

Bandit Is Caught After Fleeing From Boulder Bank With $2,660

Nehru And Bulganin Agree On Nuclear Weapons Ban

Two Premiers Also Call For Sizeable Arms Cut, International Control

MOSCOW — The premiers of Russia and India came out jointly Thursday for a ban on nuclear weapons, a U. N. seat for Communist China and the surrender of Formosa to the Chinese Reds.

The declaration was signed Wednesday night by India's prime Minister Nehru and Soviet Premier Bulganin, and published Thursday morning at the end of Nehru's 17-day visit to the Soviet Union. The statement contained little that the two men or their governments had not said before. But it was the first time they had said it together.

Nehru and Bulganin called also for a "simultaneous and substantial reduction of conventional armaments" with "effective international control." They cited the recent Soviet disarmament proposals as a "substantial contribution to peace."

Nehru Leaves For Warsaw

The document was published less than three hours before Nehru boarded a plane for Warsaw to spend three days before pushing on to Belgrade, Vienna, Rome and London.

The crowds which lined the streets this morning to see Nehru off numbered far less than the estimated million which turned out for his arrival in the Soviet capital.

Nehru was accompanied to the airport by Bulganin, Soviet Communist party chief Nikita S. Khrushchev, Deputy Premier Georgi Malenkov, Defense Minister Georgi Zhukov and other Soviet leaders.

Bidding the Indian leader farewell, Bulganin hailed the joint document as "a solid basis for further development between our two countries and as an example to the rest of the world of peaceful coexistence."

In addition to championing Red China's cause and echoing Russia's disarmament ideas, the declaration:

Eight-Point Declaration

1. Reaffirmed the five principles of international coexistence which Nehru drew up with Red Chinese Premier Chou En-lai at their conference last year and which Yugoslav President Tito later espoused.

2. Urged full implementation of the Indochina armistice provisions calling for elections to unify North and South Viet Nam in July, 1955.
3. Called for admission to the U. N. of "all states which are qualified for membership in terms of the charter."

4. Acclaimed the results of the Asian-African conference at Bandung, Indonesia last April.

5. Welcomed the advent of Australian independence.

6. Noted "signs of improvement in the general international situation" and "lessening of tension in the Far East" but warned that the causes of friction still remained in the Far East. Red China's failure to get Formosa and a U. N. seat were the only causes cited.

7. Agreed to promote and strengthen economic, cultural and scientific relations between India and Russia.

8. Hailed improvement of relations between Russia and Yugoslavia.

(In Washington, the State Department said it would have no immediate comment on the Nehru-Bulganin declaration.)

Threatens Teller With Nitroglycerin

Robber Surrenders After Chase; Identifies Self As Ex-Convict

Armed with a bottle which he said contained nitroglycerin, a robber fled from Boulder's National State Bank with $2,660 in cash this afternoon. Police caught him within five minutes less than two blocks away.

The bandit, who identified himself as a 71-year-old ex-convict who has served seven prison terms, surrendered without resistance.

The money was stuffed inside his shirt. The bottle, six and one-half inches long and one and one-half inches in diameter, with the lid taped on, was in a pocket. Officers could not tell immediately whether the liquid actually was nitroglycerin.

The robber gave his name as Paul Johanna Schewe, alias Henry Schaefer, of 322 12th St., in Denver.

Hands Note To Teller

He entered the bank at the southwest corner of 13th and Pearl streets at 1:05 p. m. and went to the third teller's window where H. W. Stratton, of 3990 Broadway, was on duty.

Without saying anything, the man handed a note to the teller. It said:

"Hand over all your stacks of $10, $20, $50 and $100 bills. Do not step on alarm for five minutes after I clear bank or I will dash this nitroglycerin. It will kill everyone within 12 feet. I am ready to die if I fail."

Stratton complied and, as the robber left the bank, notified Charles L. Sayre, vice president of the bank.

Chase Starts

Sayre telephoned the sheriff's office and then he and others gave chase.

The bandit ran south on 13th street to the alley between Pearl and Walnut streets; west in that alley to a north-south alley at the rear of the Public Service Company office and beside the Albany hotel; east on Walnut to 13th, and south on 13th to the alley behind the Watts-Hardy Dairy; and hid between two automobiles near the railroad tracks.

Banker Sayre was running down Water street when he met Police Sgt. Charles R. Prewitt and Patrolman Raymond McMaster in a patrol car at 13th and Water.

Lineman Sees Man

As Prewitt got out of the car, Elmer (Buck) Harris, of 534 Dewey, a Public Service Company lineman who was atop a pole near the intersection, called:

"He's right down there between two cars."

As Prewitt and McMaster approached, the man came from between the cars with his hands raised and saying:

"I'm your man, I'm through." Sgt. Prewitt "frisked" him, found the money and bottle of liquid, and took him to police headquarters in the city hall a block away.

Other Officers Join

Reaching the scene just after Prewitt and McMaster were Police Detectives Roy Hill and Willard Spier, who were in the sheriff's office at the courthouse when the call came in, and Deputy Sheriff Wray Andrews.

At police headquarters, Chief Myron M. Teegarden and K. J. Bridenstine, local agent for the Federal Bureau of Investigation, joined in the investigation.

Robbery of any national bank or any bank covered by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation is a federal offense.

Schewe said he was born in Germany on May 3, 1884, and came to the United States in 1903. He told the officers he served in the U.S. Army from 1909 to 1912, and was in prison during World War I and World War II. He said he had

BOULDER BANK ROBBER CAUGHT — A bandit who fled from the National State Bank with $2,660 in cash is shown in police headquarters with officers a few minutes after his capture about 1:15 p. m. today. Left to right are Police Sgt. Charles R. Prewitt; the robber who identified himself as Paul Johanna Schewe, 71, of Denver; and Police Detectives Roy Hill and Willard Spier. Hill holds a bottle of liquid which Schewe said was nitroglycerin, used to threaten the bank teller.

Diplomats Feel Molotov May Have Hurt Own 'Peace Drive' In Wednesday's Speech

SAN FRANCISCO — Western diplomats said privately Thursday that Russia's V. M. Molotov may have dealt an unintentional blow to his own peace offensive by raising anew all the major Cold War issues.

Some small countries were plainly disappointed, but one Western diplomat expressed belief the U. N.'s anniversary meeting needed something like Molotov's speech Wednesday to hold it back to reality.

Of the 30 delegates who had addressed the meeting, most voiced optimism that the end of the Cold War might be in sight at last. While all agreed that tension certainly has diminished, a few Western leaders felt that some were hoping for too much.

There was little public comment on the Soviet foreign minister's speech.

It was almost certain, however, that Molotov would get a blast from Nationalist China's Foreign Minister George Yeh on his demands that Red China be seated in the U. N. and that Formosa be handed over to the Peiping regime. Yeh was to speak late Thursday.

Among the first to comment was Belgian Foreign Minister Paul-Henri Spaak, who said:

"The entire tone was conciliatory and the speech is certainly worthy of the West's attention."

Others said privately, however, they felt Molotov would have been much more effective if he had stuck to his peace bid and omitted any reference to controversial issues. They also felt he made a mistake in blaming the West for the Cold War.

Brig. Gen. Carlos P. Romulo of (Continued On Page Seven)

Whole Cabinet Resigns To Give Place To Reorganize Government

the mandate of the sovereign people."

Statements pledging loyalty to Peron were issued Wednesday by the six-million-member General Labor Confederation (CGT), the President's chief political bulwark, and by both the men's and women's Peronista parties.

The roundup of rumormongers followed repeated statements by Lucero that numerous false reports were circulating and should be ignored.

Federal police announced 14 persons were arrested for spreading untruths in Buenos Aires province, which surrounds the capital city but does not include it.

The pro-government newspaper La Epoca reported at least six arrests in the capital, one of them turned over to police by a taxi driver and another by a barber. The Supreme Court released after two hours. The Americans were Life magazine photographer Hank Walker and Time magazine reporter Phillip Payne, both of Washington, D. C.; Jeff Sabin, TV photographer of NBC, New York, and NBC's Buenos Aires correspondent, Bob Lindley.

Walker said they were treated courteously and served coffee but that the police seized two rolls of film from him and one roll from Sabin.

Convicted Smith Act Violators Sentenced To Prison And Fined

DENVER — Prison terms $30,000 for Bary, $25,000 for Mrs. Bary, $20,000 for Mrs. Blau and fines of from $1,500 to $5,000 for Johnson, $15,000 for Zenzlin that the two men or their governments had not said before. But it was the first time they had said it together.

Nehru and Bulganin called also for a "simultaneous and substantial reduction of conventional armaments" with "effective international control." They cited the recent Soviet disarmament proposals as a "substantial contribution to peace."

Nehru Leaves For Warsaw
The document was published less than three hours before Nehru boarded a plane for Warsaw to spend three days before pushing on to Belgrade, Vienna, Rome and London.

The crowds which lined the streets this morning to see Nehru off numbered far less than the estimated million which fanned out for his arrival in the Soviet capital.
Nehru was accompanied to the airport by Bulganin, Soviet Communist party chief Nikita S.
Khrushchev, Deputy Premier Georgi Malenkov, Defense Minister Georgi Zhukov and other Soviet leaders.
Bidding the Indian leader farewell, Bulganin hailed the joint document as "a solid basis for further development between our two countries and as an example to the rest of the world of peaceful coexistence."

In addition to championing Red China's cause and echoing Russia's disarmament ideas, the declaration:
Eight-Point Declaration
1. Reaffirmed the five principles of international coexistence which Nehru drew up with Red Chinese Premier Chou En-lai at their conference last year and which Yugoslav President Tito later espoused.

Whole Cabinet Resigns To Give Chance To Reorganize Government

Well in-Thursday all ent Peron's their resign-of permit-his governs of mili-
ort, Peron en against throw him revolt and ing rumors ent rumor nkin Luc-
on as Ara govern-Wednesday
would post-revolt theftain of a broad-the Presi-mander forces."
he troops
manently Story on nd Park structure
Washington
pleted.
receive the high for next tion pro-value of ations of

6. Noted "signs of improvement" (Bulgianin declaration.)

BOULDER BANK ROBBER CAUGHT — A bandit who fled from the National State Bank with $2,660 in cash is shown in police headquarters with officers a few minutes after his capture about 1:15 p.m. today. Left to right are Police Sgt. Charles R. Prewitt; the robber who identified himself as Paul Johanna Schewe, 71, of Denver; and Police Detectives Roy Hill and Willard Spier. Hill holds a bottle of liquid which Schewe said was nitroglycerin, used to threaten the bank teller.

Diplomats Feel Molotov May Have Hurt Own 'Peace Drive' In Wednesday's Speech

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Western diplomats said privately Thursday that Russia's V. M. Molotov may have dealt an unintentional blow to his own peace offensive by raising anew all the major Cold War issues.
Some small countries were plainly disappointed, but one Western diplomat expressed belief the U.
N.'s anniversary meeting needed something like Molotov's speech Wednesday to hold it back to reality.
Of the 30 delegates who had addressed the meeting, most voiced optimism that the end of the Cold War might be in sight at last.
While all agreed that tension certainly has diminished, a few Western leaders felt that some were hoping for too much.
There was little public comment on the Soviet foreign minister's speech.
It was almost certain, however, that the police seized two rolls of film from him and one roll from Minister George Yeh on his demands that Red China be seated in the U. N. and that Formosa be handed over to the Peiping regime.

Yeh was to speak late Thursday.
Among the first to comment was Belgian Foreign Minister Paul-Henri Spaak, who said:
"The entire tone was conciliatory and the speech is certainly worthy of the West's attention."
Others said privately, however, they felt Molotov would have been much more effective if he had stuck to his peace bid and omitted any reference to controversial issues. They also felt he made a mistake in blaming the West for the Cold War.
Brig. Gen. Carlos P. Romulo of (Continued On Page Seven)

Convicted Smith Act Violators Sentenced To Prison And Fined

DENVER (AP) — Prison terms ranging from two to five years and fines from $1,500 to $5,000 were assessed in U. S. District Court Thursday against seven regional Communist party leaders convicted of Smith Act violations.
A jury convicted them guilty of conspiring to advocate violent throw of the government.
The defendants and penalties:
Arthur Bary, 43, regional Communist chairman, five years and $5,000; Anna Bary, 30, his wife, Colorado chairman, four years and $3,000; Patricia J. Blau, 43, ex-Colorado party official, four years and $7,000; Lewis M. Johnson, 34, Utah chairman, four years and $3,000; Harold Zepelin, 29, former acting Colorado chairman, three years and $2,000; Joseph W.
Scherrer, 35, party leader in Puerto Rico, three years and $2,000; Maia Scherrer, 36, his wife, also a Puerto Rico leader, 2½ years and $1,500.
The sentences were passed by U. S. Dist. Judge Jean S. Breitenstein. Attorneys for the defendants moved immediately to appeal the case to the U. S. 10th Court of Appeals.
Breitenstein set appeal bonds at

SUED BY HIS GRANDMOTHER
Four-year-old Teddy Levy of Los Angeles shows his brother Sandy how he leaped from the top of a davenport and landed on his grandmother, an event that sent her to the hospital. The grandmother, Mrs. Ann Rubin, has filed suit for $150,000 against Teddy, his parents and an insurance company, claiming fracture of several vertebrae. Teddy's parents, who call him "The Terror," say he likes to play Superman.

west corner of 13th and Pearl streets at 1:05 p. m. and went to the third-teller's window where H.
W. Stratton, of 3990 Broadway, was on duty.

Without saying anything, the man handed a note to the teller. It said:

"Hand over all your stacks of $10, $20, $50 and $100 bills. Do not step on alarm for five minutes after I clear bank or I will dash this nitroglycerin. It will kill everyone within 12 feet. I am ready to die if I fail."

Stratton complied and, as the robber left the bank, notified Charles L. Sayre, vice president of the bank.

Chase Starts

Sayre telephoned the sheriff's office and then he and others gave chase.

The bandit ran south on 13th street to the alley between Pearl and Walnut streets; west in that alley to a north-south alley at the rear of the Public Service Company office and beside the Albany hotel; east on Walnut to 13th, and south on 13th to the alley behind the Watts-Hardy Dairy; and hid between two automobiles near the railroad tracks.

Banker Sayre was running down Water street when he met Police Sgt. Charles R. Prewitt and Patrolman Raymond McMaster in a patrol car at 13th and Water.

Lineman Sees Man

As Prewitt got out of the car, Elmer (Buck) Harris, of 534 Dewey, a Public Service Company lineman who was atop a pole near the intersection, called:

"He's right down there between two cars."

As Prewitt and McMaster approached, the man came from between the cars with his hands raised and saying:

"I'm your man. I'm through."
Sgt. Prewitt "frisked" him, found the money and bottle of liquid, and took him to police headquarters in the city hall a block away.

Other Officers Join

Reaching the scene just after Prewitt and McMaster were Police Detectives Roy Hill and Willard Spier, who were in the sheriff's office at the courthouse when the call came in, and Deputy Sheriff Wray Andrews.

At police headquarters, Chief Myron M. Teegarden and K. J. Bridenstine, local agent for the Federal Bureau of Investigation, joined in the investigation.

Robbery of any national bank or any bank covered by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation is a federal offense.

Schewe said he was born in Germany on May 3, 1884, and came to the United States in 1903. He told the officers he served in the U. S.
Army from 1909 to 1912, and was in prison during World War I and World War II. He said he has served two terms in the Colorado penitentiary at Canon City and recently completed a 17-year
"stretch" in South Dakota.

Further questioning was under way.

Chief Teegarden said that in his long years of police work in Boulder he does not recall any previous bank robbery or bank burglary here. Records may show whether this was the first such crime in Boulder's history.

Sunken Sub; Tomb Of 13 Men, Is Raised

PORTLAND, England (AP) — The Royal Navy submarine Sidon, sunken tomb of 13 men, was brought to the surface Thursday and made fast to the depot ship Maidstone.

The sub sank seven days ago after a practice torpedo exploded within her hull. The 13 victims included 12 members of the crew and a Navy doctor who went aboard after the blast to aid the injured.
Other crew members escaped.

