INDEPENDENT LENS

Shadow World

From Ronald Reagan to Barack Obama, and from Margaret Thatcher to Tony Blair, “Shadow World” on Independent Lens reveals the shocking realities of the global arms trade—its massive greed and corruption—and the only business that counts its profits in billions and its losses in human lives. Are wars being prolonged to generate more profits for a few, regardless of the human cost?

Through the insights of whistleblowers, investigators, prosecutors, journalists, military and industry insiders, “Shadow World” unravels a number of the world’s largest and most corrupt arms deals. It illustrates how the global arms trade operates in a parallel legal universe, in which the national security elite who drive it are seldom prosecuted for their often-illegal actions.

Based on The Shadow World: Inside the Global Arms Trade, the acclaimed book by Andrew Feinstein, the film explores how governments, their militaries and intelligence agencies, defense contractors, arms dealers, and agents are inextricably intertwined with the international trade in weapons, and how that trade fosters corruption, determines economic and foreign policies, undermines democracies, and creates human suffering.

Ultimately the film reveals the real costs of war, the way the arms trade drives it, and how a defense industry that is supposed to enhance security instead does the exact opposite; it actually sets the stage for war, making the world much more dangerous.

“Shadow World” on Independent Lens airs on 3-2 Monday, the 20th at 8:30 p.m. On 3-1, it airs Monday, the 20th at 7:00 p.m.

Playing By the Rules: Ethics at Work

Comprised of three 30-minute films, Playing By the Rules: Ethics at Work focuses on real cases of fraud, whistleblowing, and corruption in corporate America and implicitly asks viewers, “What would you do?”

From debating whether or not to act on a piece of insider information, choosing between the wellbeing of employees or an obligation to shareholders, or disclosing information about products with potentially harmful effects to consumers—understanding ethical decision making is a critical skill in the modern workplace.

In 2011, Sherry Hunt was a vice president at CitiMortgage in Missouri. For years, Hunt had been witnessing what looked like fraud as the company bought and sold mortgage loans that did not meet Citi standards. “The Whistleblower” follows Hunt as she navigates the corporate culture and decides whom she should tell about the fraud, and how.

In late 2001, Enron went bankrupt after using a series of accounting schemes to exaggerate its bottom line. “Ask Why” explores the rise and fall of Enron, and the story of one Enron employee brave enough to take her concerns straight to the top.

“The Run Coal Memos” looks back at the Massey Energy company and the disaster at Upper Big Branch mine in West Virginia that killed 29 men. Massey was run by the hard-charging CEO, Don Blankenship. Prosecutors say that his resistance to regulation led to the deadly mining disaster, and they would not only put Blankenship on trial, but the company’s culture as well.

Playing By the Rules: Ethics at Work airs on 3-2 Sundays at 3:30 p.m. beginning the 5th. On 3-1, it airs Wednesdays at 7:00 a.m. beginning the 8th and Mondays at 3:00 p.m. beginning the 13th.

LtoR: Convicted Enron executives Ken Lay and Jeff Skilling (whose yearly salary at Enron was over $130 million) paid $40 million in restitution to those they defrauded.

VA and the Human Cost of War

What do we owe our military veterans? This question is examined in often wrenching detail in VA and the Human Cost of War, an unflinching portrait of the realities of life after the battlefield and the toll war takes.

This insightful documentary looks at the United States Department of Veteran Affairs from its troubled beginnings in the 1920s to the modern VA system. The film explores its successes and its massive failures—due to corruption, policy, and funding—in properly caring for veterans upon their return from war.

The personal stories of veterans are intertwined with historical and political analysis from leading scholars and elected officials. The film exposes the endless cycle of apathy, bureaucracy, and underfunding that has directly contributed to the horrific rate at which veterans commit suicide in the US: 22 per day.

VA and the Human Cost of War can be seen on 3-2 Monday, the 6th at 8:00 p.m. and Thursday, the 16th at 7:00 p.m. On 3-1, it airs Monday, the 6th at 9:00 p.m. and Tuesday, the 7th and 8:00 a.m. and 3:00 p.m.

Chasing Trane: The John Coltrane Story

Set against the social, political, and cultural landscape of the times, “Chasing Trane: The John Coltrane Story” on Independent Lens brings the saxophone great to life, as a man and an artist. Denzel Washington speaks the words of Coltrane.

“Chasing Trane” reveals the critical events, passions, experiences, and challenges that shaped Coltrane’s life and his revolutionary sounds. It is a story of demons and darkness, of persistence and redemption. Above all, it recounts the spiritual journey of a man who found himself and, in the process, created an extraordinary body of work that transcends all barriers of geography, race, religion, and age.

“Chasing Trane” on Independent Lens will be broadcast on 3-2 Monday, the 6th at 9:00 p.m. On 3-1, it airs Sunday, the 12th at 9:00 p.m.

Mark Twain Prize

David Letterman

The Kennedy Center Mark Twain Prize for American Humor salutes “David Letterman,” in a star-studded evening that pays tribute to the humor and accomplishments of the broadcasting icon.

David Letterman has been hailed as one of the most innovative broadcasters in the history of television. In 33 years on late-night television, Letterman hosted 6,028 episodes of Late Night (NBC) and The Late Show (CBS), surpassing his mentor, Johnny Carson, for the longest-running late-night broadcaster in American history.

As a writer, producer, and performer, Letterman is one of the most-nominated people in Emmy Award history, with 52 nominations, resulting in 10 wins. Letterman shared the stage with virtually every Presidential candidate for more than 20 years, and his Late Show launched the careers of countless comedians and musical acts.

David Letterman: The Mark Twain Prize for American Humor airs on 3-2 Monday, the 20th at 7:00 p.m. and Tuesday, the 21st at 10:00 p.m. On 3-1, it airs Monday, the 20th at 8:30 p.m.

This is the House That Jack Built

In celebration of the 100th anniversary of President John F. Kennedy’s birth, This is the House That Jack Built chronicles his early years and examines his lasting legacy. The film touches on familiar themes of JFK’s life, and his ascent to the presidency, his mistakes and triumphs.

The documentary also explores new revelations and little-known stories, including a new CIA staffer and her discovery of a file on Oswald that soon thereafter went missing, and the Warren Commission’s pressure on 19-year-old Buell Wesley Frazier, who drove Oswald to work on November 22nd, 1963, who also appears in the documentary.

This is the House That Jack Built will be broadcast on 3-2 Sunday, the 5th at 6:00 p.m. and Monday, the 27th at 10:00 p.m. On 3-1, it airs Monday, the 6th at 7:00 p.m. and Tuesday, the 7th at 7:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m.

My Family and Other Turkeys

While turkey certainly makes for a delicious Thanksgiving dinner, there’s a lot to love about these humble creatures year-round. In the lighthearted documentary My Family and Other Turkeys, British wildlife expert, author, and avid birdwatcher Nigel Marven is on a mission to discover the fascinating history of this iconic bird, both at home and in the wild.

Using his own brood of newly-hatched turkeys, he reveals fascinating insights into their behavior, explores the story behind the domestication of wild turkeys, and discovers why these birds have been an important part of numerous cultures for centuries.

He travels to the United States to study the incredible success of wild turkey conservation and to meet flocks living in the suburbs, and even on a golf course.

My Family and Other Turkeys can be seen on 3-2 Thursday, the 23rd at 7:00 p.m. On 3-1, it airs Wednesday, the 22nd at 8:00 p.m. and Thursday, the 23rd at 8:00 a.m.

Remembering Leonard Nimoy

Remembering Leonard Nimoy is an intimate journey into the personal and professional life of the four-time Emmy-nominated actor—from his childhood growing up in Boston to his big break with Star Trek.

Remembering Leonard Nimoy also offers a glimpse into the latter years of his life, battling chronic obstructive pulmonary disease (COPD), the lung disease that took his life. The film features medical experts, including Nimoy’s physician and private nurse, who describe what COPD is, as well as root causes and symptoms. The actor, who attributed the disease to years of smoking, passed away at the age of 83 in 2015.

Remembering Leonard Nimoy can be seen on 3-2 Tuesday, the 7th at 10:00 p.m. and Sunday, the 12th at 6:00 p.m. On 3-1, it airs Monday, the 20th at 7:00 p.m. and Tuesday, the 21st at 7:00 a.m./2:00 p.m.

Great Performances Best of Broadway

Present Laughter

Legendary actor Kevin Kline makes his eagerly awaited return to Broadway in Noël Coward’s outrageously irresistible backstage comedy “Present Laughter,” airing on Great Performances.

Kevin Kline and Kate Burton

“Present Laughter” follows a self-obsessed actor (Kline) in the midst of a mid-life crisis. Juggling his considerable talent, ego, and libido, the theater’s favorite leading man suddenly finds himself caught between fawning ingenues, crazed playwrights, secret trysts, and unexpected twists.

“Present Laughter” can be seen on 3-2 Friday, the 3rd at 9:00 p.m. On 3-1, it will be broadcast Saturday, the 4th at 7:00 p.m.

Indecent

“Indecent,” winner of two 2017 Tony Awards, is about the love and passion to create theatre, even in the most difficult of circumstances. It is a story told with great theatricality and joyous songs and dances.

The play follows a troupe of actors, the cast of Sholem Asch’s God of Vengeance, who risked their lives and careers against enormous challenges to perform a work in which they deeply believed, at a time when art, freedom, and truth were on trial.

“Indecent” will be broadcast on 3-2 Friday, the 17th at 9:00 p.m. On 3-1, it can be seen Saturday, the 18th at 7:00 p.m.

Holiday Inn

Irving Berlin’s “Holiday Inn – The Broadway Musical” tells the story of Jim, who leaves the bright lights of Broadway—as well as his fiancé dance partner Lila—to settle down at an old farmhouse in Connecticut. Then Jim meets Linda, a schoolteacher with talent to spare. Together they turn the farmhouse into a seasonal inn with show-stopping performances of many of Irving Berlin’s all-time classics to celebrate each holiday of the year.

“Holiday Inn” on Great Performances airs on 3-2 Friday, the 24th at 9:00 p.m. On 3-1, it airs Sunday, the 26th at 10:00 p.m.

the FOLK SAMPLER

KENW Public Radio Network
Sundays at 2:00 p.m.

When Mike Flynn was a boy, he sat in his bedroom on the Kansas prairie, turning the dial on his radio and marveling that a voice from Chicago could reach so far.

Now it is Flynn's voice that reaches listeners across the nation. His syndicated weekly radio show, The Folk Sampler, is heard on stations from West Virginia to Alaska.

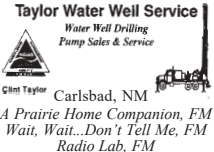

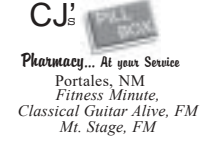

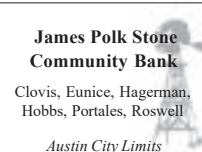

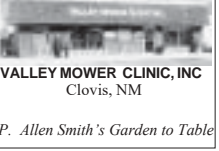

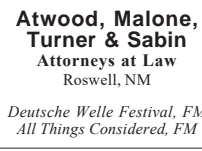

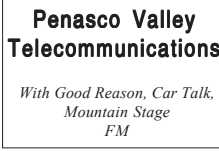

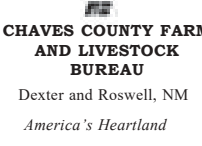

"From the foothills of the Ozarks," the show starts out, "this is The Folk Sampler. I'm Mike Flynn."

The series plays a mix of traditional music, folk, bluegrass, and blues. Each program revolves around a theme, anything from trains to holidays to the anguish of love.

ANNE OF GREEN GABLES – THE GOOD STARS is the second installment of the classic Lucy Maud Montgomery story of a free-spirited teenager on Prince Edward Island. It premieres on Thanksgiving night, just as ANNE OF GREEN GABLES (2016) did last Thanksgiving. The third installment, FIRE & DEW, airs in 2018.

In GOOD STARS, Anne Shirley turns 13 and faces complex situations with friends, learns from inspirational adults, and experiences an escalating friendship with Gilbert. Her free-spirited nature is challenged by her perceived need to be sensible, a journey fraught with confusion and some unfortunate—albeit amusing—mishaps.
