A Summer of Mystery on PBS

Lto R: Roger Allam as DI Thursday and Shaun Evans as DC Morse

Endeavor 3

Shaun Evans returns with his portrayal of Detective Constable Morse in four new episodes of “Endeavour 3” on Masterpiece Mystery!

Last we all saw, Endeavour Morse was in prison, framed for the murder of Chief Constable Rupert Standish, and his partner, DI Fred Thursday, had been shot.

It’s now March 1967 and Morse is brooding over his suspension from duty, pending an inquiry, when a country fair turns sinister and a young bus conductress is found brutally murdered.

Although DC Endeavour Morse isn’t part of the team called in to investigate the murder, a startling development in the case draws him in. Morse begins his own covert investigation, uncovering a disturbing secret that is hidden in plain sight.

“Endeavor 3” on Masterpiece Mystery! airs on 3-2 Sundays at 8:00 p.m. beginning the 19th and Fridays at 10:00 p.m. beginning the 24th. On HD3-1, it airs Mondays at 6:00 a.m. and 1:00 p.m. beginning the 20th.

Clémence Poésy as Elise and Stephen Dillane as Karl

The Tunnel

Airing as part of the PBS summer mystery line-up, The Tunnel is a critically acclaimed 10-part British crime drama set against the backdrop of Europe in crisis.

When a prominent French politician is found dead in the middle of the Channel Tunnel, straddling the border between the UK and France, detectives Karl Roebuck, played by Stephen Dillane (“Game of Thrones”) and Elise Wassermann, played by Clémence Poésy (Harry Potter and the Deathly Hallows: Parts I and II) are sent to investigate on behalf of their respective countries.

The case takes a surreal turn when a shocking discovery is made at the crime scene, forcing the French and British police into an uneasy partnership.

The Tunnel will be broadcast on 3-2 Sundays at 9:30 p.m. beginning the 19th and Fridays at 11:30 p.m. beginning the 24th. On HD3-1, it airs Sundays at 7:00 p.m. beginning the 19th and Mondays at 7:30 a.m. and 2:30 p.m. beginning the 20th.

Chiwetel Ejiofor as Louie

Dancing on the Edge

From acclaimed writer Stephen Poliakoff (The Lost Prince), Dancing on the Edge has many of the elements of an Agatha Christie novel—wealth! garden parties! intrigue! murder!—but also incorporates the very American element of jazz. The six-part mystery features sumptuous sets and costuming and an all-star cast, including Chiwetel Ejiofor, Matthew Goode, Jacqueline Bisset, and John Goodman.

The miniseries covers the rise and quick unravelling of the fictional Louis Lester Band from 1932 to 1933, led by their highly educated band leader Louie (Ejiofor) and a pair of alluring chanteuses, Jessie (Angel Coulby) and Clara (Wunmi Musaku).

Countless aristocrats—including the royal family—ask the band to play at parties. But just as the band’s success balloons, tragedy strikes.

Dancing on the Edge airs on 3-2 Sundays at 7:00 p.m. beginning the 26th. On HD3-1, it airs Sundays at 10:00 p.m. beginning the 26th.

Portrait of Wally — The Face that Launched a Thousand Lawsuits

Portrait of Wally tells the story of the 1912 oil painting by Austrian painter Egon Schiele of Valerie “Wally” Neuzil, his favorite model and true love until the time of his marriage to another woman in 1915.

The documentary traces the history of this iconic image—from the theft of the painting from Lea Bondi, a Jewish art dealer fleeing Vienna for her life, to post-war confusion and subterfuge, to the surprise resurfacing of “Wally” on loan to the Museum of Modern Art in Manhattan (MOMA) in 1997 that triggered a historic court case.

For 13 years the painting was locked up in New York, caught in a legal battle between the Leopold Museum in Vienna that had loaned the painting to MOMA and the Jewish family from whom the Nazis seized the painting in 1939. MOMA, along with all the museums in New York—even the Jewish Museum—sided with the Leopold Museum and against the Jewish family. But this was more than a dispute over property stolen from Jews during the Holocaust. It was a battle over history and memory. This time, the truth won.

The lengthy “Wally” case was resolved in dramatic fashion in 2010, having brought the story of Nazi art loot into the open. Eventually, museums around the world were forced to search their own collections for suspect objects. Many museums ended up returning art to Jewish families who had abandoned hope until “Wally” showed that institutions could be held accountable for holding property stolen during the Holocaust.

Portrait of Wally contains paintings of naked women and men by Schiele, a major figurative painter of the early 20th century.

Portrait of Wally airs on 3-2 Monday, the 27th at 9:00 p.m.

Path to Healing: Genomics and Disease Prevention

Path to Healing: Genomics and Disease Prevention examines the impact of precision medicine—also known as personalized medicine or targeted treatment—by using knowledge gained from the Human Genome Project, completed in 2003 after more than a decade of effort to map a genetic blueprint for a human being. Precision medical therapies have had remarkable results in the treatment of cancer, muscular dystrophy, and other diseases.

Each human has more than 20,000 genes. But, unlike genetic testing where scientists look at one suspect gene at a time, genomic testing allows researchers to look at hundreds of genes at a time.

Viewers meet experts on the forefront of this new era in medicine, and hear the stories of patients offered hope by new treatments, including Corey Wood, a 22-year-old non-smoker who received successful targeted treatment for stage-4 lung cancer.

Path to Healing: Genomics and Disease Prevention airs on 3-2 Sunday, the 19th at 12:00 noon and Sunday, the 26th at 6:30 p.m./11:30 p.m. On HD3-1, it can be seen Monday, the 13th at 8:30 p.m. and Tuesday, the 14th at 8:30 a.m. and 3:30 p.m.

Open Sesame: The Story of Seeds

Open Sesame: The Story of Seeds examines the crisis surrounding the corporate patenting of seeds—our most crucial source of food, fuel, and fabric.

Approximately 90 percent of the fruit and vegetable varieties that existed 100 years ago no longer exist today. Seeds that were lovingly nurtured over decades or even hundreds of years have been lost forever.

In the past, the seed was communal, a shared resource. But today, corporate-owned seed accounts for 82% of the worldwide market. Plants grown from transgenic seeds (also known as GMOs) send pollen through the wind and contaminate neighboring crops. Food grown has been shown to have dangerous health effects and once a crop is contaminated by GMO pollen, there is no turning back.

In Open Sesame, viewers meet a diverse range of individuals—farmers, renegade gardeners, passionate seed savers, artists, and seed activists—as they work to save this precious resource.

Open Sesame: The Story of Seeds will be broadcast on 3-2 Saturday, the 4th at 11:00 p.m. and again on Wednesday, the 15th at 9:00 p.m.

The Grand Rescue

The Grand Rescue recounts one of the most infamous rescues of its time. In 1967, on the North Face of the Grand Teton (shown), seven rescuers risked their lives to save a severely injured climber and his companion. The rescue took three harrowing days and pushed the team to the edge of their abilities. Remarkably, the injured climber was publicly critical of those who risked their lives to save his.

It was August 22nd around 2:00 p.m. when a young graduate student and his female climbing companion became stranded on a narrow ledge 13,000 feet high. A boulder had broken free and showered the climbers with rock fall leaving Gaylord Campbell with protruding compound fractures.

The rescue was the first one on the feared North Face, an unprecedented rescue for its time due to the climber's severe injuries and unknown terrain.

The Grand Rescue can be seen on 3-2 Wednesday, the 15th at 7:00 p.m. and Sunday, the 26th at 10:00 a.m. On HD3-1, it airs Wednesday, the 1st at 8:00 a.m. and 3:00 p.m.

VICIOUS

The acclaimed British sitcom Vicious returns for one final hurrah, after its two season run. Ferociously funny

The episode opens in springtime, when Freddie and Stuart attempt to hide their recently gained inheritance, while Violet faces financial troubles after her recent divorce and Ash struggles to meet his rent. Signs of Freddie and Stuart's expenditures soon threaten the pretense as their home is overrun with guests.

"A Year" on Vicious will be broadcast on 3-2 Sunday, the 19th at 7:00 p.m. and 10:30 p.m. On HD3-1, it airs Sunday, the 19th at 10:00 p.m. and 12:00 midnight.

9 Months That Made You

9 Months That Made You, a three-part series, reveals the thrilling story of how you were made, from the moment of conception to the moment of birth 280 days later. The latest research and medical advances reveal this hidden world in forensic detail.

"The First 8 Weeks" follows the story of how, from a fertilized egg, you became unmistakably human at about 12 weeks. "One of a Kind" explores how your face was shaped, why you're likely to be right-handed, and how your sexuality formed.

In "The Final Countdown," it turns out that a time you can't remember—the nine months you spend in the womb—could have more lasting effects on your health, personality, and even the lives of your children than your lifestyle or genes.

9 Months That Made You airs on 3-2 Wednesdays at 9:00 p.m. beginning the 29th. On HD3-1, it airs Wednesdays at 7:00 p.m. beginning the 29th and repeats Thursdays at 8:00 a.m. and 3:00 p.m.

INDEPENDENT LENS TRAPPED

"TRAPPED" on Independent Lens goes to the front lines of the controversial battle currently being waged over so-called TRAP laws—Targeted Regulation of Abortion Providers—which reproductive rights advocates believe are designed to restrict access to abortion. Proponents of these laws, most of which have been passed in Southern states, maintain that they are necessary to protect women's health.

In Texas, more than half of the clinics open in 2013 have closed; the handful remaining in Alabama are struggling, and only one remains in Mississippi.

The current case before the U.S. Supreme Court, Whole Women's Health v. Hellerstedt, will decide whether these laws are constitutional.

"TRAPPED" on Independent Lens will be broadcast on 3-2 Monday, the 20th at 9:00 p.m. On HD3-1, it airs Monday, the 20th at 7:00 p.m. and Tuesday, the 21st at 7:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m.

The Greeks

In The Greeks, a three-part series, historians, archaeologists, actors, athletes, scientists, and artists alike explore the Greeks' journey across time.

Greeks invented democracy, distilled logic and reason, wrote plays to plumb the deepest recesses of the soul, and captured the perfection of the human form in athletics and art. Put simply, the Greeks created our world.

From their beginnings as hunter-gatherers in harsh landscapes, to surviving the worst collapse in human history, to facing off against the greatest empire the world had ever known, the Greeks overcame incredible odds to pave the way for the modern West.

The Greeks airs on 3-2 Tuesdays at 8:00 p.m. beginning the 21st and Sundays at 10:30 p.m. beginning the 26th. On HD3-1, it airs Tuesdays at 7:00 p.m. beginning the 21st and repeats Wednesdays at 7:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m.

The Real Adam Smith

It's difficult to imagine that a man who lived with horse-drawn carriages and sailing ships would foresee our massive 21st century global market exchange, but Adam Smith, considered the "father of modern economics," was no ordinary 18th century figure.

The Real Adam Smith: A Personal Exploration explores Smith's insights regarding free trade and the nature of wealth, and how these insights from nearly 240 years ago are driving the world's economy today.

In part one, "Morality & Markets," French wine, Scottish whiskey, and freshly-baked scones all illustrate Smith's economic principles. True wealth is defined, and we learn Smith's thoughts on the government's role in markets and his distaste for monopolies and crony capitalism.

"Ideas that Changed the World" ponders why Smith is so widely studied in China today, and whether ethical and honest businesses can still prosper in the current competitive environment. Ethical businesses, like Whole Foods, showcase the morality Smith insisted was critical to thriving markets, while Uber and eBay demonstrate that markets can thrive through "self-policing."

The two-parts of The Real Adam Smith: A Personal Exploration will be broadcast on 3-2 Friday, the 17th at 9:00 p.m. and 10:00 p.m.

Joan Baez

Carol Burnett

Carol Burnett's Favorite Sketches

For over a decade, Americans would gather round their TV sets to watch "The Carol Burnett Show." From 1967 to 1978, the prime-time comedy-variety series won 25 Emmy Awards, and showcased the wonderful wacky brand of comedy that was Carol's and her hilarious troupe of regulars—Harvey Korman, Tim Conway, Vicki Lawrence, and Lyle Waggoner—and special guests Steve Martin and Betty White.

Carol Burnett's Favorite Sketches include some of her unforgettable characters—Starlet O'Hara, Norma Desmond, Mrs. Wiggins, and of course, Eunice, long suffering wife of Ed and daughter of Mama, as well as Tim Conway's "The Oldest Man" and Mr. Tudball.

Carol Burnett's Favorite Sketches will be broadcast on 3-2 Friday, the 3rd at 8:30 p.m. and Saturday, the 11th at 7:00 p.m. On HD3-1, it can be seen Sunday, the 12th at 6:00 p.m.

Louder Than Love The Grande Ballroom

Louder Than Love—The Grande Ballroom Story is the greatest untold story in Rock & Roll history as revealed by the musicians, artists, and people that lived it. While the West Coast was groovin' to the sounds of the "Summer of Love" in 1967, Detroit was pumping out a hard-driving, gritty, raw sound that was "Louder Than Love."

As the epicenter of the Detroit rock music scene in the late '60s, the Grande Ballroom not only influenced local musicians, but inspired bands from all over the U.S. and Great Britain. Legendary acts like Led Zepelin, Cream, B.B. King, Janis Joplin, Pink Floyd, and The Who graced The Grande Ballroom main stage. This is the story of the hallowed halls that started it all, told by the artists who helped create The Grande's legend.

Louder Than Love—The Grande Ballroom Story airs on 3-2 Monday, the 6th at 8:30 p.m. On HD3-1, it can be seen Saturday, the 11th at 8:30 p.m.

Youn acknowledges there are some instances where the only real good option is actual surgery, but in most cases he offers ways to turn back the clock in a significant way without even seeing a doctor.

In The Age Fix, Youn shares the single best cream to put on your skin to prevent aging and the best cream to reverse aging, and even prevent future skin cancers. He gives simple and easy treatments to improve most aging concerns, like age spots, wrinkles, and under eye puffiness, and reveals the best products to tighten your skin, along with simple dietary changes that can make you look and feel years younger.

The Allergy Solution

If you suffer from allergies of any kind, your body is fighting a very complicated and widespread disease. Around the world, one billion people suffer from allergic diseases such as asthma, hay fever, eczema, and food allergies.

In The Allergy Solution, Dr. Leo Galland, M.D., reveals the shocking rise of hidden allergies that lead to weight gain, fatigue, brain fog, depression, joint pain, headaches, ADHD, digestive problems, and much more. Astonishing new research shows how each of these is linked to the immune imbalance that is at the root of allergy.

With a simple 4-step program, Dr. Galland has unlocked the power of this breakthrough science to help thousands of patients. In The Allergy Solution, he takes an in-depth look at how we can balance immunity through nutrition and lifestyle to control or even reverse allergies without drugs.

The Allergy Solution will be broadcast Wednesday, the 8th at 8:30 p.m. On HD3-1, it can be seen Saturday, the 4th at 2:00 p.m. and Monday, the 6th at 8:30 p.m.

FarmHer the Documentary

In 2013, Marji Gulyer-Alaniz saw a commercial during the Super Bowl that was about American farmers. While the commercial moved her, she felt something was missing...images of women. It was then that she decided to devote her life to photographing women farmers and she created the organization FarmHer.

FarmHer the Documentary follows seven women farmers from around the country and visits with them about what it’s like to be a woman in what is typically thought of as a man’s world. The women vary in age, ethnicity, and the type of farming/ranching that they do. The FarmHers include Sara, a sheep rancher from Montana, and Carrie, a dairy farmer from Wisconsin. Others include Barbara, a goat rancher, and Carol Ann, an urban farmer, both from Texas. And there is Angelique, a produce farmer, and Pam, a row-crop farmer, both from Iowa. Last, but not least, is Renee, a cattle rancher and exporter from Florida.

FarmHer the Documentary will be broadcast on 3-2 Sunday, the 12th at 5:00 p.m. On HD3-1, it airs Sunday, the 5th at 7:00 p.m.

41st Annual Auction Raises $50,000 for KENW-TV Programming

The KENW-TV Online Auction topped $50,000 this year, and all proceeds benefit KENW-TV programming. We are very grateful for the generous support of all the donors, bidders, and buyers for participating in this year's Auction. If you know them or do business with any of them, please tell them how much you appreciate their support of KENW.

As we've done in the past and in lieu of individual thank you letters, we have listed all of the participants in this issue of the Q2.3 magazine, and a complimentary issue is being mailed to each one of you.

If you wish to continue receiving the magazine on a monthly basis (free of charge), please let us know.

If any donor wishes to know who bought their item(s), please call us at 1-888-367-5369, and we will gladly provide this information. Local donors can call us at 575-562-2112.

Thank you for allowing us to express our gratitude to you in this way. We definitely want you to know how much we appreciate your support. We look forward to hearing from you, and thanks again for helping us with this year's Auction.
