

BILL GARDNER
SECRETARY OF STATE
STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

July 14, 2017

*Andrea -
These are the two young lawyers
we talked about earlier.
Eric will be the one for the first meeting.
But, Bill*

Adrian S. LaRochelle

Adrian LaRochelle is an attorney with the New Hampshire Department of State where he has represented the Department in both legal and legislative activities since 2011. Additionally, Adrian often assists the Department in the administration of both state and federal elections. Before working for the Department, Adrian taught computer programming and design in Baltimore, Maryland. Adrian holds a B.A. in Computer Science and Religious Studies from Colby College in Waterville, Maine and a J.D. from the University of New Hampshire School of Law. Adrian has been licensed to practice law in New Hampshire state court and federal court since May of 2011.

Eric A. Forcier

Eric Forcier is an attorney who has worked for the New Hampshire Department of State for the past seven years. Eric holds a Bachelor's Degree from the University of New Hampshire with a dual major in Business Administration and Economics and a J.D. from New England Law. Eric has been a member of the New Hampshire Bar since 2010 and his work for the State of New Hampshire includes securities investigations and enforcement with the New Hampshire's Bureau of Securities Regulation and assisting the Department of State with state and federal elections.
