Michael Gambon as Winston Churchill

Churchill's Secret

Michael Gambon (“Dumbledore” in six Harry Potter films) plays the greatest statesman of the twentieth century in his most difficult hour: a debilitating stroke which he seeks to hide from the world. Based on a true incident in the life of Winston Churchill, “Churchill’s Secret” on Masterpiece is a two-hour adaptation of Jonathan Smith’s acclaimed 2015 novel, The Churchill Secret: KBO. “KBO” in the book’s title stands for Churchill’s favorite advice in the face of adversity: “keep buggering on.”

The action opens in the summer of 1953. Churchill, age 78, is prime minister for the second time and as pugnacious as ever—until he is felled by a severe stroke while hosting a state dinner at 10 Downing Street. Lady Churchill (Lindsay Duncan) manages to conceal the seriousness of her husband’s sudden incapacity, while he is evaluated by his personal physician and later transported in worsening condition to his country home, Chartwell.

Summoned to care for the apparently dying prime minister is a remarkable young nurse, Millie Appleyard (Romola Garai), who treats the world’s most famous man as she would any other difficult patient. The two bond over the Victorian poet William Ernest Henley, whose celebrated poem, “Invictus” (Latin for “unconquered”), helps inspire Churchill to relearn to speak, stand, and walk. He is also determined to hold onto the reins of power, and “Churchill’s Secret” tells the astonishing story of a bedridden, incapacitated leader who plots to outwit the high government officials who are maneuvering to replace him.

Then there is Churchill’s family, of whom Lord Moran (Bill Patterson) observes, “There’s a price to pay for greatness, but the great seldom pay it themselves.” Those who paid were Churchill’s children, who grew up in the permanent shadow of their exuberant and ambitious father. When Diana, Randolph, Sarah, and Mary arrive at Chartwell to comfort their stricken parent, all except Mary fall into bickering and boozing—hardly an environment conducive to convalescence.

Through it all, Lady Churchill tries to keep the family peace and above all save some portion of her husband’s declining years for herself—far away from the demands of war and politics. As for Winston, he is haunted by a strange vision and a hit song from the early 1920s: “I’m Forever Blowing Bubbles.” What could it mean?

“Churchill’s Secret” on Masterpiece will be broadcast on 3-2 Sunday, the 11th at 8:00 p.m. and Friday, the 16th at 10:00 p.m. On HD3-1, it airs Sunday, the 11th at 8:30 p.m. and Monday, the 12th at 6:00 a.m. and 1:00 p.m.

Royal Wives at War

Royal Wives at War is a revealing new look at the abdication crisis of 1936 through the eyes of the two women at its very heart. In a series of dramatized monologues set in 1967, Elizabeth the Queen Mother and Wallis Simpson look back at the dramatic events which led to King Edward VIII giving up the throne for Simpson, the woman he loved.

Combining dramatic reconstructions, archive footage, and a chorus of acquaintances and biographers, Royal Wives at War returns to some of the original words and opinions of the two women at the heart of that battle and unravels the story of a frosty relationship between the Queen Mother and Wallis that lasted for decades.

The Queen Mother once observed that Adolf Hitler and Wallis Simpson were the two people who had caused her the most trouble during her long lifetime.

Royal Wives at War will be broadcast on 3-2 Sunday, the 18th at 7:00 p.m. and Friday, the 23rd at 9:00 p.m. On HD3-1, it airs Sunday, the 18th at 9:30 p.m. and Monday, the 19th at 7:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m.

Poldark, Season 2

Against the breathtaking backdrop of 18th century Cornwall, Aidan Turner (Poldark) and Eleanor Tomlinson (Demelza; shown below), and Heida Reed (Elizabeth) return as the complicated love triangle in a new season of “Poldark,” the popular romantic saga on Masterpiece. Nine gripping episodes are based on Winston Graham’s bestselling Poldark novels, published between 1945 and 2002. Twelve volumes in all, “Poldark, Season 2” takes the plot into Graham’s fourth volume, “Warleggan.”

Viewers of the first season will recall that Ross Poldark shocks his relatives and neighbors when he shows up from America, since all had presumed him dead. Then he sets about upending their lives—threatening the interests of his relatives and the rival upstart George Warleggan. Ross marries Demelza and they have a daughter. But in the final episode of Season 1, an epidemic takes the child away, and a shipwreck and drowning are blamed on Ross.

Season 2 begins as Ross stands accused of murder and “wrecking”—luring a cargo ship to the rocks for plunder. It’s a capital offense and the judge is unsympathetic; Ross appears headed for the gallows. It’s just the first in a string of suspenseful episodes every bit as precipitous as the steep cliffs of Cornwall.

“Poldark II” on Masterpiece airs on 3-2 Sundays at 8:00 p.m. beginning the 25th and Fridays at 10:00 p.m. beginning the 30th. On HD3-1, it airs Sundays at 8:30 p.m. beginning the 25th and Mondays at 6:00 a.m. and 1:00 p.m. beginning the 26th.

Poldark Revealed

Poldark Revealed is a one-hour special that leads up to the premiere of Season 2. The program follows the cast and crew of “Poldark” on location in beautiful Cornwall, and reveals how the writer, directors, and actors are working to re-create the magic of Season 1 broadcast 16 months ago.

Poldark Revealed airs on 3-2 Sunday, the 18th at 8:00 p.m. and Friday, the 23rd at 10:00 p.m. On HD3-1, it airs Sunday, the 18th at 8:30 p.m. and Monday, the 19th at 6:00 a.m. and 1:00 p.m.

FRONTLINE

The Choice 2016

Hillary Clinton and Donald Trump are two of the most polarizing presidential candidates in modern history. Now, Frontline goes behind the headlines Trump and Clinton have generated to investigate what has shaped these two candidates, where they came from, how they lead, and why they want to take on one of the most difficult jobs imaginable.

“The Choice 2016,” a two-hour special on Frontline, presents an interwoven investigative biography of Clinton and Trump that draws on dozens of interviews from those who know the candidates best—friends and family, advisors, and adversaries—as well as authors, journalists, and political insiders. What emerges is a deep narrative of both candidates’ lives, side by side, with trustworthy journalism and powerful new insights at a moment when voters are being bombarded with conflicting partisan stories about each candidate.

From their childhoods, to their college experiences, to their tumultuous careers, “The Choice 2016” investigates formative moments in the lives of Donald Trump, who has challenged the establishment at every turn, and Hillary Clinton, who has become the first female presidential nominee.

“Both candidates have high unfavorability ratings, and the bitter divide in this country makes it incredibly hard for people to understand how others could support the candidate on the opposite side,” says veteran Frontline filmmaker Michael Kirk. “After watching “The Choice 2016,” no matter where your allegiance lies, you’ll come away with a new and richer understanding of who the opposing candidates are, and how and why he or she has reached this point.”

“The Choice 2016” on Frontline can be seen on 3-2 Tuesday, the 27th at 8:00 p.m. and Thursday, the 29th at 7:00 p.m. On HD3-1, it airs Friday, the 30th at 8:00 p.m.

THE CONTENDERS

16 FOR '16

The Contenders – 16 for '16 is an eight-part series featuring candidates in the most contentious and compelling political campaigns of all time. Each episode features two candidates whose stories appear vastly different on the surface, but share common elements that changed the outcomes of campaigns and the course of history. Featured alongside the candidates, their families and friends are a who’s who of campaign managers, observers, and Washington, DC, insiders who provide background stories of groundbreaking campaign moments, fatal missteps, and behind-the-scenes insights.

The series kicks off with one unlikely pair: 1970’s presidential candidate Shirley Chisholm, the first black American and first female to run for the country’s top post, and Senator John McCain, who ran against Barack Obama in 2008.

Game-changing moments in both campaigns include Chisholm’s betrayal by a friend in the House of Representatives who, at the last moment, decided he would not officially nominate her, and a revealing off-camera show-down between McCain and George W. Bush just prior to a live debate.

Week two revisits the campaigns of former Vermont Governor Howard Dean and conservative insider Pat Buchanan—men who were seen as insurrectionists within their own parties.

It was again the human moments that led to their unpredicted outcomes. For Gov. Dean, it was the excitement (and problematic acoustics) that gave rise to his infamous, campaign-imploding “scream.” A decision by Buchanan to go off the party script and detail his concept of a “cultural war” for the soul of America resulted in a speech that many believe divided Republicans and propelled Bill Clinton to the White House.

Pairings for the balance of the series include: Mitt Romney and Michael Dukakis; Gary Hart and Jesse Jackson; Barry Goldwater and Ronald Reagan; Ross Perot and Ralph Nader; Geraldine Ferraro and Sarah Palin; and George W. Bush and Barack Obama.

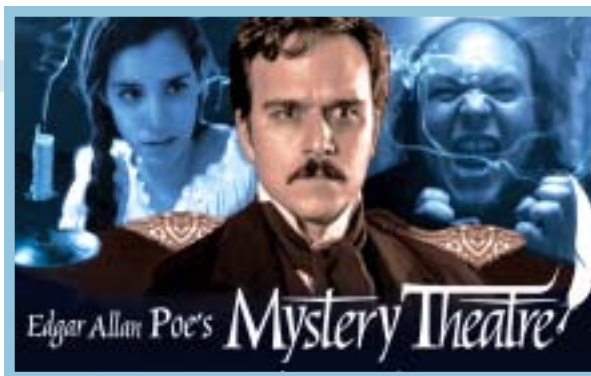

Contenders – 16 for '16 airs on 3-2 Tuesdays at 7:00 p.m. beginning the 13th and Sundays at 11:00 p.m. beginning the 18th. On HD3-1, it airs Tuesdays at 9:00 p.m. beginning the 13th and Wednesdays at 8:00 a.m. and 3:00 p.m. beginning the 14th.

Edgar Allan Poe’s Mystery Theatre is a fictional account fusing the biography of America’s first great mystery writer with his most bizarre tales.

In the one-hour dramatization, Poe enjoys his emerging notoriety in the New York literary clubs, where he squanders his celebrity status on a strange poker bet.

Poe suddenly uproots his family and returns to his childhood home in Richmond, Virginia on a desperate quest to revive the crumbling theatre where his mother once performed. His bitterest rival and former friend, the reverend Rufus W. Griswold, follows Poe on a mission to destroy his fragile legacy. In Richmond, Griswold allies himself with Poe’s estranged foster-father John Allan, to try to take control of his literary work.

Seemingly oblivious to the plot against him, Poe enlists the help of his family and friends, and even his rivals, to bring his works to the stage. His own struggle with alcohol and poverty, which causes deep tension with his loyal wife Virginia, forms the back-story to his tour-de-force “The Cask of Amontillado,” leaving the audience in shock. The finale is capped off by Poe’s dark comedy “Hop-Frog: A Tale of Revenge,” which delivers poetic justice upon his enemies.

Edgar Allan Poe’s Mystery Theatre can be seen on 3-2 Sunday, the 11th at 7:00 p.m. and Friday, the 16th at 9:00 p.m. On HD3-1, it will be broadcast Sunday, the 4th at 9:30 p.m.

Defying the Nazis: The Sharps' War

Defying the Nazis: The Sharps' War tells the story of a little-known but important mission by an American minister and his wife to rescue refugees and dissidents in Europe before and after the start of World War II. The 90-minute film tells the story of Waitstill and Martha Sharp, a Unitarian minister and his wife from Massachusetts, who left their children behind and boldly committed to numerous life-threatening missions in Europe.

The Sharps

In January of 1939, Waitstill received a call from the Vice President of the American Unitarian Association, asking if he and Martha would travel to Czechoslovakia to help provide relief to people trying to escape Nazi persecution. If they were discovered, they would face imprisonment, probable torture and death. Seventeen other members of the church had declined. The Sharps accepted and expected to be gone for several months. Instead, their mission would last almost two years.

The Sharps would face harrowing encounters with Nazi police, narrowly escape arrest, and watch as the Third Reich invaded Eastern Europe. But dozens of Jewish scientists, journalists, doctors, powerful anti-Nazi activists, and children would find their way to freedom and start new lives as a result of their efforts.

Defying the Nazis: The Sharps' War airs on 3-2 Tuesday, the 20th at 8:00 p.m. On HD3-1, it airs Monday, the 26th at 7:00 p.m. and Tuesday, the 27th at 7:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m.

World War II Specials

World War II Specials focus on "Nurses on the Battlefield: Hidden Tragedy of WWII" and "Beneath the Mushroom Cloud."

More than 50,000 Japanese nurses went to the frontlines in WWII to aid their country. But they were unprepared for the horrible reality that awaited them. As they worked to protect the soldiers, they faced threats to their own well-being. Wartime documents that had long been confidential, along with the testimony of former nurses, shed light on how they have struggled to come to terms with their wartime experiences.

"Beneath the Mushroom Cloud" explores the reality people faced beneath the mushroom cloud in Hiroshima on August 6th, 1945. Digital technology restores and enhances scenes captured in photographs taken near the epicenter of the atomic explosion while the mushroom cloud remained in the sky over Hiroshima. The still images are brought to life with sound and motion, based on the testimony of survivors who appeared in the photographs. New light is shed on how the victims behaved after the blast and the effects of intense thermal radiation.

The two World War II Specials will be broadcast on 3-2 Mondays at 10:00 p.m. on the 19th (Pt. 1) and 26th (Pt. 2).

The Birth of Saké

All the Difference

In Japan, saké has been popular for nearly 2,000 years. But this traditional rice wine is more than a mere libation; the country's finest varieties are considered works of art.

"The Birth of Saké" on P.O.V. takes us on a cinematic journey inside the Yoshida Brewery, a 144-year-old family-owned establishment whose workers range in age from 20 to 70. Here, a brotherhood of artisans and their brewmaster spend six months in nearly monastic isolation as they follow a precise, painstaking procedure to bring their "unruly child" into being. Witness the mythical, mystical process of creating a world-renowned masterpiece.

"The Birth of Saké" on P.O.V. airs on 3-2 Monday, the 5th at 9:00 p.m. On HD3-1, it airs Monday, the 5th at 7:00 p.m. and Tuesday, the 6th at 7:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m.

Workers at the Yoshida Brewery tend to cooked saké rice.

The often crushing struggles of young African-American men come vividly to life in "All the Difference" on P.O.V., which traces the paths of two teens—Robert Henderson and Krishaun Branch—from the South Side of Chicago who dared to dream a seemingly impossible dream: to graduate from high school and then from college. They would be the first in their families to do either. But the odds are against them, with the average high school graduation rate for black males in Chicago at 41 percent while only 16 percent of African-American men graduate college.

The film follows the two men through five years of hard work, setbacks, and uncertainty. Though neither one was academically exceptional, it was the support from people in their lives—parents, grandparents, teachers, and mentors—that made all the difference.

"It only takes one generation to dramatically change the destiny of a family, and when families change, communities change. Robert and Krishaun exemplify that change," says director Tod Lending.

"All the Difference" on P.O.V. will be broadcast on 3-2 Monday, the 12th at 9:00 p.m. On HD3-1, it airs Monday, the 12th at 7:00 p.m. and Tuesday, the 13th at 7:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m.

Greyhounds Open New Stadium Now Located Back on the ENMU Campus

On Saturday night, September 10th at 6:45 p.m., KENW-TV broadcasts Eastern New Mexico University's first football game from the new Greyhound Stadium, now located back on the Portales campus. The game pits the ENMU Greyhounds against the Mustangs from Western New Mexico University. The production consists of present and past students and staff of KENW. Current TV staff member Allan Crawford, who graduated from Eastern in 2001, is directing the TV production.

One of the past staff members who is participating is Phil Scott. When asked if he would be willing to come to Portales to help announce the game, Phil responded:

"It is a humbling experience to be asked to be part of the broadcast team for the first game from the new stadium on Eastern New Mexico University's campus. Almost 40 years ago I was part of the first televised broadcast of Greyhound football on channel 3 KENW. . . I am looking forward to working again with an old friend, Carl Twibel. Carl and I worked together for a short time in Portales, and Carl's love of the game that he passed on to me helped me become a better sports broadcaster and be a part of this historical broadcast."

The game will be broadcast on KENW-TV Channels 3-1 and 3-2 on Saturday, September 10th at 6:45 p.m. and streamed on the internet.

India – Nature's Wonderland

In India – Nature's Wonderland, a two-part series, journey through India to discover its rich culture and rare wildlife. Experience a ritual tiger dance and see lions, elephants, and India's only ape—the hoolock gibbon. Then climb to the Himalayas where the Ganges River begins.

In part two, continue exploring India and meet a man who spent 30 years planting his own rainforest. Encounter demoiselle cranes, tahr goats, one-horned rhinos, the tiny pika and lion-tailed macaques. Witness the mass hatching of olive ridley turtles.

India – Nature's Wonderland will be broadcast on 3-2 Wednesdays at 9:00 p.m. beginning the 21st and Sundays at 10:00 a.m. beginning the 25th. On HD3-1, it airs Wednesdays at 8:00 p.m. beginning the 21st and Thursdays at 7:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m. beginning the 22nd.

American Umpire, a thought-provoking documentary about U.S. foreign policy, chronicles how the United States became the world's policeman and questions how long the U.S. must continue to play this role.

Narrated by Jim Lehrer, formerly of The MacNeil/Lehrer NewsHour, and written by award-winning historian Elizabeth Cobbs, the film explores the history of American military intervention and the future of America's military commitment abroad.

After detailing the principles that guided U.S. foreign policy for 150 years and the change that followed WWII, the film examines America's contemporary role on the international stage. It concludes by asking whether it's time to rethink our current policies, scale down military spending, and bring our allies back into the game as fellow umpires.

American Umpire airs on 3-2 Monday, the 19th at 9:00 p.m. and Friday, the 23rd at 11:00 p.m. On HD3-1, it airs Wednesday, the 21st at 7:00 p.m.

Fall Festival 2016

Land with Jerry Apps

In earlier PBS specials, popular Midwestern author and historian Jerry Apps explored his childhood from the Great Depression to World War II through personal memories and photos. In The Land with Jerry Apps, he reaches forward, looking ahead by sharing his passion for the land, conservation, and local farming.

Jerry Apps

his father on their Midwestern farm, Apps recalls stories that unite the generations by informing a shared appreciation for the world around us.

The Land with Jerry Apps is a companion to Apps' new book, Whispers and Shadows: A Naturalist's Memoir.

The Land with Jerry Apps will be broadcast on 3-2 Sunday, the 4th at 5:00 p.m. on KENW-TV.

In chapters that follow the seasons, Apps takes viewers on a walk in the woods with his grandsons, passing along lessons that can be gleaned from listening to the land. With a wit and wisdom inherited from

Yakov Smirnoff's Happily Ever Laughter: The Neuroscience of Romantic Relationships

In Yakov Smirnoff's Happily Ever Laughter: The Neuroscience of Romantic Relationships, the Russian-born entertainer brings his infectious charm and practical, research-based advice to viewers, taking his comedy to a new level and providing step-by-step instructions for bringing love and laughter back to relationships. He recounts heartwarming stories of his own parents' inspiring relationship and explains how they used some of Yakov's relationship principles to bring love and laughter to each other throughout their lives.

Yakov Smirnoff

Both men and women will laugh and learn all the way through Happily Ever Laughter, and will be inspired to put the spark back into their own relationship with the many tools Yakov presents.

Yakov Smirnoff's Happily Ever Laughter: The Neuroscience of Romantic Relationships will be broadcast on 3-2 Sunday, the 4th at 6:30 p.m. On HD3-1, it airs Sunday, the 4th at 11:00 a.m.

David Marash is host of HERE & THERE.

Here & There

with David Marash

In Here & There with David Marash, the former ABC, NBC, and ESPN journalist interviews analysts, newsmakers, and other journalists about the events they are actively covering. The weekly one-hour series originates from KSFR in Santa Fe.

Dave's extended conversations cover the headlines and the context behind them. His questions give listeners the perspective of an insider, and the answers reveal what's really going on, how things got that way, and whose interests are being served.

Here & There with David Marash can be heard Mondays at 3:00 p.m. on KENW-FM.

9/11 INSIDE THE PENTAGON

As America marks the 15th anniversary of the September 11th, 2001, terrorist attacks on the U.S., PBS presents 9/11 INSIDE THE PENTAGON. While most of the media coverage of the events of September 11th focused on New York City and United Flight 93, the story of what happened inside the Pentagon on that tragic day has never truly been told until now. During the attack, 184 people from inside the building and on board American Airlines flight 77 perished.

9/11 INSIDE THE PENTAGON is the story of heroism and perseverance in the face of unimaginable, life-threatening obstacles. In the chaos that followed after Flight 77 struck the Pentagon, a group of workers inside would crawl through black smoke and pools of jet fuel looking for an exit, only to find themselves trapped behind a newly installed blast-proof window that was impossible to break open; emotional clashes over jurisdiction would break out between Pentagon personnel and first responders trying to find survivors in the wreckage; smoke would threaten to incapacitate the National Military Command Center; and an unaccounted-for plane would pose the threat of yet another strike.
