MASTERPIECE

Downton Abbey Season 4 Premieres

The most-watched drama in PBS history enters its fourth gripping season with the whole world waiting to learn how the beloved characters deal with a shocking tragedy. The acclaimed ensemble is back, together with returning guest star Academy Award-winner Shirley MacLaine and new guest star Paul Giamatti.

All who tuned in last season know that Matthew Crawley—heir to Downton Abbey, husband to Lady Mary (Michelle Dockery), and brand new father to a baby boy and successor—lies dead on a country road next to his overturned roadster. On top of this, the family is still grieving over the death in childbirth of Sybil, Mary's youngest sister, who also left a baby behind.

Season 4 opens six months later. Although it is the 1920s, Britain still observes mourning rituals that are almost Victorian in their solemnity. Nonetheless, the Crawleys are beginning to snap out of it: Robert, Lord Grantham (Hugh Bonneville), must manage the estate without his canny son-in-law; Cora (Elizabeth McGovern) suddenly faces a staffing crisis; Violet, who has seen enough tragedy, knows how to recoup quickly; Isobel (Penelope Wilton), Matthew's mother, may never recover; Edith (Laura Carmichael), who was jilted at the altar, tempts scandal with a new beau; and Mary now finds herself the most desirable widow in Yorkshire. The servants also pick up, buck up, and get on with it—with new arrivals, departures, rivalries, and betrayals among the downstairs staff. Life goes on at Downton Abbey.

On both 3-2 and HD3-1, "Downton Abbey IV" on Masterpiece Classic airs Sundays at 8:00 p.m. beginning January 5th. See the AtoZ on pages 2 (3-2) and 19 (HD3-1) for repeat broadcasts.

Sherlock Season 3

A date has been set for the return of one of television's most eagerly anticipated shows: Sherlock Season 3 on Masterpiece Mystery! premieres following the broadcast of "Downton Abbey." Benedict Cumberbatch (above, right) and Martin Freeman (above, left) return as Sherlock Holmes and John Watson in three new 90-minute episodes of the contemporary re-invention of the Sir Arthur Conan Doyle classic.

Nearly 11 million viewers tuned into the second season of Sherlock, which ended with one of the most shocking cliffhangers in television history. Fans flocked to the internet to speculate about Sherlock's "demise," and express their eagerness to find out what happens next.

As in previous seasons, titles for the three—"The Empty Hearse"; "The Sign of Three"; and "His Last Vow"—are pegged to a classic Sherlock Holmes title by Arthur Conan Doyle—delightfully, wittily, and briskly updated, of course.

"Sherlock III" on Masterpiece Mystery! airs Sundays at 9:00 p.m. beginning January 19th on both 3-2 and HD3-1.

AMERICAN EXPERIENCE

In 1918, on the brink of becoming the largest metropolis in the world, New York City hired Charles Norris as its first scientifically trained medical examiner. Over the course of a decade and a half, Norris and his chief toxicologist, Alexander Gettler, turned forensic chemistry into a formidable science, sending impatient heirs, jilted lovers, and desperate debtors to the electric chair. Based on Deborah Blum's bestselling book of the same title, the two-hour "The Poisoner's Handbook" airs on American Experience.

In the early 1900s, the average American medicine cabinet was a would-be poisoner's treasure chest. Deadly chemicals such as radioactive radium, thallium, potassium cyanide, and morphine lurked in health tonics, depilatory creams, teething medicine, and cleaning supplies. While the tools of the murderer's trade multiplied as the pace of industrial innovation increased, the scientific knowledge and political will to detect and prevent crime lagged behind. Unnatural deaths were handled by the coroner, a position handed out to the corrupt and unqualified as political payback. New York's coroners were particularly notorious for taking kickbacks from funeral homes and changing death certificates for a price.

All this changed when Norris, the scion of one of Philadelphia's wealthiest families, and Gettler, the son of poor immigrants, were hired. Against the opposition of corrupt politicians and powerful industrialists, Norris and Gettler were determined to fight corruption and use science to explain the causes of suspicious deaths. They pioneered a justice system based on forensic science instead of cronyism. They also forced corporations and governments to regulate the chemicals used in workplaces and consumer products.

The program looks back at Norris and Gettler's most notorious cases, including the cold-hearted serial killer Fanny Creighton; the death and dismemberment of Anna Frederickson; the fatal radium poisoning of the dial painter girls at a New Jersey watch factory; and the battle with Standard Oil over leaded gasoline. Together, one autopsy and one case at a time, Norris and Gettler elevated forensic science into a highly respected discipline that has revolutionized the justice system in America.

American Experience "The Poisoner's Handbook" can be seen Tuesday, January 7th at 7:00 p.m. and Monday, January 13th at 9:00 p.m. On HD3-1, it airs Tuesday, January 7th at 7:00 p.m. and repeats Wednesday, January 8th at 6:00 a.m. and 12:00 noon.

To Catch a Trader

In just over two decades, Steven A. Cohen has amassed a gigantic fortune: a sprawling 35,000-square-foot mansion on Connecticut's gold coast; a $62-million beach house in the Hamptons; and several New York apartments, including a $115-million mid-town duplex—all of them furnished with some of the world's most expensive art. How did he do it?

From small-time options trader to King of Wall Street hedge fund managers, Frontline's "To Catch a Trader" investigates Cohen and his company, SAC Capital, and other Wall Street players with never-before-seen video and incriminating FBI wiretaps. It is a taut crime drama with a cast of colorful characters: from cheating traders with their "Mr. Whisper" sources to some of the most respected figures in American business.

To date, the government has convicted 76 people of securities fraud and conspiracy. Will Cohen be the next to fall? Frontline tracks an ongoing seven-year investigation into the largest insider trading scandal in U.S. history.

"To Catch a Trader" on Frontline can be seen Tuesday, January 7th at 10:00 p.m. and Thursday, January 9th at 7:00 p.m. On HD3-1, the program airs Tuesday, January 7th at 9:00 p.m. and Wednesday, January 8th at 11:00 a.m. and 4:30 p.m.

Secret State of North Korea

Just two years in the job and armed with nuclear weapons, North Korea's Kim Jong-Un is the world's youngest dictator, ruling one of the world's most isolated countries. Like his father and grandfather, he wants to maintain tight control over what North Koreans see of the world—and what the world sees of North Korea.

But with unique access, "Secret State of North Korea" on Frontline goes inside North Korea to explore life under its new ruler and to investigate the enigmatic "Morning Star King" as he tries to hold onto power.

Using new footage smuggled from inside and never-before-told stories from recent defectors living in South Korea, the film offers a rare glimpse of how some North Koreans are defying authority in a country where just being caught with illegal DVDs could mean immediate imprisonment.

"Secret State of North Korea" on Frontline will be broadcast Tuesday, January 14th at 10:00 p.m. and Thursday, January 16th at 7:00 p.m. On HD3-1, this episode airs Tuesday, January 14th at 9:00 p.m. and Wednesday, January 15th at 11:00 a.m. and 4:30 p.m.

CHASING SHACKLETON

Chasing Shackleton, a three-part series, follows a modern expedition that re-creates Sir Ernest Shackleton's Trans-Antarctic Expedition, which launched in 1914. The series joins a crew of five explorers, led by renowned adventurer Tim Jarvis, as they duplicate Shackleton's epic sea-and-land voyage in a replica of the original explorers' 22-foot wooden lifeboat, with 100-year-old equipment, clothes, and rations. Their mission is to discover exactly what happened on the most famous survival story in expedition history—Shackleton's 800-mile boat journey across the Southern Ocean and deadly mountain crossing of South Georgia.

When the ship The Endurance was crushed by ice and sank, Shackleton's heroic leadership in the face of almost certain death saved the lives of 27 men stranded in the Antarctic for more than 500 days. His exploits have inspired explorers across every continent over many generations.

Chasing Shackleton airs Wednesdays at 9:00 p.m. beginning January 8th and Sundays at 11:00 p.m. beginning January 12th. On HD3-1, it airs Wednesdays at 9:00 p.m. beginning January 8th, Thursdays at 11:00 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. beginning January 9th, Saturdays at 9:00 p.m. beginning January 11th, and Sundays at 3:00 p.m. beginning January 12th.

SALINGER

American Masters' 200th episode, "Salinger," is the first work to get beyond the Catcher in the Rye author's meticulously built-up wall: his childhood, painstaking work methods, marriages, private world, and the secrets he left behind after his death in 2010. The two-and-one-half hour program features interviews with 150 subjects, including J.D. Salinger's friends, colleagues, and members of his inner circle who have never spoken on the record before, as well as film footage, photographs, and other material that has never been seen.

Additionally, Philip Seymour Hoffman, Edward Norton, John Cusack, Danny DeVito, John Guare, Martin Sheen, David Milch, Robert Towne, Tom Wolfe, E.L. Doctorow, Gore Vidal, and Pulitzer Prize-winners A. Scott Berg and Elizabeth Frank talk about Salinger's influence on their lives, their work, and the broader culture.

American Masters "Salinger" will be broadcast Tuesday, January 21st at 8:00 p.m. On HD3-1, it can be seen Tuesday, January 21st at 7:00 p.m.

HAWKING

Hawking is the intimate and revealing story of Stephen Hawking's life, told for the first time in Hawking's own words and with unique access to his home and public life.

Hawking carefully tells his life journey, from boyhood under-achiever to PhD genius; from being a healthy cox on the Oxford rowing team to being diagnosed with motor neuron disease. He was given just two years to live—yet survived several close brushes with death. The film also highlights his greatest scientific discoveries and plots his rise to fame and superstardom.

The audience joins him at home, under the care of his nursing team; in San Jose as he "wows" a packed theatre audience; in Silicon Valley as he meets a team of technicians who hope to speed up his communication system; and as he throws a party for family and friends.

Hawking can be seen Wednesday, January 29th at 9:00 p.m. On HD3-1, it airs Wednesday, January 29th at 9:00 p.m. and Thursday, January 30th at 11:00 a.m. and 4:30 p.m.

NATURE

Meet the Coywolf

“Meet the Coywolf” on Nature introduces a remarkable new hybrid carnivore, a mixture of western coyote and eastern wolf, that is taking over territories once roamed by wolves and slipping unnoticed into our cities. Its appearance is very recent—within the last 90 years—in evolutionary terms, a blip in time.

The story of how the coywolf came to be is an extraordinary tale of how quickly adaptation and evolution can occur, especially when humans interfere. Tag along as scientists study this new top predator, tracking it from the wilderness of Ontario’s Algonquin Park all the way to the streets of New York City.

“Meet the Coywolf” on Nature airs Wednesday, January 22nd at 7:00 p.m. and Saturday, January 25th at 11:00 p.m. On HD3-1, it airs Wednesday, January 22nd at 7:00 p.m., Thursday, January 23rd at 7:00 a.m. and 12:00 noon, and Sunday, January 26th at 6:00 p.m.

The Funkiest Monkeys

Twenty-five years ago, filmmaker Colin Stafford-Johnson travelled to Sulawesi in Indonesia and fell in love with crested black macaques. These feisty monkeys are beach bums with punk hairstyles, expressive faces, copper-colored eyes, and some very unusual habits, making them some of the most charismatic of all monkeys. Learning that their numbers have dropped dramatically, Stafford-Johnson makes a return visit to find out why and to see if he can help, in “The Funkiest Monkeys” on Nature.

“The Funkiest Monkeys” on Nature airs Wednesday, January 29th at 7:00 p.m. and Saturday, February 1st at 11:00 p.m. On HD3-1, it can be seen Wednesday, January 29th at 7:00 p.m., Thursday, January 30th at 7:00 a.m. and 12:00 noon, and Sunday, February 2nd at 6:00 p.m.

Barrymore

In Great Performances “Barrymore,” 83-year-old stage and screen legend Christopher Plummer portrays another titan of theater and film from an earlier age—the illustrious and notorious John Barrymore.

This acclaimed film adaptation of William Luce’s 1997 play is set in 1942 during the final months of Barrymore’s life. On the stage of a Broadway theater, the famously combative star struggles to recreate his performance in Shakespeare’s Richard III, recalling the highs and lows of his remarkable life and career in the process.

“Barrymore” on Great Performances airs Friday, January 31st at 9:00 p.m. On HD3-1, it can be seen Saturday, February 1st at 7:00 p.m.

Russia’s Open Book: Writing in the Age of Putin

Some of the greatest literary achievements of the 19th and 20th centuries are Russian: Alexander Pushkin’s Eugene Onegin, Dostoyevsky’s Crime and Punishment, Tolstoy’s War and Peace, and Solzhenitsyn’s One Day in the Life of Ivan Denisovich. Readers in the West may have stopped hearing about Russian literature after the USSR collapse, but that doesn’t mean the Russians stopped writing. Russia’s Open Book: Writing in the Age of Putin asks the question: Who is the new Tolstoy, Dostoevsky, or Gogol, waiting to be discovered by the English-speaking world?

Russia’s Open Book celebrates six contemporary Russian authors who are carrying on one of the world’s great literary traditions. Each author is interviewed, and excerpts from their recent works are brought to life by vivid animated sequences with dramatic readings in English.

Russia’s Open Book: Writing in the Age of Putin airs Thursday, January 2nd at 7:00 p.m., Friday, January 3rd at 11:00 p.m., and Sunday, January 15th at 10:00 a.m. On HD3-1, it airs Monday, January 13th at 6:00 a.m. and 12:00 noon.

The Real Mary Poppins

Author Pamela Travers (shown), creator of Mary Poppins, led a remarkable but troubled life. Behind the fictional nanny lies a complex tale of a young woman escaping rural Australia in her pursuit to become a writer, reinventing herself and her past along the way.

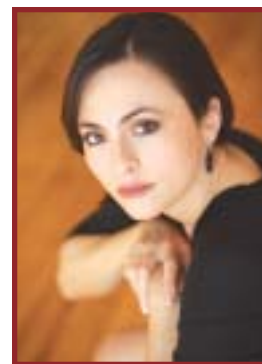

The Real Mary Poppins combines interviews and footage from the 2002 documentary, “The Shadow of Mary Poppins,” interwoven with clips from the new film “Saving Mr. Banks.” The Real Mary Poppins draws on an extensive archive to tell Travers’ real story and to answer the question so many have asked: Where did Mary Poppins come from?

The Real Mary Poppins airs Friday, January 24th at 9:00 p.m. and Sunday, January 26th at 10:00 a.m. On HD3-1, it airs Friday, January 24th at 9:00 p.m., Saturday, January 25th at 7:00 p.m., and Monday, January 27th at 6:00 a.m. and 12:00 noon.

Richard Tucker at 100: An Opera Celebration

Live From Lincoln Center presents “Richard Tucker at 100: An Opera Celebration,” one of the most highly anticipated events of the opera season, from Lincoln Center’s Avery Fisher Hall. It celebrates the legendary tenor’s centenary with an illustrious all-American group of singers, and honoring this year’s Richard Tucker Award winner Isabel Leonard (shown).

For this annual gala, a star-studded group of American singers takes the stage, including Stephanie Blythe, Stephen Costello, Joyce DiDonato, Renée Fleming, Christine Goerke, Susan Graham, and others.

“Richard Tucker at 100: An Opera Celebration” on Live From Lincoln Center can be seen Friday, January 10th at 9:00 p.m. On HD3-1, it will be broadcast Saturday, January 11th at 7:00 p.m.

The State of Arizona

“The State of Arizona” on Independent Lens captures the explosive emotions and complex realities behind Arizona’s headline-grabbing struggle with illegal immigration. Following Arizona’s controversial Senate Bill 1070, dubbed the “show me your papers” law, the film tells the stories of Arizonans on all sides of this divisive issue from ground zero of the nation’s immigration debate.

Between 1996 and 2009, illegal immigration rose 300% in Arizona, to an estimated 460,000 people. Frustrated with federal inaction and rising border tensions, Arizona lawmakers ignited a national maelstrom by instituting the SB 1070 law that requires police officers to ask for papers from people they reasonably suspect to be undocumented in the course of an otherwise lawful stop.

The film follows the journey of the law all the way to the Supreme Court through the voices of those who wrote and support it and of the many who dread its power. SB 1070 is meant to enforce immigration laws, “one traffic stop at a time,” according to its author, State Senator Russell Pearce.

Despite protests, on July 29th, 2010, SB 1070 becomes law, and Russell Pearce’s political star is on the ascent. A new wave of even stricter laws is introduced in the Arizona legislature, including the first ever challenge to the 14th Amendment’s guarantee of U.S. citizenship through birth on American soil. But Republican senators unexpectedly vote against the measures, convinced by CEOs from across the state that Arizona’s economy is suffering from the negative publicity. Several months later, Pearce is recalled, a first in Arizona history. “People didn’t sign up for a challenge to the 14th Amendment,” reflects Mesa Mayor Scott Smith.

In June 2012, the Supreme Court announces its opinion in the case of The United States v. Arizona, ruling that immigration law largely belongs to the federal government, not the states. But it allows the “show me your papers” portion to stand, so long as it can be implemented without racial profiling or unduly long detention.

One thing is certain—SB1070 galvanized Latino voters across the country who turned out in record numbers to re-elect President Obama largely based on his campaign promise of immigration reform. Their show of strength changed the political landscape and pushed immigration reform to the forefront of the national agenda.

“The State of Arizona” on Independent Lens airs Monday, January 27th at 9:00 p.m. On HD3-1, it airs Monday, January 27th at 8:00 p.m. and Tuesday, January 28th at 7:00 a.m. and 1:00 p.m.

Alien Planets Revealed — NASA’s planet-hunting Kepler Telescope has discovered thousands of exotic new worlds far beyond our solar system. “Alien Planets Revealed” on Nova takes you on a mind-bending exploration of these strange worlds and the possible creatures we might one day encounter there.

“Alien Planets Revealed” on Nova airs Wednesday, January 8th at 8:00 p.m. and Saturday, January 11th at 10:00 p.m. On HD3-1, it airs Wednesday, January 8th at 8:00 p.m., Thursday, January 9th at 8:00 a.m. and 1:00 p.m., and Saturday, January 11th at midnight.

Zeppelin Terror Attack — In the early days of World War I, Germany, determined to bring its British enemies to their knees, launched a new kind of terror campaign: bombing civilians from the sky. The lethal payloads rained down from Zeppelins—enormous airships, some the length of two football fields.

“Zeppelin Terror Attack” on Nova explores the technological arms race that unfolded as Britain scrambled to develop defenses that could neutralize the threat, while Germany responded with ever bigger and more powerful Zeppelins.

“Zeppelin Terror Attack” on Nova airs Wednesday, January 15th at 8:00 p.m. and Saturday, January 18th at 10:00 p.m. On HD3-1, it airs Wednesday, January 15th at 8:00 p.m., Thursday, January 16th at 8:00 a.m. and 1:00 p.m., and Saturday, January 18th at midnight.

An engineer virtually ascends to 21,000 feet in a low-pressure chamber to experience for himself the debilitating conditions suffered by the Zeppelin pilots, in “Zeppelin Terror Attack” on NOVA.

NOVA

Monster Typhoon — On November 8th, 2013, Typhoon Haiyan slammed into the Philippines, sending a two-story-high storm surge flooding into homes, schools, and hospitals, leaving thousands dead and millions homeless.

In “Monster Typhoon” on Nova, meteorologists take viewers inside the anatomy of the typhoon, tracking its progress and revealing why the Pacific is such fertile ground for cyclones. Nova also reveals how conditions deteriorated in the storm’s aftermath, leaving food, water, and medicine to pile up at the airport.

Nova’s “Monster Typhoon” airs Wednesday, January 22nd at 8:00 p.m. and Saturday, January 25th at 10:00 p.m. On HD3-1, it airs Wednesday, January 22nd at 8:00 p.m., Thursday, January 23rd at 8:00 a.m. and 1:00 p.m., and Saturday, January 25th at midnight.

Ghosts of Murdered Kings — In Ireland, a laborer harvesting peat from a dried-up bog spots the remnants of a corpse—a headless torso almost perfectly preserved. Archaeologists recognize it as one of Europe’s rare bog bodies: prehistoric corpses flung into the marshes. The Bronze Age corpse is more than 4,000 years old.

“Ghosts of Murdered Kings” on Nova follows experts in their hunt for clues to the identity and the circumstances of this and other violent deaths of bog body victims. A new theory emerges that they are ritually murdered kings, slain to assure the fertility of land and people.

“Ghosts of Murdered Kings” on Nova airs Wednesday, January 29th at 8:00 p.m. and Saturday, February 1st at 10:00 p.m. On HD3-1, it airs Wednesday, January 29th at 8:00 p.m., and Thursday, January 30th at 8:00 a.m. and 1:00 p.m.
