1.2 Major Programming Decision Makers

Jump to question: 1.2

Please report by gender and ethnic or racial group the headcount of full-time employees having responsibility for making major programming decisions. Include the station general manager if appropriate. Major programming decisions include decisions about program acquisition and production, program development, on-air program scheduling, etc. This item should result in a double-counting of some full-time employees; employees having the responsibility for making major programming decisions should be included in the counts for this item and again, by job category above, in the full-time employee Question 1.1.

4.1 Local Community Outreach In what local community outreach or educational activities has your station been involved this year that supports unserved or underserved audiences? Please describe in detail: outcomes, audience served, community response. Jump to question: 4.1

Throughout 2015 we held 4 community events celebrating the arts and music in Lubbock. These events involved performances, interviews, and short films that documented artists in the viewing region and how/why they create. The events were free to the public. We held 7 Kid's Club events covering topics on safety, reading, dino days, summer safari, and a Kid's Appreciation Day. Each event was free and open to the public. We held a screening event around the PBS program, 'The Brain' designated a teacher's appreciation night. We also held a teacher awards night giving away 4 outstanding teacher awards to teachers who work in the most impoverished neighborhoods in Lubbock. All events serviced over 5,000 people, response has led to more donations and higher fundraising drives, a greater knowledge of our station within the community. At every event we give out surveys that help inform us of our impact, the quality of our events, and people's familiarity with our station.

4.2 Production Activity In what production activity has you station been involved that supports unserved or underserved audiences? Jump to question: 4.2

For the last year KTTZ-TV has been working on a documentary covering the East Lubbock Promise Neighborhood grant, a federal initiative that awards millions of dollars for school and neighborhood revitalization. The overall documentary will be completed sometime in the future but two minute interstitials have aired hundreds of times covering different aspects of the revitalization process. 24 Frames is our bi-monthly documentary program that covers art, culture and music. We've featured many minority artists and told stories of relevance to underserved communities including segments on Mexican American artists and African American musicians and artists.

4.3 Program Content in Other Languages Do you provide program content in languages other than English? If so, please list your services in this area No Jump to question: 4.3

4.4 Governance Structure Please describe your station's governance structure. Please include information about your station's Board of Directors, Advisory Boards or Panels, Community Boards or Panels, and the Committee Structure under each of these entities. Your response should include but is not limited to: What are the direct and indirect reporting relationships? What committees are active and what is their function? Does your Board have an Audit and Finance Committee? What are the roles and responsibilities of these Boards, Panels and/or Committees? Etc. Jump to question: 4.4

University Licensed. Station General Manager reports to Managing Director of Texas Tech University who reports to the President who reports to the Board of Regents who act as the board for the station. An Ambassadorship committee is currently being assembled that will address station activity across education, arts, science and community organizations.

4.5 Community Outreach CPB is interested in learning more about stations' significant activities planned for the upcoming year - both broadcast and beyond broadcast. What types of on-air programs and off-air activities are you planning in the upcoming year that will connect your station more closely with your community? What goals are you setting in conjunction with these initiatives, and how will you measure your success? Jump to question: 4.5

KTTZ-TV has already hosted a screening of Stanley Nelson's Black Panthers: Vanguard of the Revolution, and has a screening planned for Ken Burns' Jackie Robinson in April. We plan on producing spots highlighting African American history for PBS Learning Media. We started a monthly documentary series at the local Alamo Drafthouse that will feature stories of social justice and change, and have already featured Indie Lens pop up screenings. We continue or kid's club events and already have 6 scheduled for this calendar year. We are holding a Downtown Abbey Series Finale screening event, and we have 4, 24 Frames Events covering music and art in Lubbock scheduled for 2016. We've launched a PBS Digital Series called "Global Weirding" which looks at climate change through the lens of politics, science and religion, hosted by world renowned climate scientist Katharine Hayhoe. We've bolstered our online presence with fundraising done heavily through online media and digital videos. Our goals are to raise more money from different demographics and to educate our community on all of the benefits a PBS station provides for the city offering content that covers, education, climate change, arts, and music. We've created surveys and are doing data analysis on building a sustainer program that can grow as well as surveys for each of our events that let us know how people feel about what we do and provide to them. Measurement of results will be done through survey responses, fundraising dollar amounts, as well as our ambassador board who will act as community liaisons and give us anecdotal evidence of what impact or non-impact we are having in our community. We have qualitative and quantitative data projects that look at our social media reach as well as our in person events.
