

U.S. Senate:

Chief Wana Dubie – Democrat
Cori Bush – Democrat
Jason Kander – Democrat
Robert Mack - Democrat

Roy Blunt – Republican
Kristi Nichols – Republican
Bernie Mowinski – Republican
Ryan D Luethy – Republican

Jonathan Dine – Libertarian
Herschel L. Young - Libertarian

U.S. House of Representatives:

Genevieve (Gen) Williams – Democrat
Camille Lombardi-Olive – Democrat
Steven Reed – Democrat

Billy Long - Republican
Christopher Batsche- Republican
Matthew Evans - Republican
Lyndle Spencer - Republican
Nathan Clay Bradham - Republican
Matt Canovi - Republican
James Nelson - Republican
Mary Byrne – Republican

There are over 30 combined state senate and state house seats from southwest Missouri on this year's primary ballot, with many candidates unopposed. The contested races on Tuesday are as follows:

State Senate:

District 31 (Cass, Bates, Henry, Veron, Barton counties)

Ed Emery - Republican
Bill Yarberrry – Republican

State House of Representatives:

District 128 (Polk, Cedar counties)

Roy Harms - Republican
Mike Stephens - Republican
Rick Vance - Republican

District 132 (Springfield)

Crystal Quade – Democrat
Bob Sweere – Democrat

Thomas Quinn – Republican
Tyler Hobbs – Republican

District 133 (Springfield)

Curtis D. Trent – Republican
Matthew Sims – Republican
David Cort – Republican
Mike Goodart – Republican

District 137 (Greene, Webster counties)

Jake Myers – Republican
Lyndall Fraker – Republican

District 141 (Webster, Wright counties)

Stan Coday – Republican
Hannah Kelly – Republican

District 143 (Shannon, Dent, Oregon counties)

Bobby Simpson – Republican
Jeffrey Pogue – Republican

District 155 (Douglas, Ozark, Taney counties)

Mike Lind – Republican
Lyle Rowland – Republican

District 163 (Jasper County)

Bill Birkes – Republican
Cody Smith – Republican
Steve Leibbrand – Republican