FROM ALAN

ALAN CHARTOCK

Dear WAMC Family,

I can't tell you how grateful we are to be able to ensure our future by buying the tower we have been on all these years. I'm talking about the broadcast tower on Mt. Greylock that allows us to send our signal throughout our seven-state listening area.

As of the time you are reading this, the money has come pouring in to support the effort. We are well on our way. With the money, however, there are some questions people are asking. So, we thought we'd devote this space to answer them.

With love,
Alan Chartock

Q: Why is Channel 10 leaving/selling the tower?

A: For its own good reasons, WTEN is no longer broadcasting from the tower. We cannot move from this location, or even on the tower itself, as we would lose our extensive coverage. Additionally, we couldn't move locations without FCC approval, and we'd need to find an available location. Generously, WTEN has offered us the opportunity and we must take it.

Q: Why has WAMC bought the tower, as opposed to continuing to rent it from a new owner?

A: WAMC can't be certain that another owner would continue to rent space to WAMC, or that they'd satisfactorily continue to maintain the site. You can see that losing our space on the tower would be devastating to our station.

Q: Is the choice to purchase the tower fiscally responsible?

A: Thanks to WTEN, we have been able to arrive at a very fair deal. WAMC exists because of the support of our members. Without the broadcast signal from the tower on Mt. Greylock, we would lose all of those listeners and their support. WAMC would not survive.

Q: Are there other expenses that WAMC will incur?

A: Yes. As the owner of the tower, WAMC pays rent to the landowner, the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. Also, there are some improvements needed at the site, as well as ongoing maintenance. We will do whatever it takes to stay alive.

Q: With the purchase of the tower, does WAMC have the opportunity to rent space to other entities and earn revenue?

A: Yes. WAMC will honor current lease agreements with those occupying space on the tower now. And as space permits, we will remain open to additional tenants. A portion of this rental revenue is owed to the Commonwealth of Massachusetts as part of the agreement to lease the land on which the tower stands.

Q: How would a profit-making endeavor like renting space on the tower affect your non-profit status?

A: Renting out space on the tower and receiving income does not affect our non-profit status. We file appropriate tax return forms to account for this revenue.

Q: Is WAMC investing in old technology when its audience might be increasingly streaming on their smartphones or perhaps using apps that are independent of any tower?

A: More than half a million cumulative listeners get our signal from the tower on Mt. Greylock or its various translators each month. Although many people tune in to our app or stream live, the mainstay of our station is this tower, and its listening members that support us.

PROGRAM NOTES

KRISTIN GILBERT

The Metropolitan Opera 2017/2018 Saturday Matinee broadcasts continue on WAMC. The operas will air every Saturday at 1PM until May 5th, 2018.

January 6th, 2018 @1PM-- Hansel and Gretel (Engelbert Humperdinck)

A Met English-language holiday presentation, Richard Jones's clever production of Humperdinck's fairy-tale opera is based on the Brothers Grimm story. Donald Runnicles conducts the sweeping score and a delightful cast, including the legendary Dolora Zajick as the wayward siblings' mother. Tara Erraught and Ingeborg Gillebo share the role of Hansel, and Lisette Oropesa and Maureen McKay share the role of Gretel.

January 13th, 2018 @1PM--Cavalleria Rusticana & Pagliacci (Pietro Mascagni / Ruggero Leoncavallo)

Roberto Alagna takes on the leading tenor roles in both parts of opera's most popular double bill. In Cavalleria Rusticana, Ekaterina Semenchuk and Eva-Maria Westbroek share the role of the woebegone Santuzza, with Aleksandra Kurzak as the hot-blooded Nedda in Pagliacci. Nicola Luisotti conducts Sir David McVicar's production, which heightens the melo-dramatication of this timeless verismo pairing.

January 20th, 2018 @1PM—Thaïs (Jules Massenet)
Ailyn Pérez is the alluring courtesan and Gerald Finley is the holy man who tries to resist her powers of seduction in Massenet's tale of sensuality versus spirituality. Emmanuel Villaume conducts.

January 27th, 2018 @1PM—Tosca (Giacomo Puccini)
Sir David McVicar's ravishing new production offers a splendid backdrop for two extraordinary sopranos sharing the title role of the jealous prima donna: Sonya Yoncheva (pictured above) and Anna Netrebko. Vittorio Grigolo and Marcelo Álvarez alternate in the role of Tosca's revolutionary artist lover Cavaradossi, with Željko Lučić and Michael Volle as the depraved police chief Scarpia. Emmanuel Villaume and Bertrand de Billy share conducting duties.

New Year's Day Special Programming:

12AM-5AM—The Toast of the Nation

An NPR tradition every New Year's since the 1970s, Toast of the Nation is the perfect audio complement for the occasion. It's festive jazz you can party to. Spirited, improvised, and swinging, each segment stops in a Blue Note venue throughout the country and the world!

9AM— The 2017 Music Memorial Hour

Some of the prominent popular musicians who passed away in 2017 are celebrated in a one-hour special hosted by public radio music historian Paul Ingles. Music included from Chuck Berry, Fats Domino, Chris Cornell, Gregg Allman, Tom Petty, Glen Campbell and more.

10AM-12PM-- New Year's with the Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra

Ring in the New Year with the Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra and a concert of Strauss waltzes and polkas. Noa Wildschut makes his Heinz Hall debut to play Chausson's Poeme and Ravel's Tzigane. Manfred Honeck then conducts a program of musical gems from the waltz and polka tradition.

2PM--Capitol Steps: Politics Takes a Holiday New Year's Edition 2017/2018

Put down those indictments, Robert Mueller – if you're hoping Paul Manafort will sing like a canary, all you have to do is tune in to the Capitol Steps year-end edition of "Politics Takes a Holiday." You might even pick up some classified secrets as he joins the Donald to sing "I'm So Indicted."

Also featured in the Capitol Steps' show will be the year's biggest stars – Mike Pence, Rex Tillerson, Hillary Clinton, Vladimir Putin, Bernie Sanders, and those who were gone too soon – Sean Spicer, Tom Price, and, of course, the Mooch.

Now is your chance to finally enjoy the headlines you were too scared to read. After all, the Capitol Steps won't tell you what to think, but they will tell you what rhymes with Papadopoulos.
