

REDISCOVER UPR with NEW PROGRAMS beginning AUGUST 10

Ask Me Another – Saturday 10-11am

NPR's exciting new show featuring puzzles, word games and trivia played in front of a live audience. Ask Me Another is a co-production of NPR and WNYC.

BackStory – Sunday 1-2pm

BackStory brings historical perspective to the events happening around us today. On each show, renowned U.S. historians Ed Ayers, Peter Onuf, and Brian Balogh tear a topic from the headlines and plumb its historical depths. Over the course of the hour, they are joined by fellow historians, people in the news, and callers interested in exploring the roots of what's going on today.

BBC The Arts Hour – Saturday 2-3pm

Host Nikki Bedi curates and presents what's exciting and new in music, television, books, film and global culture. Recent guests include Toni Morrison, Sandra Bullock, and Jake Gyllenhaal.

BBC Assignment – Monday 2-2:30pm

Assignment tells the world's stories from the point of view of those most affected by them – the victims, the witnesses – and the perpetrators. Compelling, real, resonating. Assignment delves into life-changing topics that affect us all, on some level.

BBC Business Daily & BBC Witness – Monday through Friday 2:30-3pm

Described as the daily drama of work and money, Business Daily examines topics like cybercrime, European economics, and the complexities of defining the fruits of labor.

Witness looks at key events in history through the eyes of those who witnessed them.

BBC The Conversation – Wednesday 2-2:30pm

Success stories from two women from two different cultures on the passions that have shaped their lives. Originally from a smallish town called Kwe-Kwe in Zimbabwe, host Kim Chakanetsa brings a worldly perspective to discussions about women's contributions in society.

BBC Discovery – Friday 2-2:30pm

Discovery explores today's most significant scientific discoveries and talks to the scientists behind them. The sounds of deep space, red giants and white dwarfs, and comet images come to life in the words of those most passionate about them.

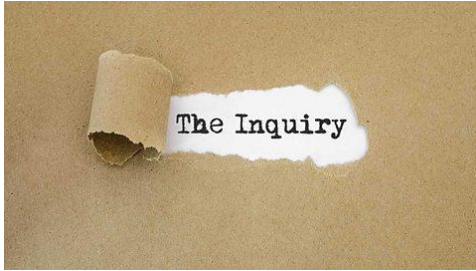

BBC The Forum – Sunday 5-6pm

Bridget Kendall hosts a discussion show that tackles the big questions of our age with some of the world's most eminent minds. From the power of the human voice to the fragmentation of global politics, The Forum explores ever-intriguing ideas, and some that drive us wild, like surprising uses for Belgian chocolates.

BBC The Inquiry – Tuesday 2-2:30pm

Experts analyze a pressing question from the news. Is streaming good for music? What does China's stock market crash tell us? Will young musicians become extinct? One hundred students in one classroom: Why is South Africa still so unequal? These are some of the current topics probed by The Inquiry, where experts help us understand the world a little better.

BBC Trending – Thursday 2-2:30pm

What's popular and why? Trending is a show in which the BBC bureau reports on the internet. What's being shared and why does it matter? Tune-in to Trending to gauge the pulse of the online world, and perhaps learn a bit more about what motivates people today.

Beethoven Satellite Network – Available full time on HD2 and overnight on UPR main channel

Beethoven Network provides classical music curated from WFMT's extensive library of more than 85,000 recordings.

Behind the Headlines – Friday 9-10am and 7-8pm

Join Salt Lake Tribune reporter Jennifer Napier-Pearce for a weekly roundtable discussion with Utah's top journalists. UPR is pleased to present and contribute to this timely and detailed discussion of important issues to Utah citizens.

Bullseye – Saturday 1-2pm

Bullseye celebrates what's good in popular culture. With a keen editorial eye, Bullseye brings you hot culture picks, in-depth interviews with the most revered and revolutionary creative people and irreverent original comedy.

Here & Now – Weekdays 11am-1pm

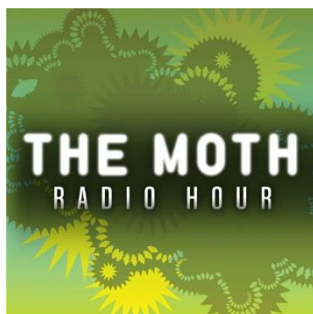

A live production of NPR and WBUR Boston, in collaboration with public radio stations across the country, Here & Now reflects the fluid world of news as it's happening in the middle of the day, with timely, smart and in-depth news, interviews and conversation.

Live Wire! – Saturday 5-6pm

Live Wire! is recorded in front of a live audience at the Aladdin Theatre in Portland, Oregon. The show features music, scintillating conversations, sketch comedy and performances from the famous and fascinating to the unknown and unabashed.

The Moth – Saturday 6-7pm

Moth storytellers stand alone, under a spotlight, with only a microphone and a roomful of strangers. The storyteller and the audience embark on a high-wire act of shared experience which is both terrifying and exhilarating.

Philosophy Talk – Tuesday at 4am

Philosophy Talk celebrates the value of the examined life. Each week, philosophers host a conversation on a wide variety of issues ranging from popular culture to our most deeply-held beliefs about science, morality, and the human condition. Philosophy Talk challenges listeners to identify and question their assumptions and to think about things in new ways. Dedicated to reasoned conversation and driven by human curiosity, the show is accessible, intellectually stimulating, and most of all, fun!

q from CBC – Weekdays 1-2pm

q is an energetic daily arts, culture and entertainment program featuring in-depth conversations with the most compelling people observing and influencing culture today. It also features live musical performances, provocative debates on hot-button issues and lively panel discussions.

Radiolab – Tuesday 10am

RADIOLAB

Radiolab is a show about curiosity. Where sound illuminates ideas, and the boundaries blur between science, philosophy, and human experience.

UPR Presents – Friday at 10am and 7pm

UPR Presents is a time slot dedicated to short-run national series, locally produced specialty programming, and the opportunity to audition emerging programs. Look forward to hearing shows like Invisibilia, Intelligence Squared, UPR's The Source, Reveal, America Abroad, Playing Shortly, Climate One, Bioneers, and what is yet to be created.

With Good Reason – Wednesday at 4am

Each week on With Good Reason, ever-curious host Sarah McConnell takes you along as she examines a wide range of topics with leading scholars. Featured guests have included Julian Bond discussing race in America, Bruce Greyson sharing his study of near death experiences, Mike Seeger exploring American folk music, Bryan Caplan on the “myth of the rational voter,” Nikki Giovanni reading from her poetry, and Nobel Prize winning author Toni Morrison.

World of Opera – Sunday at 8pm

World of Opera with host Lisa Simeone presents compelling performances from top American and international opera companies. The program encompasses the seminal operas of centuries past as well as today's masterpieces.

SPECIAL SEGMENTS – Three new segments will be heard throughout the broadcast day.

Marketplace Tech Report

Technology is reshaping our world. Marketplace Tech explores how through a daily four minute program. Guest hosts talk to newsmakers, innovators, visionaries and creators about how technology is expanding, informing and transforming everyday experience. Tune in for the big news and the stories you won't hear anywhere else.

Science by the Slice

In collaboration with Utah State University's College of Science, Science by the Slice offers brief, entertaining glimpses of ground-breaking research by USU scientists in the disciplines of biology, ecology, chemistry, biochemistry, geology, mathematics, statistics, physics and more.

StarDate

StarDate describes activity in the night sky and explains the science, history, and skylore behind daily observations. It provides the latest research findings and space missions. And it offers bits on astronomy in the arts and popular culture, providing ways for people with diverse interests to keep up with the universe.