Court of Private Land Claims (Courtesy of the Palace of the Governors Archives/Robert McCubbin)

Peering through the lens of the federal court system, its judges and institutions, Taming New Mexico canvasses over 300 years of law in New Mexico history, documenting how New Mexico transitioned from the Spanish-Mexican rule of law to today's American legal system. The film chronicles the pivotal cases, significant issues, and powerful personalities that shaped and transformed New Mexico's legal and cultural landscape.

Taming New Mexico goes as far back as the amazing story of Doña Teresa de Aguilera y Roche—the privileged and educated wife of Bernardo López de Mendizábal, governor in Santa Fe from 1659 to 1661—as she confronts the Spanish Inquisition in the 17th century.

Narrated by veteran reporter Sam Donaldson—and featuring respected judicial luminaries such as former Chief Judge Bruce D. Black and ENMU alumnus the Hon. Robert C. Brack—Taming New Mexico ushers viewers through historical photographs, paintings, and videos that make New Mexico history spring to life. The film interviews numerous historians who chronicle and weave together key historical events. Federal judges lend additional gravitas by revealing the hardest, most important, and most rewarding parts of their work, all against the striking backdrop of federal courthouses across the state.

Taming New Mexico will be broadcast on 3-2 Thursday, the 6th at 7:00 p.m., Sunday, the 9th at 10:00 a.m., and Monday, the 17th at 9:00 p.m. On 3-1, it airs Tuesday, the 11th at 7:00 p.m. and Wednesday, the 12th at 6:00 a.m. and 1:00 p.m.

Questioning The Constitution

For more than 200 years, the United States Constitution—a document dictating a representative government by the people and for the people—has served as the foundation for the country and its citizens. Questioning The Constitution reveals the development and structure of the Constitution, its various interpretations, and the debate surrounding its possible reformation.

The documentary explores the Electoral College, the lack of a “no-confidence” clause, the “tyranny” of the minority states in the Senate, the difficulty in amending the Constitution, post-9/11 legislation, and the expansion and potential misuse of Executive power. The film also addresses some of the compromises and problematic aspects of the Constitution, including its stance on equal opportunity for women and civil rights for racial and ethnic minorities.

Interviews with prominent politicians, constitutional scholars, and leaders from the NAACP and ACLU combine with archival materials to create an understanding of the Constitution's past, present, and future.

Questioning The Constitution will be broadcast on 3-2 Sunday, the 2nd at 10:00 a.m./6:00 p.m. and Tuesday, the 4th at 10:00 p.m. On 3-1, it will be broadcast Friday, the 7th at 9:00 p.m.

RARE — Creatures of the Photo Ark

In RARE—Creatures of the Photo Ark, renowned photographer Joel Sartore travels the globe to document every species at risk of extinction. This captivating new three-part series follows Sartore as he documents threatened species at zoos, in nature preserves, and in the wild. Throughout RARE, scientists and naturalists reveal surprising information about why ensuring the future of these animals is so critical.

This critically endangered Diademed sifaka takes refuge at Lemuria Land in Madagascar.

Sartore has traveled to nearly 40 countries to photograph 6,395 species to date, including 576 amphibians, 1,839 birds, 716 fish, 1,123 invertebrates, 896 mammals, and 1,245 reptiles in captivity. When complete, the Photo Ark will be one of the most comprehensive records of the world's biodiversity. Sometimes Sartore is able to photograph 30 to 40 species in a few days. Others are disappearing before he can get to them.

RARE—Creatures of the Photo Ark airs on 3-2 Tuesdays at 8:00 p.m. beginning the 18th and Sundays at 11:00 p.m. beginning the 23rd. On 3-1, it airs Tuesday at 9:00 p.m. beginning the 18th and Wednesdays at 8:00 a.m./3:00 p.m. beginning the 19th

Remember Me

Michael Palin portrays Tom Parfitt and Jodie Corner stars as Hannah Ward in REMEMBER ME.

The chilling three-part drama Remember Me stars Michael Palin (“Monty Python and the Holy Grail,” “Life of Brian”) as Tom Parfitt, a frail and elderly Yorkshire man seemingly alone in the world whose admittance to a nursing home triggers a series of inexplicable events. On the day Tom leaves his home to move into residential care, he becomes the sole witness to a violent death.

Teenage care assistant Hannah Ward and investigating police detective Rob Fairholme try to unravel the riddle of Parfitt’s mysterious past as they are drawn into an eerie and dangerous world of lost love and betrayal.

The mystery series attracted more than five million viewers on the BBC with its nail-biting storyline and powerhouse cast.

Remember Me can be seen on 3-2 Sundays at 9:00 p.m. beginning the 16th. On 3-1, it can be seen Sundays, 8:00 p.m. beginning the 16th and Mondays at 8:00 a.m. and 3:00 p.m. beginning the 17th.

The Tunnel II: Sabotage

In The Tunnel II: Sabotage, an eight-part series, our investigative duo—pragmatic and meticulous Commander Elise Wasserman and laconic but brilliant DCI Karl Roebuck—reunite to investigate the case of a French couple abducted from the Eurotunnel, leaving behind their traumatized daughter, Chloe Fournier. But the case is complicated when a plane carrying British and French passengers crashes into the Channel killing everyone on board. The plane’s black box suggests a terrifying possibility, while a surprising chain of events bring Karl and Elise ever closer to the Fournier abductors.

As they pick their way through the clues thrown up by a vast field of debris, they are confronted with sinister and complicated forces at play. In a terrifying game of brinksmanship, Karl and Elise risk everything in the pursuit of true justice.

Tunnel II: Sabotage will be broadcast on 3-2 Sundays at 10:00 p.m. beginning the 16th.

Dick Cavett’s

Watergate

It was a slow-moving devastating crisis that changed America forever. More than forty years ago—as a result of the complicated tale of a criminal conspiracy to cover up misdeeds by President Nixon and his top advisers—there was a sense that the government was in danger of collapsing under the weight of the scandal.

From 1972 to 1974 the Watergate scandal was frequently a part of The Dick Cavett Show. In fact, Cavett was at the forefront of national TV coverage, interviewing nearly every major Watergate figure as the crisis unfolded. Even non-political guests expressed their opinions about Watergate on the show.

Dick Cavett’s Watergate documents the scandal in the words of the people who lived it: from the botched burglary at the Democratic National Headquarters; to the must-see TV of the daily Congressional Watergate hearings; to the on-going behind-the-scenes battle between the White House and The Dick Cavett Show; culminating with the resignation of the President of the United States on August 9th, 1974.

Dick Cavett’s Watergate can be seen on 3-2 Sunday, the 9th at 6:00 p.m., Sunday, the 16th at 10:00 a.m. and 11:00 p.m., and Monday, the 31st at 9:00 p.m. On 3-1, it airs Tuesday, the 25th at 8:00 p.m. and Wednesday, the 26th at 7:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m.

Anne Morrow Lindbergh:

You’ll Have the Sky

Anne Morrow married Charles Lindbergh in 1929. She was 23, and a recent college graduate; he was 27, and the most famous man in the world. Charles had won the race to fly nonstop from New York to Paris, and he did it solo. But the woman Charles married had talents of her own.

Anne Morrow Lindbergh was a writer, an aviator, a mother, and the wife of the brilliant yet controversial Lindbergh. The author of one of the most loved books of the 20th century, Gift from the Sea, Anne led an extraordinary life.

She and Charles were a flying team, breaking records for speed, and charting the first navigation routes through parts of Asia, Africa, and South America. They were the celebrity couple of their age, but the public’s obsession with their personal lives led to the tragic kidnapping and murder of their first child. Throughout it all, Anne wrote.

Anne Morrow Lindbergh: You’ll Have the Sky explores key moments in Anne’s life and work. Location footage was shot in North Haven in Maine, Captiva in Florida, and Long Barn in Kent, England, all representing crucial moments in Anne’s life.

Actress Judith Light narrates the documentary and actress Lily Rabe brings voice to Anne’s most personal writing, including excerpts from her letters and diaries. Anne Morrow Lindbergh herself makes an appearance in rare interviews with Eric Sevareid and David McCullough.

Anne Morrow Lindbergh: You’ll Have the Sky can be seen on 3-2 Friday, the 7th at 11:30 p.m., Sunday, the 9th at 10:30 p.m., and Sunday, the 16th at 6:30 p.m. On 3-1, it will be broadcast Tuesday, the 4th at 9:30 p.m. and Wednesday, the 5th at 8:30 a.m. and 3:30 p.m.

The War Show

Syria's Arab Spring, like other similar movements in the region, began with hope. In early 2011, autocratic governments throughout the Middle East and North Africa seemed to be on the verge of receding peacefully, and Syrian protesters massed to demonstrate against the regime of President Bashar Al-Assad. The uprising quickly gave way to conflict, however, and by 2016 the Syrian civil war had claimed 470,000 lives and displaced 11 million people.

The new documentary "The War Show" on P.O.V. focuses on some of the idealists who joined the early Syrian resistance—a close-knit group of millennials who like listening to classic rock, hanging out on the beach, and organizing anti-Assad protests.

"The War Show" begins in 2011. Civil war has not yet engulfed Syria, and activists demonstrate peacefully. In one early scene, a boisterous group of protesters sing and chant anti-Assad slogans. "Muslims and Christians, freedom for all!" they cry.

A shattering portrait of a country engulfed in tragedy, the film depicts the ongoing toll the conflict has taken on Syria. It does not dwell on graphic images of blood and death, but instead aims to give a voice to a small group of nonviolent young men and women and their dreams of freedom.

"The War Show" on P.O.V. airs on 3-2 Monday, the 3rd at 9:00 p.m. On 3-1, it can be seen Sunday, the 9th at 9:30 p.m.

Last Men in Aleppo

Nowhere is the human toll of Syria's ongoing civil war more brutally manifest than in the lives of Aleppo's "White Helmets"—first responders to the devastating bombing and terrorist attacks that have pushed this city to the brink of collapse. Volunteers Khaled, Mahmoud, and Subhi rush toward bomb sites while others run away. They search through collapsed buildings for the living and dead. Contending with fatigue, dwindling ranks, and concerns for their families' safety, they must decide whether to stay or to flee a city in ruins.

Winner of the Grand Jury Documentary prize at the Sundance Film Festival, "Last Men in Aleppo" on P.O.V. is a breathtaking work—a searing example of boots-on-the-ground reporting and an unforgettable portrait of reluctant heroes. It's a patchwork of resonant moments—some horrifying (pulling lifeless infants from the rubble), others improbably hopeful (playing a makeshift soccer game, building a fishpond, driving kids to a playground during a ceasefire). Together they are a testament to mankind's capacity for unspeakable atrocity and an ode to courage and compassion.

"Last Men in Aleppo" on P.O.V. will be broadcast Monday, the 10th at 9:00 p.m. On 3-1, it can be seen Sunday, the 16th at 9:00 p.m.

Paving the Way:

The National Park-to-Park Highway

At a time when train travel to the National Parks was only for the wealthy, Paving the Way: The National Park-to-Park Highway, a two-part historical documentary, follows the convergence of U.S. Land being set aside for all people, the development of the "autos for the everyman," and the need to escape the drone of WWI and the 1918 flu pandemic. It was at this time, when the roads were barely paved, that 12 intrepid motorists embarked upon the 1920 inaugural tour of the National Park-to-Park Highway.

Traveling 5,000 miles over 76 days, these individuals explore the idea of what it means to 'See America First' while touring in the western United States, instead of visiting their ancestry in war torn Europe. In Paving the Way, part two, tour members are faced with the decision to turn back or journey on. With some of the most magnificent vistas still ahead, they learn what it really means to be road weary, but at the same time find the pure joy of a true American experience—The Road Trip.

The National Park-to-Park Highway consisted of a five thousand mile loop, from Denver to Rocky Mountain, Yellowstone, Glacier, Mt. Rainier, Crater Lake, Lassen Volcanic, Yosemite, General Grant (now King's Canyon), Sequoia, Zion, Grand Canyon, Mesa Verde, and back to Denver.

The film includes breathtaking cinematography from the American West—giant forests, sweeping plains, towering mountains, and shimmering deserts, echoed in the archival photographs of the 1920 tour.

Paving the Way: The National Park-to-Park Highway airs on 3-2 Sundays at 11:00 p.m. beginning the 2nd and Sundays at 10:00 a.m. beginning the 23rd. On 3-1, it will be broadcast Mondays at 7:00 p.m. beginning the 3rd and Tuesdays at 8:00 a.m. and 3:00 p.m. beginning the 4th.

The Gettysburg Story

Over three days in 1863, war-weary Union and Confederate soldiers met at a backwater Pennsylvania crossroads to decide the fate of the nation. George Meade's Union army defeated Robert E. Lee's Confederate army. The Gettysburg Story tells the epic tale of the bloodiest battle ever fought on American soil and the greatest man-made disaster in American history. The stories of characters who experience the battle come alive through dynamic, innovative imagery that captures the historic battleground as you have never seen it before.

The documentary recounts the pivotal events and intimate stories from the iconic Civil War battle immortalized in Lincoln's "Gettysburg Address." Cutting-edge cinematography techniques reveal the grand scale of the 6,000-acre battlefield, including the legendary sites of Little Round Top, Devils Den, The Railroad Cut, Cemetery Ridge, and the fields of Pickett's Charge.

The Gettysburg Story airs on 3-2 Tuesday, the 25th at 7:00 p.m. and Sunday, the 30th at 6:00 p.m. On 3-1, it airs Monday, the 24th at 7:00 p.m. and Tuesday, the 25th at 8:00 a.m. and 3:00 p.m.

Wild Alaska Live

Nature lovers, adventurers, families. Over three nights, PBS turns its cameras on a not-to-be-missed natural spectacle that plays out across the vast Alaskan wilderness, where some of the world's most remarkable animals—bears, wolves, moose, orcas, and eagles—gather by the thousands to take part in the salmon spawn, Alaska's summer feast never before captured live on television.

What happens in the Alaskan wilderness in late July affects the animals' survival and well-being for the remainder of the year. With some of the largest areas of wilderness left on Earth, Alaska is the best place in the world to see the huge animals and top predators in all their glory. The three-night live presentation also explores the challenges of preserving America's last frontier.

Wild Alaska Live visits several locations, including points near Juneau and the

Brown bear catching salmon in Brooks Falls Katmai National Park and Preserve, Alaska

Tongass National Forest, where the team looks for black bears and bald eagles; the vast Kenai Fjords National Park, in search of orcas and humpback whales; and the wilderness of Katmai National Park, where brown bears and elusive wolves live and hunt.

Hosted by zoologists, adventurers, and brothers Chris Kratt and Martin Kratt, the stars of the hit PBS KIDS series Wild Kratts, Wild Alaska Alive will use state-of-the-art filming technologies and live reports from the air, by boat, and on the rugged Alaskan terrain.

Wild Alaska Live can be seen on 3-2 Sunday, the 23rd at 7:00 p.m. (Pt. 1), Wednesday, the 26th at 7:00 p.m. (Pt. 2), and Sunday, the 30th at 7:00 p.m. (Pt. 3). On 3-1, it will be broadcast Sunday, the 23rd at 6:00 p.m. (Pt. 1), Wednesday, the 26th at 8:00 p.m. and Thursday, the 27th at 7:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m. (Pt. 2), and Sunday, the 30th at 6:00 p.m. (Pt. 3).

GREAT PERFORMANCES @ The Met

Idomeneo

Music Director Emeritus James Levine conducts an extraordinary ensemble in Mozart's "Idomeneo"—a story of love and vengeance following the Trojan War—on Great Performances at the Met. Long neglected along with other works of its era, "Idomeneo" now holds a firm place in the repertoire as the first of Mozart's operatic masterpieces. The New York Times proclaimed the production as "The Met Opera at its best."

The opera, set on the island of Crete, premiered at the Court Theater (now the Cuvilliés Theater) in Munich in 1781. Like many stories from Greek myth, "Idomeneo" explores the motivations and emotions of humans whose fates seem beyond their own control. The opera casts these issues within the framework of the opera seria genre, a stylized format popular in the 18th century that is characterized by a succession of arias and recitatives and a cast of noble characters.

Tenor Matthew Polenzani sings the title role of the King of Crete, with mezzo-soprano Alice Coote in the trouser role of his noble son Idamante, soprano Elza van den Heever as Elettra, and soprano Nadine Sierra as Ilia.

"Idomeneo" on Great Performances at the Met will be broadcast on 3-2 Sunday, 30th at 12:30 p.m. On 3-1, it can be seen Sunday, the 16th at 2:00 p.m.

Soprano Nadine Sierra stars as Ilia in Mozart's "Idomeneo" on GREAT PERFORMANCES AT THE MET.

Balancing the Scales

Balancing the Scales provides an insightful look at the story of female lawyers in America. The film chronicles pioneering attorneys, including twins Ruby and Ruth Crawford (who first began practicing law in the 1940s), as well as contemporary stories detailing the challenges that women in the legal profession still face today.

Through interviews conducted over the past 20 years with Supreme Court Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg and her daughter, Columbia law professor Jane Ginsburg; civil rights attorney Gloria Allred and her daughter, attorney and media figure Lisa Bloom; State Supreme Court and Appellate Court Justices; as well as female equity partners, women of color, young associates, and law-school students, the documentary examines a range of topics from discrimination and work/life balance to what it takes to become a partner in today's law firms.

Balancing the Scales also explores the persistent cultural bias that childcare is primarily a woman's role, and societal views about the value of care-giving vs. the value of professional careers.

Balancing the Scales airs on 3-2 Monday, the 24th at 9:00 p.m. On 3-1, it airs Tuesday, the 25th at 7:00 p.m. and Wednesday, the 26th at 6:00 a.m. and 1:00 p.m.

Supreme Court Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg

Hooked Rx: From Prescription to Addiction

Hooked Rx: From Prescription to Addiction is a special investigative report on the alarming rise of prescription opioid abuse in Arizona—and the country—produced by advanced journalism students at the Walter Cronkite School of Journalism and Mass Communication at Arizona State University. The half-hour program examines our dependence on prescription pain medication and the toll addiction takes on families and patients.

Hooked RX: From Prescription to Addiction can be seen on 3-2 Sunday, the 2nd at 10:30 p.m. and Sunday, the 23rd at 6:30 p.m.
