultan Al-Kamil is that he rewrote the rule of his order, its code of conduct, its constitution really, to say to his friars that you can go and live in peace among Muslims,” says Paul Moses, author of The Saint and the Sultan: The Crusades, Islam and Francis of Assisi’s Mission of Peace.

The Crusaders march on but make the fatal mistake of setting up camp on the flood plain of the Nile. Al-Kamil orders the river’s gates opened and floods the land, sinking the Crusaders and their horses into mud and muck. Surrounded by the Muslim army with no escape, the Crusaders face starvation and certain death.

Against the advice of his generals—who tell him to go for the kill—Al-Kamil orders food to be delivered to the Crusaders. “The sultan was moved by such compassion that for many days he freely fed us as we were dying of hunger,” wrote Oliver of Paderborn, a Crusader present in Egypt. The crusaders surrender control of Damietta and return to Europe.

Al-Kamil’s act of humanity did not end the Crusades, but marked the beginning of the end of the conflict. People were not as anxious to fight as they were “no longer convinced that Islam was the implacable enemy of Christendom,” says medieval scholar Helen Nicholson.

Francis continued to write about a loving and forgiving God, in language remarkably similar to the way that Muslims invoke the 99 Beautiful Names of God. He died in 1226, seven years after Damietta. Two years later the Church declared him a saint. Al-Kamil ruled for 20 more years; his reign was marked by fairness towards the Christians of Egypt.

The Sultan and the Saint will be broadcast on 3-2 Tuesday, the 26th at 7:00 p.m., Wednesday, the 27th at 9:00 p.m., Friday, the 29th at 9:00 p.m., and Sunday, the 31st at 10:00 a.m. On 3-1, it can be seen Friday, the 29th at 9:00 p.m. and Sunday, the 31st at 2:00 p.m.

Secrets of Spanish Florida

A Secrets of the Dead Special

The first permanent European settlement in the United States was founded in 1565—two generations before the settlements in Jamestown and Plymouth—not by English Protestants, but by the Spanish and a melting pot of people they brought with them from Africa, Italy, Germany, Ireland, and even converted Jews, who integrated almost immediately with the indigenous tribes.

A two-hour Secrets of the Dead, “Secrets of Spanish Florida” uncovers one story of America’s past that never made it into textbooks. Follow some of America’s leading archaeologists, maritime scientists, and historians as they share the story of Florida’s earliest settlers. It’s a story that has taken more than 450 years to reveal.

◆ With claim to the east coast of the New World contested by both the French and the Spanish, a community of settlers from Spain and elsewhere arrived in 1565 and laid claim to an area that is now St. Augustine, Florida. They founded the first continuously-occupied European settlement in the United States in 1565—55 years before the Pilgrims arrived in Plymouth.

◆ The first settlers in America’s oldest city set out in 8 Spanish Galleons carrying more than 1500 people and enough provisions to sustain them until they could produce their own food and supplies in the New World. There were 26 families, tailors, shoemakers, surgeons, barbers, and a master beer brewer. A deadly hurricane sunk several ships at sea. Only 5 of them ever made it to American soil.

◆ In the mid-1600’s, the English pirate Robert Searles sacked and looted the town, killing more than 60 people and taking 70 hostages. He sold the Africans and Natives as slaves in the Caribbean.

◆ Nearly 125 years before the Emancipation Proclamation—in 1738—a colony of 100 former slaves had already been given their freedom and their own land in Spanish La Florida.

◆ The British obtained La Florida from the Spanish by treaty in exchange for Havana in 1763. For the free black community of St Augustine it was an unimaginable twist of fate—they could not face enslavement again. As many as 3019 people fled. As the Spanish ships sailed away from St. Augustine, the first legally-sanctioned free black community in the United States disappeared.

“Secrets of Spanish Florida” on Secrets of the Dead can be seen on 3-2 Tuesday, the 26th at 8:00 p.m. and Sunday, the 31st at 2:00 p.m. On 3-1, it airs Wednesday, the 27th at 7:00 p.m. and Thursday, the 28th at 7:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m.

A Tale of Two Sisters

A Tale of Two Sisters is a two-part series that examines the lives of famous women and their lesser-known siblings. Part one explores the bond between Amelia Earhart and her sister Muriel, who was her greatest champion and support system. Part two features Jackie Kennedy Onassis and her sister Lee Radziwell, analyzing the ways they were bound together by love, resentment, and tragedy.

While the story of Amelia is well known, less known and appreciated is the role of her little sister Muriel, whom she affectionately called Pidge. Amelia's childhood with her sister in Kansas sowed the seeds for her future exploits. Both girls were tomboys and both went on to campaign for equality. It was Muriel who loaned Amelia some of the money with which she bought her first plane.

Muriel married in 1929 and had two children, but Amelia, who was in a relationship with publisher GP Putnam, didn't want a family life. When Amelia finally did marry Putnam in 1931, she refused to take his name. And, as a strong advocate of birth control, children were out of the question.

Amelia's story ended in 1937, during her round-the-world attempt. Muriel coped by writing about her famous sister, and campaigning for the causes she believed in. She died in 1998.

The second episode delves into the relationship between Jackie Bouvier and her little sister Lee, four years her junior. Theirs was a tale of love and rivalry. Jackie grew up to marry into the Kennedy family, while Lee proved herself to be just as connected. She married a Polish prince, in exile in Britain. Among her friends were Andy Warhol, Truman Capote, Rudolf Nureyev, and Giorgio Armani.

One of Lee's early loves was Aristotle Onassis, the Greek shipping magnate who would become Jackie's second husband. At one point Lee had considered marrying the billionaire, but Jackie apparently staged an intervention. Then Jackie herself tied the knot with Onassis.

The show paints a picture of two little girls whose world fell apart when their parents, the stockbroker John Vernou Bouvier and his wife Janet, divorced. Both parents did agree on one thing, however, that the sisters needed to marry well. It was Lee who married first. Her husband was Michael Canfield, rumored to be the illegitimate son of the Duke of Kent.

Just two months after Lee's wedding, Jackie announced her engagement to senator John Fitzgerald Kennedy. While JFK and his bride embarked on their new life together, Lee's marriage was in crisis.

As Jackie struggled to make the role of First Lady hers, her sister proved to be a calming influence. Never was this more true than in the months after JFK's assassination, when Lee flew from London to be at her sister's side.

Jewish Film Showcase

The National Center for Jewish Film presents the Jewish Film Showcase, three award-winning films, each exploring a dynamic story rich in history, art, and culture.

In "Raise the Roof," artists Rick and Laura Brown are inspired to build a replica of a magnificent, mural-covered wooden 18th century Polish synagogue, the last of which was destroyed by the Nazis.

"Carvalho's Journey" is a real-life 19th-century American western adventure about Charleston born Sephardic daguerreotypist Solomon Nunes Carvalho (at left) who became one of the first to photograph the Far West while traveling with mountain men, Native Americans, and Mormons as part of explorer John Fremont's 1853 Westward Expedition. "Ahead of Time" focuses on photojournalist Ruth Gruber's seven trailblazing decades as a foreign correspondent. Gruber didn't just report the news, she made it.

The Jewish Film Showcase can be seen on 3-2 Sundays at 10:30 p.m. beginning the 3rd. On 3-1, the films air Saturdays at 7:00 p.m. beginning the 9th.

It explores the painful and human sides of these professions and the professionals' response to trauma known as compassion fatigue or secondary traumatic stress. It also highlights the profound meaning caregivers draw from their work, sometimes referred to as compassion satisfaction, and looks at ways of coping with toxic stress in the workplace.

Portraits of Professional Caregivers: Their Passion, Their Pain airs on 3-1 Wednesday, the 20th at 9:00 p.m. and Thursday, the 28th at 7:00 p.m. On 3-1, it airs Tuesday, the 12th at 8:00 a.m.

Eric Idle's The Entire Universe

A cosmic explosion of comedy, music, dance, and science, Eric Idle's The Entire Universe tackles nothing less than the origins of the cosmos in a zany extravaganza. It opens with Master of Ceremonies Idle introducing Professor Cox, who will deliver a lecture on the origins of the cosmos. His valiant attempts to explain the 138-billion-year history of the universe—including the Big Bang, the space-time continuum, fundamental particles, gravitational fields, and more—are constantly interrupted by a motley crew of special guests, including British comedian Noel Fielding, who appears as both Albert Einstein and a Higgs Boson particle.

Eric Idle's The Entire Universe airs on 3-2 Friday, the 22nd at 9:00 p.m. On 3-1, it airs Tuesday, the 26th at 7:00 p.m. and Wednesday, the 27th at 8:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m.

Fostering an Unconditional Love

Every year hundreds of thousands of children enter the foster care system. In 2014, over 100,000 youth were waiting for adoption while 50,600 were actually adopted. Worst of all, 22,392 children were emancipated, meaning they exited the foster care system without a permanent, legal family.

Fostering an Unconditional Love aims to educate the public on the plight of these children, to share the efforts of the people who work to help them, and to build an awareness of what can be done to address this serious national issue.

Each state operates and oversees its own foster care system and the laws vary from state to state, but the issue of finding a home for these children and its challenges are the same no matter where the child is from.

Fostering an Unconditional Love can be seen on 3-2 Saturday, the 2nd at 10:30 p.m. and Sunday, the 31st at 1:30 p.m.

Selling Sunshine: The Florida Trains

Selling Sunshine: The Florida Trains traces the history of rail passenger service between New York City and Midwest points to Florida. The program covers the construction process of the Key West Extension and its demise in 1935 when a hurricane damaged the link between Miami and Key West beyond repair.

Pre-war and post-war new streamliners such as the "Florida Special" are profiled by various interviews of people who rode or worked on the trains. The introduction of air-conditioning provided year-round service.

Selling Sunshine: The Florida Trains will be broadcast on 3-2 Monday, the 4th at 9:00 p.m.

The Big Band Years

The Big Band Years turns back the clock to a time when swing musicians ruled the radio and night clubs, bringing a joyful escape to Americans during one of the most turbulent periods in the nation's history.

Glenn Miller was responsible for some of the most enduring big band songs, including "In the Mood" and "Chattanooga Choo-Choo." Miller's beloved saxophonist Tex Beneke sang vocals on the group's 1942 million-seller "(I've Got a Gal in) Kalamazoo."

Harry James performs the classic "Tuxedo Junction," and clarinet king Benny Goodman's signature tunes include "Sing, Sing, Sing" and "These Foolish Things"

Helen O'Connell and Bob Eberly enjoyed huge success with "Green Eyes" in 1941. A young Frank Sinatra sings "I'll Never Smile Again" and the immortal Andrews Sisters harmonize on their swinging smash "Boogie Woogie Bugle Boy."

The Big Band Years can be seen on 3-2 Saturday, the 2nd at 6:30 p.m.

Happy Holidays!

from KENW Public Radio Network

'Tis the season to give thanks and we at KENW-FM want to thank you for your support this past year! On December 9th, 2017, we will kick off our Holiday Fund Drive, our last pledge drive for this year. KENW-FM has three such drives per year, each lasting for eight days. Our goal each drive is $18,000. This money is used to help us pay for the programs we broadcast all year long.

Our Holiday Fund Drive will go from Saturday, December 9th through Saturday, December 16th. We hope that if you have not yet contributed to our programming fund this year, that you will do so now. You can pledge online at www.kenw.org or telephone in your pledge toll-free at 1-888-367-5369 (1-888-FOR-KENW).

By the way, you can now enjoy listening to KENW-FM on your computer by going to the Listen Live button at the top of our web page (www.kenw.org) or on your smartphone. Free cell phone apps for listening to KENW-FM are available from both Google Play Store and from I-Phone.

Wishing you and yours a wonderful Holiday Season from all of us here at the KENW.
