Downton Abbey

Rejoin the Crawley family for a sixth and final season.

The top-rated PBS drama of all time approaches its climactic chapter as “Downton Abbey” enters its sixth and final season on Masterpiece, bringing exciting closure to a remarkable series. Where will fate, passion, ambition, and duty lead television’s most beloved characters? Millions of devoted viewers will soon find out on the final season of “Downton Abbey,” airing in nine enthralling episodes, with the series finale airing March 6th, 2016.

With 59 Emmy® nominations, more than any other non-US show in Emmy® history, “Downton Abbey” is one of the most honored series on television, having captured 12 Emmys®, three Golden Globes®, three Screen Actors Guild Awards, a Producers Guild Award, and three BAFTAs, plus a 2015 BAFTA Special Award in recognition of the series’ outstanding global success.

“Downton Abbey” opened Season 1 with a crisis sparked by the sinking of the Titanic in 1912. Having weathered the demise of a string of heirs, the horrors of World War I, the Spanish flu, false convictions, and romantic betrayals, not to mention the compromising death of a Turkish diplomat in the throes of passion, “Downton Abbey” is primed for new surprises in Season 6.

Season 6 opens in 1925 with a series of crises reflecting the momentous changes that are transforming society. Women’s rights have given Lady Mary and Lady Edith new positions of responsibility: Mary runs the estate, and Edith manages the magazine she inherited from Michael Gregson. Meanwhile, Tom Branson has left for Boston, and newlyweds Lady Rose and Atticus Aldridge are trying their luck in Jazz Age New York. Anna Bates faces a murder charge, though many still suspect her husband. And for the rest of the servants, big doubts hang over their jobs. Will great houses and the fortunes that support them soon be gone?

“Downton Abbey 6” on Masterpiece will be broadcast Sundays at 8:00 p.m. beginning the 3rd. It repeats Fridays at 10:00 p.m. beginning the 8th (10:30 p.m. on the 15th). On HD3-1, it airs Sundays at 7:00 p.m. and 12:00 midnight (6:30 p.m. on the 3rd) and Mondays at 6:00 a.m. and 1:00 p.m. on KENW-TV.

Mercy Street

New drama takes viewers beyond the battlefield in the early years of the Civil War.

Based on real events, the six-part series Mercy Street takes viewers beyond the battlefield and into the lives of a diverse cast of characters who intersect in the chaotic world of Union-occupied Alexandria, Virginia in the early years of the Civil War.

Mercy Street follows the lives of two volunteer nurses on opposite sides of the conflict: Mary Phinney (Mary Elizabeth Winstead), a staunch New England abolitionist, and Emma Green (Hannah James), a naive young Confederate belle. The two collide at Mansion House, the Green family’s luxury hotel that has been taken over and transformed into a Union Army Hospital in Alexandria, a border town between North and South and the longest-occupied Confederate city of the war.

Ruled under martial law, Alexandria is now the melting pot of the region, filled with civilians, female volunteers, doctors, soldiers including wounded soldiers from both sides, free blacks, enslaved and contraband (escaped slaves living behind Union lines) African Americans, prostitutes, speculators, and spies.

Mercy Street is not about battles and glory, it’s about the drama and unexpected humor of everyday life behind the frontlines. The intersection of North and South within the confines of a small occupied town creates a rich world that is chaotic, conflicted, corrupt, dynamic, and even hopeful—a cauldron within which the characters strive, fight, love, laugh, betray, sacrifice and, at times, act like scoundrels.

Mercy Street follows “Downton Abbey,” Sundays at 9:00 p.m. beginning the 17th and repeating Fridays at 11:00 p.m. On HD3-1, it airs Sundays at 10:00 p.m. beginning the 17th repeating Mondays at 7:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m.

Emma Green (Hannah James) and Jedediah Foster (Josh Radnor)

Bonnie & Clyde

Bonnie Parker and Clyde Barrow were the most famous criminal couple in US history. During the height of the Great Depression, their gang evolved from petty thieves to nationally-known bank robbers and murderers, joining the ranks of other Depression-era gangsters like John Dillinger, Pretty Boy Floyd, and Baby Face Nelson—so called “public enemies” who captured the imagination of Americans laid low by the Depression.

Newsreels in movie theaters across the country flashed images of a pixyish Bonnie, handgun on her hip, and handsome Clyde, with his custom suits and Browning automatic rifles, turning them into the underworld’s dark prince and princess of crime. In reality, as this film reveals, Bonnie and Clyde grew up in the slums of West Dallas and had little in common with their glamorous media images. Their two-year crime spree ended when the couple was betrayed by a friend and shot dead at a police roadblock in Louisiana on May 23, 1934.

“Bonnie & Clyde” on American Experience airs Tuesday, the 19th at 8:00 p.m. and Sunday, the 24th at 10:00 p.m. On HD3-1, it airs Tuesday, the 19th at 7:00 p.m. and Wednesday, the 18th at 7:00 a.m. and 1:00 p.m. on KENW-TV.

The Mine Wars

At the beginning of the 20th century, coal was the engine of American industrial progress. It ran locomotives, factories, steam ships, electric power plants, and home furnaces, and it helped to purify the steel that made possible the rising skyscrapers. Nearly three quarters of a million men across the country spent 10 or 12 hours a day underground in coal mines: blasting, shoveling, and loading this indispensable mineral onto rail cars bound for destinations across the country.

In West Virginia, miners and their families were forced to live in company-owned towns policed by hired private guards armed with rifles and machine guns; coal operators exerted near-total control over their lives. In the spring of 1901, when miners in West Virginia began organizing to join a union, their efforts sparked a fight that would escalate from an unremarkable skirmish between capital and labor to the largest armed insurrection since the Civil War.

“The Mine Wars” on American Experience brings to life the decades-long struggle that turned the coalfields of southern West Virginia into a blood-soaked war zone. It is the story of miners who took up arms to claim the freedom they believed they were entitled to as American citizens, but had been denied by their employers. It was not until 1933 that the federal passage of pro-union New Deal legislation finally recognized the rights of miners to form the union for which they had fought and died during the mine wars.

“The Mine Wars” on American Experience will be broadcast Tuesday, the 26th at 8:00 p.m. and Sunday, the 31st at 10:00 p.m. On HD3-1, it can be seen Tuesday, the 26th at 7:00 p.m. and Wednesday, the 27th at 7:00 a.m. and 1:00 p.m.

MASTERPIECE MYSTERY!

Benedict Cumberbatch stars as Sherlock Holmes and Martin Freeman as John Watson.

Sherlock: The Abominable Bride New 90-minute Special

We’ve been here before, but what if this wasn’t the modern day but the late Victorian period? What if the world’s most famous consulting detective and his best friend lived in a Baker Street of steam trains, hansom cabs, top hats, and frock-coats?

Welcome to “Sherlock” in 1895!

Some things, though, remain reassuringly the same. Friendship, adventure, and especially, MURDER.

Why is Thomas Ricoletti a little surprised to see his wife dressed in her old wedding gown? Because, just a few hours before, she took her own life, but now Mrs Ricoletti’s ghost appears to be prowling the streets with an unquenchable thirst for revenge.

From fog-shrouded Limehouse to the bowels of a ruined church, Holmes, Watson, and their friends must use all their cunning to combat an enemy seemingly from beyond the grave and the final, shocking truth about the abominable bride!

“Sherlock: The Abominable Bride” on Masterpiece Mystery! airs Friday, the 1st at 9:00 p.m. and Sunday, the 10th at 10:00 p.m.

Willie Nelson:

Library of Congress Gershwin Prize for Popular Song

Star-studded performances from Rosanne Cash, Edie Brickell, Paul Simon, Alison Krauss, Raul Malo, Neil Young, Buckwheat Zydeco, and more pay tribute to singer and songwriter Willie Nelson, the 2015 recipient of the Library of Congress Gershwin Prize for Popular Song.

With a career that spans six decades, Nelson’s music pushes genre boundaries and his lyrics give voice to America’s heartland. He put his imprint forever on country music and introduced it to new audiences by expanding music’s avenues in the 1970s to create “outlaw country.” He has continually broadened his musical language, crossing into jazz, blues, folk, rock, and Latin styles. A guitar virtuoso with a unique voice, Nelson is an artist whose work continues to inspire new musicians of diverse genres.

Willie Nelson: Library of Congress Gershwin Prize for Popular Song can be seen Friday, the 15th at 9:00 p.m. and Monday, the 18th at 9:00 p.m. On HD3-1, it airs Saturday, the 16th at 7:00 p.m.

Mike Nichols

Winner of an Oscar, a Grammy, four Emmys, nine Tonys, and many other awards, director, actor, writer, producer, and comedian Mike Nichols (11/6/31–11/19/14) was an artistic trailblazer. As the legendary comedy duo Nichols and May,

Nichols and his partner Elaine May revolutionized comedy in the late 1950s and early 1960s. Now, May has directed “Mike Nichols” on American Masters, the first documentary about her former partner, which is also set to launch the 30th anniversary season of the PBS series.

With charm and wit, Nichols discusses his life and 50-year career as a performer and director. The program features interviews with his friends and colleagues, including Meryl Streep, Steven Spielberg, Tom Hanks, Dustin Hoffman, Alec Baldwin, Paul Simon, Matthew Broderick, Nathan Lane, Neil Simon, Frank Langella, James L. Brooks, and many others.

“Mike Nichols” on American Masters airs Friday, the 29th at 9:00 p.m. and Sunday, the 31st at 7:00 p.m. On HD3-1, it airs Saturday, the 30th at 7:00 p.m.

SPLIT ESTATE

Imagine discovering that you don’t own the mineral rights under your land, and that an energy company plans to drill for natural gas two hundred feet from your front door.

In Garfield County, Colorado, and the San Juan Basin, Split Estate maps a tragedy in the making, as citizens in the path of a new drilling boom in the Rocky Mountain West struggle against the erosion of their civil liberties, their communities, and their health.

Exempt from federal protections like the Clean Water Act, the unregulated oil and gas industry has left this idyllic landscape pockmarked with abandoned homes and polluted waters. One resident demonstrates the degree of benzene contamination in a mountain stream by setting it alight with a match. Many others, gravely ill, fight for their health and for the health of their children while the industry offers assurances that it is a “good neighbor.”

The industry aggressively seeks new leases in as many as 32 states, including a bid to drill in the New York City watershed, which provides drinking water to millions.

Split Estate can be seen Tuesday, the 26th at 10:00 p.m. and Thursday, the 28th at 7:00 p.m. On HD3-1, it airs Wednesday, the 13th at 8:00 p.m. and Thursday, the 14th at 8:00 a.m. and 3:00 p.m.

PARTICLE FEVER

For the first time, a film gives audiences a front row seat to a significant and inspiring scientific breakthrough as it happens. Particle Fever follows six brilliant scientists during the launch of the Large Hadron Collider in Geneva, Switzerland, marking the start-up of the biggest and most expensive experiment in the history of the planet, pushing the edge of human innovation.

As they seek to unravel the mysteries of the universe, these scientists join more than 10,000 scientists from over 100 countries in pursuit of a single goal: to recreate conditions that existed just moments after the Big Bang and find the Higgs boson, potentially explaining the origin of all matter.

The Higgs boson or “God particle” is a never-before-seen subatomic particle long thought to be a fundamental building block of the universe, giving all matter its mass. It is considered to be the last missing piece in our current understanding of the most fundamental nature of the universe.

But there is an even bigger mystery to confront: do the clues to the origins of the universe even exist?

Particle Fever can be seen Wednesday, the 6th at 9:00 p.m. On HD3-1, it airs Wednesday, the 6th at 7:00 p.m. and Thursday, the 7th at 7:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m.

INDEPENDENT LENS

Chuck Norris vs. Communism

In 1980s Romania, thousands of Western films—mostly Hollywood action movies—smashed through the Iron Curtain, opening a window into the free world and fueling a revolution. “Chuck Norris vs. Communism” on Independent Lens tells this amazing story.

1980s Romania was culturally isolated and ideologically censored; all images of life outside the Iron Curtain were cut off and TV was reduced to a couple of hours of propaganda bulletins each day.

In the mid-1980s, under the noses of Nicolae Ceausescu’s secret police, thousands of Hollywood films were smuggled into the country. A network of underground screening rooms sprung up across the country. While the fearless stories of action heroes like Chuck Norris and Sylvester Stallone captured the imagination, it was the lavish settings and backdrops that mesmerized the audience. For the first time, Romanians saw what they had been denied: supermarkets full of food, the latest fashions, fast cars, and most of all, freedom. This new insight, drawn from American action movies, helped to spark a revolution in their country.

“Chuck Norris vs. Communism” on Independent Lens can be seen Monday, the 4th at 9:00 p.m. On HD3-1, it airs Monday, the 4th at 7:00 p.m. and Tuesday, the 5th at 7:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m.

No Más Bebés (No More Babies)

“No Más Bebés (No More Babies)” on Independent Lens tells the story of a little-known, but landmark event of women’s history and reproductive rights, a struggle that unfolded four decades ago in Los Angeles. The film recounts how a small group of Mexican immigrant mothers and activists sued county doctors, the state, and the US government after they were sterilized while giving birth at Los Angeles County-USC Medical Center during the late 1960s and 1970s.

Many of the mothers spoke no English, and charged that they had been forced to consent to having their fallopian tubes tied by doctors and nurses during the late stages of labor—often based on little more than the question “More babies?”

Aided by an intrepid, 26-year-old Chicana lawyer and armed with hospital records secretly gathered by a whistle-blowing young doctor, the mothers stood up to powerful institutions in the name of justice. In their landmark 1975 civil rights lawsuit, Madrigal v. Quilligan, they argued that a woman’s right to bear a child is guaranteed under the Supreme Court decision Roe v. Wade.

“No Más Bebés” on Independent Lens will be broadcast Monday, the 25th at 9:00 p.m. On HD3-1, it airs Monday, the 25th at 7:00 p.m. and Tuesday, the 26th at 7:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m.

Netanyahu at War

Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu is one of the most polarizing political leaders on the world stage. His hardline politics on Iran and Israeli-Palestinian affairs have won him both intense support and bitter criticism at home and abroad—all the more so after his dramatic attempt in March to derail President Barack Obama's nuclear deal with Iran in front of the US Congress.

Israeli Prime Minister Netanyahu

Now, with new waves of violence between Israelis and Palestinians unfolding and Israel-US relations already emerging as a 2016 campaign issue, Frontline presents "Netanyahu at War," an epic documentary tracing Netanyahu's path to power, his combative relationships with multiple US presidents, and the implications in America and the Middle East.

The two-hour program goes inside the events that have defined one of Israel's longest serving prime ministers, drawing on more than 30 remarkably candid interviews with his current and former advisors; top Israeli, American, and Palestinian officials; foreign policy analysts; authors and journalists.

In particular, the documentary sheds new light on key moments of tension in Netanyahu's political career, from allegations that his rhetoric fueled right-wing anger that led to the assassination of Israeli Prime Minister Yitzhak Rabin, to the development of his fraught relationship with Obama—a relationship that, the film reveals, got off on the wrong foot from the very beginning. In "Netanyahu at War," the story of Netanyahu's relationship with America is told in detail by many of the people who witnessed pivotal moments in his political career firsthand. The end result is an unprecedented, must-watch look inside the relationship between the US and Israel during the Netanyahu years.

"This is an unbelievably important relationship, at a critical time, in a volatile environment that has been made even more so by the rise of ISIS," says Michael Kirk, veteran Frontline filmmaker. "Our film tells the essential political history of how America and Israel reached this point, and what it means for the region and the world."

"Netanyahu at War" on Frontline can be seen Tuesday, the 5th at 8:00 p.m. and Thursday, the 7th at 7:00 p.m. On HD3-1, it airs Wednesday, the 6th at 12:00 noon and Friday, the 8th at 8:00 p.m.

IN PERFORMANCE
AT THE WHITE HOUSEA Celebration of American Creativity

President and Mrs. Obama host an all-star music tribute from the East Room, celebrating the cultural resonance of art and literature in unique American musical forms.

In Performance at the White House "A Celebration of American Creativity" features performances by Buddy Guy, Queen Latifah, MC Lyte, Audra McDonald, Keb' Mo', Smokey Robinson, Trombone Shorty, Esperanza Spalding, Brian Stokes Mitchell, James Taylor, and Usher, with special readings and remarks from Carol Burnett.

The event commemorates the 50th anniversary of the National Foundation on the Arts and the Humanities Act, signed into law by President Lyndon Johnson in 1965. The act called for the creation of the National Endowment for the Humanities and the National Endowment for the Arts as separate, independent agencies, the culmination of a movement calling for the federal government to invest in culture.

In Performance at the White House "A Celebration of American Creativity" airs Friday, the 8th at 9:00 p.m. and Sunday, the 10th at 10:00 a.m. and 9:00 p.m. On HD3-1, it airs Saturday, the 9th at 7:00 p.m.

Secret Tunnel Warfare

During World War I, the Allies and Germans repeatedly struggled to break the hideous stalemate of trench warfare. In the winter of 1916, Allied engineers devised a massive surprise attack on the German army. Their weapon of choice: 600 tons of explosives, hidden in secret tunnels driven under German lines.

At 3:10 a.m. on June 7th, 25 mines at Messines were simultaneously triggered in what was probably the single biggest non-nuclear explosion of all time, heard clearly in London 150 miles away. 10,000 German troops were killed instantly—but the stunning success was just the beginning of another wartime nightmare.

"Secret Tunnel Warfare" on Nova follows bomb disposal experts who probe one tunnel system connected to what is probably the world's largest unexploded bomb—a mine consisting of 22 tons of explosives.

"Secret Tunnel Warfare" on Nova airs Wednesday, the 6th at 8:00 p.m. and Saturday, the 9th at 10:00 p.m. On HD3-1, it airs Thursday, the 7th at 12:00 noon, Saturday, the 9th at 11:00 p.m., and Sunday, the 10th at 4:00 p.m.

Life's Rocky Start

Four and a half billion years ago, the young Earth was a hellish place—a seething chaos of meteorite impacts, volcanoes belching noxious gases, and lightning flashes. Then, in a process that has puzzled scientists for decades, life emerged. How did it happen?

"Life's Rocky Start" on Nova joins mineralogist Robert Hazen on the rocky trail to resolve this enduring mystery. As Hazen journeys around the globe, he advances a startling and counterintuitive idea—that the rocks beneath our feet were not only essential to jump-starting life, but then, as microbes flourished and took over the biosphere, life helped give birth to hundreds of minerals we know and depend on today.

This intriguing perspective of the co-evolution of Earth and life is reshaping the grand-narrative of our planet's story.

"Life's Rocky Start" on Nova airs Wednesday, the 13th at 8:00 p.m. and Saturday, the 16th at 10:00 p.m. On HD3-1, it airs Thursday, the 14th at 12:00 noon, Friday, the 15th at 8:00 p.m., Saturday, the 16th at 11:00 p.m., and Sunday, the 17th at 4:00 p.m.

Great Performances

From Vienna: The New Year's Celebration 2016

Stage and screen legend Julie Andrews returns for the seventh time to host the festive annual New Year's celebration with the Vienna Philharmonic, under the direction of Mariss Jansons, from Vienna's Musikverein.

From Vienna features the infectious melodies of the Strauss Family and their contemporaries. The Vienna Boy's Choir and soloists of the Vienna State Ballet return for the gala evening.

Friday, January 1st, at 7:30 p.m. and 10:30 p.m.

Saturday, January 2nd, at 7:00 p.m. (HD3-1)
