Freddy Canales Molly Chavez Josh Bellin-Gallagher Peter Garcia Zak Paneral C. J. Rogers Brooke Williams The Roosevelts: An Intimate History is a new seven-part, 14-hour documentary by Ken Burns. The film weaves the stories of Theodore, Franklin, and Eleanor Roosevelt, three members of one of the most prominent and influential families in American politics. The series marks the first time their individual attrice have been waven.

vidual stories have been woven into a single narrative.

The Roosevelts follows the family's story for more than a century, from Theodore's birth in 1858 to Eleanor's death in 1962. Over the course of those years, Theodore would become the 26th president of the United States, and his beloved niece, Eleanor, would marry his fifth cousin, Franklin, who became the 32nd president. Together, they redefined the relationship Americans had with their government and with each other, and redefined, as well, the role of the U.S. within the wider world.

The series encompasses all the history the Roosevelts helped to make—the creation of National Parks and the digging of the Panama Canal, the New Deal and the defeat of Hitler, and the postwar struggles for civil rights at home and human rights around the world in which Eleanor Roosevelt played a central role. But it is also an intimate human story about love and betrayal, family feeling and personal courage and the conquest of fear.

A Ken Burns Film THE ROOSEVELTS: An Intimate History

Legendary actress Meryl Streep portrays Eleanor Roosevelt in readings from her personal letters and writings. Joining Streep are Paul Giamatti as the voice of Theodore Roosevelt and Edward Herrmann, two-time Emmy Award nominee for his performance as Franklin Roosevelt, and rounding out the cast are Patricia Clarkson, Adam Arkin, Philip Bosco, Keith Carradine, Kevin Conway, Ed Harris, John Lithgow, Josh Lucas, Billy Bob Thornton, and Eli Wallach.

The Roosevelts was written by longtime Burns collaborator Geoffrey C. Ward, who is an authority on Franklin Roosevelt. The author of two biographical volumes, A First-Class Temperament and Before the Trumpet, he is also the editor of Closest Companion, which revealed for the first time Roosevelt's close friendship with his distant cousin, Daisy Suckley. Ward's interest in FDR grew in part from the fact that he, like FDR, is a polio survivor.

The Roosevelts: An Intimate History will be broadcast Sunday through Saturday, September 14th — 20th at 8:00 p.m. (2 hrs. each night). The series repeats Sundays at 1:30 p.m. beginning September 21st. On HD3-1, The Roosevelts can be seen Sunday through Saturday, September 14th – 20th at 7:00 p.m./12:00 midnight.

HUNTER'S RAID * * *

Defending Hearth & Home

Hunter's Raid: Defending Hearth & Home takes place during the summer of 1864, the bloodiest summer and hardest year of the Civil War so far, when a northern army is ordered to devastate the Shenandoah Valley of Virginia.

Near Richmond, Virginia, Union commander Ulysses S. Grant attacked Confederate armies, knowing he could easily replace lost men and supplies, while Gen. Robert E. Lee and the south could not. In one month, Grant's army would suffer 52,000 casualties. Hoping to distract Lee and open another front in Virginia, Grant ordered General David Hunter and his army of 18,000 soldiers to lay waste to the Shenandoah Valley, known as the "breadbasket of the Confederacy," and then proceed to Lynchburg, an important Confederate supply and transportation center.

Hunter and his Army of West Virginia marched south along the Shenandoah Valley, looting and destroying buildings and warehouses, tearing up railroad lines, burning homes, and destroying personal property as resistance fell away in town after town.

Aware of the threat that Hunter's army posed, Robert E. Lee detached a part of his army under Gen. Jubal A. Early to face Hunter. Under cover of darkness, Lee's Second Corps, 8,000 strong near Richmond, began marching to Lynchburg's defense.

While Hunter and his men camped just a few miles west of Lynchburg, Early's troops began arriving by train and marched directly into defensive positions around the city. Hunter and his men could hear the sound of military bands and cheering crowds as the Confederate soldiers disembarked. By the next morning, June 18th, Early had a force numbering about 12,000 soldiers. They stood ready to defend Lynchburg using two earthen forts that were connected by trenches and rifle pits dug during the night. From dawn until early afternoon, the artillery of both sides opened up, and for several hours cannon shells flew fast and thick. By late afternoon, Union forces fell back and went into camp.

As Hunter made his plans for the next day's action, he became convinced that his enemy had been heavily reinforced and was now twice his number. Hunter made plans for a retreat and in the darkness of night, his army withdrew from Lynchburg, marching back in the direction they came. The next morning, Early's men awoke expecting another day of battle. Instead, they found that Hunter's men had fled.

A month following the raid, Hunter resigned from command of his army. He suffered severe criticism for failing to complete his mission and never again commanded an army in the field.

Hunter's Raid: Defending Hearth & Home airs Tuesday, September 16th at 7:00 p.m., Friday, September 19th at 11:00 p.m., and Sunday, September 21st at 10:00 a.m. On HD3-1, it airs Monday, September 15th at 7:00 a.m./1:00 p.m. and Sunday, September 24th, at 1:00 p.m.

Two Specials Celebrate 200th Anniversary of "The Star-Spangled Banner"

Star-Spangled Spectacular: Bicentennial of Our National Anthem

The Baltimore harbor, replete with tall ships and naval vessels, serves as a stunning backdrop for Great Performances "Star-Spangled Spectacular: Bicentennial of our National Anthem." The two-hour event is a highlight of a weeklong celebration of the 200th anniversary of our national anthem.

Acclaimed actor John Lithgow hosts with performances by actress and singer Kristin Chenoweth; country group Little Big Town; vocal sensations Pentatonix; the Baltimore Symphony Orchestra; and more to be announced. The patriotic special features a star-studded line up of entertainers paying tribute to our nation's ideals in a thrilling and inspiring concert at the Pier Six Payilion.

Kristin Chenoweth

"Star-Spangled Spectacular: Bicentennial of Our National Anthem" on Great Performances airs Saturday, September 13th at 8:00 p.m. and Sunday, September 14th at 10:00 p.m. On HD3-1, it airs Saturday, September 13th at 7:00 p.m.

F. S. Key and the Song that Built America

F. S. Key and the Song that Built America celebrates the 200th anniversary of Francis Scott Key's writing of America's national anthem, "The Star-Spangled Banner." Key, a constitutional lawyer, famously penned the lyrics following the 12-hour bombardment of Ft. McHenry in September 1814.

Against a backdrop of history, and through the eyes of Key's wife Polly (played by Deborah Hazlett), the film highlights Key's personal life, legal career, and artistic development. It also covers Key's major cases (including the Aaron Burr conspiracy), his vehement opposition to the War of 1812, his enlistment in the militia, his participation in the ill-fated defense of Washington, D.C., and his penchant for poetry and art.

F. S. Key and the Song that Built America airs Sunday, September 7th at 9:30 p.m., Friday, September 19th at 10:00 p.m., and Sunday, September 21st at 7:00 p.m. On HD3-1, it airs Wednesday, September 17th at 7:00 a.m. and 1:00 p.m.

NOVA Vacci

Vaccines—Calling the Shots

Measles. Mumps. Whooping cough. Diseases that were largely eradicated in the United States a generation ago are returning. Across America and around the globe, children are getting sick and dying from preventable diseases—in part, because some parents are choosing to skip their children's shots. What are the biggest concerns and misconceptions, and what are the risks to the child and society when people decide to forego immunization? In "Vaccines—Calling the Shots," Nova helps viewers find the answers they need.

More than 90% of Americans vaccinate their children, while at least 10 percent of parents choose to delay or skip their children's shots. For highly infectious diseases like measles, 95% of the community must be vaccinated to shield the larger population, a concept known as "herd immunity." If the rate drops below that 95% threshold, even by just a few percentage points, this layer of protection can collapse. The program highlights real cases that demonstrate just how diseases can spread—and how many people can fall sick—when a community's immunity barrier breaks down.

"Vaccines—Calling the Shots" on Nova can be seen Wednesday, September 10th at 8:00 p.m., Saturday, September 13th at 10:00 p.m., and Sunday, September 14th at 12:00 midnight. On HD3-1, it airs Wednesday, September 10th at 8:00 p.m., Thursday, September 11th at 8:00 a.m./1:00 p.m., and Sunday, September 14th at 4:00 p.m.

Rise of the Hackers

Our lives are going digital. We shop, bank, and even date online. Computers hold our treasured photographs, private emails, and all of our personal information. This data is precious—and cybercriminals want it. Now, "Rise of the Hackers" on Nova goes behind the scenes of the fast-paced world of cryptography to meet the scientists battling to keep our data safe.

They are experts in extreme physics, math, and a new field called "ultra-paranoid computing," all working to forge unbreakable codes and build ultra-fast computers. From the two men who uncovered the world's most advanced cyber weapon, to the computer expert who worked out how to hack into cash machines, and scientists who believe they can store a password in your unconscious brain, Nova investigates how a new global geek squad is harnessing cutting-edge science—all to stay one step ahead of the hackers.

"Rise of the Hackers" on Nova airs Wednesday, September 24th at 8:00 p.m., Saturday, September 27th at 10:00 p.m., and Sunday, September 28th at 12:00 midnight. On HD3-1, it airs Wednesday, September 24th at 8:00 p.m., Thursday, September 25th at 8:00 a.m./1:00 p.m., and Sunday, September 28th at 4:00 p.m.

Resurrecting Richard III

parking lot in England. Everyone thought they were mad until a skeleton—hunchbacked and with an arrow in its spine—emerged. University of Leichester scientists ultimately confirmed through DNA that the bones were those of the reviled King Richard III. Richard is considered the most evil king to have ruled England and a fearsome warrior as well, despite the extreme curvature of his spine.

Secrets of the Dead "Resurrecting Richard III" reports on a series of fascinating, new experiments now underway, including startling new DNA matches, revelations about Richard's fitness going into battle, and a lucky accident when scientists discover a War of the Roses re-enactor—with matching scoliosis—answering the question, could a king with such a deformed body fight ferociously in battle as the heroic accounts suggest?

Secrets of the Dead "Resurrecting Richard III" can be seen Wednesday, September 24th at 9:00 p.m. and Monday, September 29th at 9:00 p.m. On HD3-1, it airs Wednesday, September 24th at 9:00 p.m., Thursday, September 25th at 11:00 a.m./4:30 p.m., and Sunday, September 28th at 3:00 p.m.

Rick Steves' Special:

The Holy Land

Israelis and Palestinians Today

Rick Steves' Special: The Holy Land, Israelis and Palestinians Today weaves together both the Israeli and the Palestinian narratives to better understand a place that is, for a third of humanity, literally holy land. The crossroads for three great religions, the Holy Land has been coveted and fought over for centuries.

From Jersualem to Bethlehem, Steves visits the major sights, but delves deeper to better understand both peoples. Along the way, he learns about security walls and disputed settlements.

Rick Steves' Special: The Holy Land, Israelis and Palestinians Today airs Wednesday, September 17th at 7:00 p.m. and Saturday, September 20th at 11:00 p.m. On HD3-1, it airs Saturday September 20th at 9:00 p.m. and Monday, September 29th at 11:00 a.m. and 4:30 p.m.

Penguins: Spy in the Huddle

The life of a penguin is not an easy one, but recording the challenges faced by nature's most devoted parents and their offspring was nearly as hard.

For nearly a year, filmmakers deployed 50 animatronic cameras disguised as realistic life-size penguins, eggs, and rocks to infiltrate the colonies of three very different species: emperor penguins in Antarctica, rockhopper penguins (left) on the Falkland Islands, and Humboldt penguins in Peru's Atacama Desert. The resulting footage shows what it is really like to be a penguin from a whole new perspective.

Take a front row seat as they journey to their breeding grounds, raise chicks, dodge predators, and return to the sea when "Penguins: Spy in the Huddle," a three-part series, premieres on Nature.

"Penguins: Spy in the Huddle" on Nature airs Wednesdays at 7:00 p.m. beginning September 24th for three weeks, and repeats Saturdays at 11:00 p.m. On HD3-1, it airs Wednesdays at 7:00 p.m. beginning September 24th and repeats Thursdays at 7:00 a.m. and 12:00 noon, and Saturdays at 11:00 p.m.

FRONTLINE

BIGGER THAN VEGAS

In "Bigger Than Vegas," Frontline investigates the explosive growth of Macau as the gambling capital of the world, and how major American casinos conduct business there. Correspondent Lowell Bergman, in collaboration with the Investigative Reporting Program at U.C. Berkeley, shows how hundreds of billions of dollars make their way to Macau's gaming tables, despite China's currency controls, and how, in some cases, Chinese mobsters are part of the action.

"Bigger Than Vegas" on Frontline will be broadcast Tuesday, September 30th at 10:00 p.m. It will air again on both 3-2 and HD3-1 in October.

James McNeill Whistler & The Case for Beauty

An artistic visionary, James McNeill Whistler (1834–1903) introduced ideas and forms that were avant-garde for his time. James McNeill Whistler & The Case for Beauty examines the life of the man and the course of his career. Actor Kevin Kline is the voice of Whistler.

The film takes a look at how the 19th-Century artist pioneered a new way of thinking about art that supported beauty in and of itself, what we know today as "art for art's sake." This breakaway style moved painting towards abstraction during his time and paved the way for what became known as modern art in the 20th-Century.

The film features nearly 200 etchings, paintings, and historical photographs, including "Arrangement in Grey and Black No.1"—popularly known as "Whistler's Mother."

James McNeill Whistler & The Case for Beauty airs Friday, September 12th at 9:00 p.m. and Monday, September 15th at 10:00 p.m. On HD3-1, it airs Friday, September 12th at 8:00 p.m. and Saturday, September 13th at 9:00 p.m.

The Silent Majority

Drugs and alcohol rank as the numberone health issue for American teens, killing more young people than all traffic accidents combined. Yet, a surprising truth lies behind these disheartening statistics: more than 70% of teens actually make good choices about drugs and alcohol, debunking the myth that most teens participate in the partying culture.

The Silent Majority gives some surprising answers as to what teens want and their desire to stay drug, alcohol, and tobacco free. The film highlights four unique programs focused on education, prevention, and intervention that empower them to do the right thing and change their lives forever.

The Silent Majority will be broadcast Thursday, September 18th at 7:00 p.m. and Saturday, September 20th at 10:00 p.m. On HD3-1, it airs Monday, September 15th at 9:00 p.m. and Monday, September 22nd at 11:00 a.m. and 4:30 p.m.

Enemy of the Reich: The Noor Inayat Khan Story

For four crucial months, Noor Inayat Khan was the only surviving radio operator in Paris, calling in the air-drop of weapons and supplies, and coordinating the rescue of downed allied fliers. In August of 1943 everything depended on her—and the Gestapo was at the door!

With an American mother and Indian Muslim father, Noor grew up in Paris in a Sufi center of learning, a place of universal peace and contemplation that forged her remarkable courage, as told in Enemy of the Reich: The Noor Inayat Khan Story.

Ultimately betrayed by a French collaborator, Noor was interrogated for months by the Gestapo. She never gave up any information, not even her real name, and she organized two breakouts from Gestapo head-quarters. She was executed in Dachau. 2014 marks the 100th anniversary of her birth.

Enemy of the Reich: The Noor Inayat Khan Story airs Tuesday, September 9th at 7:00 p.m. and Tuesday, September 16th at 10:00 p.m. On HD3-1, it airs Tuesday, September 9th at 7:00 p.m. and Wednesday, September 10th at 6:00 a.m. and 12:00 noon.

POV

After Tiller

"After Tiller" on P.O.V. is a probing portrait of the four doctors in the United States still openly performing third-trimester abortions in the wake of the 2009 assassination of Dr. George Tiller in Wichita, Kansas—and in the face of intense protest from abortion opponents. It is also an examination of the desperate reasons women seek late abortions. The film (which was an official selection of the 2013 Sundance Festival) presents the complexities of these women's difficult decisions and the compassion and ethical dilemmas of the doctors and staff who fear for their own lives as they treat their patients.

"After Tiller" on P.O.V. can be seen Monday, September 1st at 9:00 p.m. On HD3-1, it airs Monday, September 1st at 8:00 p.m. and Tuesday, September 2nd at 7:00 a.m. and 1:00 p.m.

"Summers End" by Marian Steele, 1978

The Genius of Marian

"The Genius of Marian" on P.O.V. is an intimate portrait of the tragedy of Alzheimer's disease, the power of art, and the meaning of family.

The film follows Pam

White in the early stages of Alzheimer's disease. Her son, the filmmaker, works with her as she attempts to write a book that pays tribute to her mother, the renowned artist Marian Steele, who had Alzheimer's herself and died in 2001. As Pam's family comes together to support her, they must also prepare for the new reality that Alzheimer's disease brings.

"The Genius of Marian" on P.O.V. will be broadcast Monday, September 8th at 9:00 p.m. On HD3-1, it airs Monday, September 8th at 8:00 p.m. and Tuesday, September 9th at 7:00 a.m. and 1:00 p.m.

The Mystery of Agatha Christie

with David Suchet

David Suchet, TV's Poirot, has spent more of his life acting out the dramas created by Agatha Christie than anyone else in the world. In The Mystery of Agatha Christie, he embarks on a journey to learn more about the woman who created Poirot and whose books remain outsold only by the Bible and Shakespeare.

Suchet journeys to the places that Christie lived, the landscapes that inspired her, and to encounters with people who knew the woman behind the fame. He explores the close links between Christie's extraordinary life and her work, and discovers what it was about the woman from a small seaside town that allowed her to become the best-selling murder mystery writer in history.

The Mystery of Agatha Christie with David Suchet will be broadcast Sunday, September 28th at 9:30 p.m. on both 3-2 and HD3-1.

NET-IQUETTE

Predators find children where children are going to be.

Nine in ten (93%) teens have a computer or have access to one at home. Net-iquette is part of a media campaign to help youth, parents, and educators understand the potential dangers associated with use of the internet, from stalking and cyber-bullying to sext-ing and future employment issues.

Today's youth (digital natives) have grown up in a cyber world that is seamlessly integrated with our daily lives. Most parents and other adults (digital immigrants) are not completely familiar with all the various internet apps, tools, and sites that allow people to connect in good and bad ways. Often, children are more comfortable in that world than the adults who are supposed to look out for them. While we teach our youth the etiquette of various social interactions, many adults don't understand enough to give them guidelines for the on-line world This program is designed to help.

Net-iquette airs Friday, September 5th at 9:00 p.m. and Sunday, September 7th at 10:00 a.m. On HD3-1, it airs Friday, September 5th at 9:00 p.m., Wednesday, September 17th at 11:00 a.m. and 4:30 p.m., and Sunday, September 21st at 3:00 p.m.

FLEECED

Speaking Out Against Senior Financial Abuse

Nearly 7.3 million older Americans—one in five adults over age 65—have fallen victim to various scams and predatory lending practices, including identity theft, reverse mortgages, pyramid schemes, sweepstakes, "good-faith" payments, and bank "advances." Financial losses resulting from the bilking of older adults total $2.9 billion a year.

Fleeced: Speaking Out Against Senior Financial Abuse is a hard-hitting documentary that illuminates both the legal and illegal businesses that prey upon vulnerable senior populations. The film seeks to raise awareness about this silent crime through the real-life experiences of older adults, individuals who have transformed themselves from victims to powerful advocates.

Fleeced: Speaking Out Against Senior Financial Abuse can be seen Monday, September 8th at 10:30 p.m., Friday September 12th at 11:30 p.m., and Monday, September 22nd at 5:00 p.m. On HD3-1, it airs Thursday, September 25th at 6:30 a.m.

Secrets of Westminster

Today, Westminster stands as a monument to a fair and open political system. But was this always the case? Secrets of Westminster goes inside its gothic walls to discover the hidden worlds of the House of Commons and the House of Lords, where back-stabbing, intrigue, and traditions are the order of the day.

Westminster Abbey, the world famous church, is steeped in Anglo-Saxon myth and legend, royal extortion, and dead people. More than 3,000 great men and women have been buried or memorialized here over the ages. It has hosted the coronation of every king and queen of England since 1066, as well as 16 royal weddings. Today, the building is still a church dedicated to regular worship.

Secrets of Westminster will be broadcast Sunday, September 7th at 7:00 p.m. and 11:00 p.m. on both 3-2 and HD3-1. On HD3-1, it repeats Thursday, September 11th at 11:00 a.m. and 4:30 p.m.

Inspired by Timothy Egan's best-selling book, "The Big Burn" on American Experience is the dramatic story of the massive wildfire that swept across the Northern Rockies in the summer of 1910. The fire devoured more than three million acres in 36 hours, confronting the fledgling U.S. Forest Service with a catastrophe that would define the agency and the nation's fire policy for much of the 20th century. As America tries to manage its fire-prone landscapes in the 21st century, "The Big Burn" provides a cautionary tale of heroism and sacrifice, arrogance and greed, hubris and, ultimately, humility, in the face of nature's frightening power.

For the first time on film, His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales reveals an extraordinary treasure trove of rarely seen art by members of the royal family, past and present. Shot in the spectacular landscapes of Balmoral, Highgrove, Windsor Castle, Frogmore, and Osborne House, The Royal Paintbox features art by members of the royal family down the centuries, including some of HRH the Prince of Wales' own watercolors.

KENW-TV Celebrates 40 Years, 1974 —2014

On September 1st, 1974, KENW-TV, Public Television for Eastern New Mexico and West Texas went on the air as Channel 3. The Portales News Tribune announced, "Public television, as almost everybody knows by now, is coming to Portales, and to use the contemporary parlance, PBS – the Public Broadcasting System – is a mind blower."

Now, 40 years later, KENW-TV is still on the air and we're celebrating our 40th Anniversary. Our celebration will begin with an Open House and Reception to be held Saturday, September 27th from 4:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. at the Broadcast Center on the campus of Eastern New Mexico University in Portales. This event coincides with the University's 80th Anniversary Homecoming, and it will be a time to remember the students and staff who have passed through the Broadcast Center over the years. We look forward to showcasing our new state-of-the-art broadcast facility by offering tours of the facility to everyone.

You, your family, and friends are cordially invited to join us for our 40th Anniversary celebration. The Reception will be held in Studio "A" of the Broadcast Center, located at 1450 S. Ave. N in Portales. There will be delicious birthday cake, cold and hot beverages, a nostalgic display of memorabilia, and lots of "I remember whens...". We hope you will join us and share some of your own special recollections, as well.
