December 2012 - Volume 18 Issue 12

Holiday specials abound! See Programming notes

Meet the Team, Part 1

Alan S. Chartock
WAMC President and C.E.O.

One of the best things about being at WAMC is getting to know the characters who work here. When you look at what kind of people they are, the families they come from, and the talents each of them brings to the table, you can garner an appreciation for the parts that make the whole.

It occurs to me that the people who work at the station are really no different than the people who listen to the station. We may each have our individual eccentricities but then again, who doesn't? For example, just take a look at the guy who edits this newsletter, Ray Graf. I have to tell you, you can't help but love the guy. We call him "Uncle Grumpy" but when he comes to meetings he can be so funny that you want to fall down laughing. During the fund drive he has become an iron man, holding things together and always picking up our spirits when it looks like things might not be going so well.

During the last drive when I was nervous because

December Programming Notes

Katie Britton
Director of WAMC News/Programming

Ahoy, WAMC land! 'Tis the season of dreidels, tinsel and TV ads that wish a 'sparkly day'. So we want to give you our own shiny star with some great programming during the holiday season.

It all kicks off on Monday December 9th at 7PM with the perennial favorite, Hanukkah Lights 2012, which features Hanukkah stories and memoirs written by acclaimed authors expressly for the show, as read by NPR's Susan Stamberg and Murray Horwitz. Then we'll continue to celebrate the Festival of Lights on Tuesday at 11AM with Chanukah in Story and Song. This hour-long Chanukah special is a celebration by The Western Wind performing Ladino songs of Spanish Jews, Yiddish melodies of Eastern Europe and modern Israeli tunes, and is hosted by Leonard Nimoy.

On Friday December 21st, we'll have the annual airing of A Paul Winter Solstice Concert from 10AM until 12PM. Once again on the darkest night of the year, NPR Music presents the illuminating tradition from New York's Cathedral of St. John the Divine: the 32nd annual Paul Winter Solstice Celebration, featuring gospel singer Theresa Thomason, Mbira Master Chris Berry and The Paul Winter Consort with Paul McCandless, Eugene Friesen, Paul Sullivan, Eliot Wadopian, Jamey Haddad, Tim Brumfield and the glorious Cathedral Pipe Organ.

Then it's time to break out the eggnog and crazy Christmas sweaters as we bring you some of our holiday favorites, as well as some new shows. On December 24th at 9AM we're kicking off the party with holiday music from the 1950's. Though 1950 things weren't going even faster he kept looking at me and allowing as how we were bringing in an incredible one hundred thousand dollars a day. Maybe he gets that from encouraging his son, Raymond Jr., in his sports activities or his trombone playing (Ray Senior is a superb musician and a great trombone player.) When Raymond Jr. hits yet another home run in his Little League career, we all know about it. But winning isn't everything to our Ray. He adopts losing causes like the New York Mets. His relationship with the Metropolitanans can be described as nothing less than love/hate. Every morning after the Metsies lose yet another game, he comes into the news room and takes an awful ribbing from people like David Guistina who loves the Red Sox and Ian Pickus who loves the imperialistic Yankees. Ray sits in his corner mumbling thing like, "Why, I oughta..." It is Ray who, along with Thom Job, works on our wamc.org web page that keeps getting better and better and Ray who does such a great job when he moderates Vox Pop.

Ray met his wife Nicole right here at WAMC when Nicole was running the fund drives and now, five children later, this wonderful family is representative of the great people who make WAMC what it is. We argue about everything under the sun but in the end we love each other and whatever friction there is only serves to make us better.

Another secret weapon at WAMC is our senior vice president, Selma Kaplan. She started out part-time after the fund drives, putting things in alphabetical order and was soon hired to be the receptionist. One day she noticed that I was frazzled and asked if there was anything she could do to help.

"Yeah," I said, "you can write this grant for me." She did and as I recall, that was her last day as receptionist. Now she is at the top of the heap and rules her kingdom with wisdom and generosity. Selma is a very talented musician. She used to be in a band called "Rude Girls," a group of women who were not only great musicians and writers but really stuck it to the man when he deserved it. There came a time when Selma had to decide whether to become a full-time musician or make a career at WAMC. Am I ever glad that she made the right decision.

Those are just two of the people who make us what we are. In the coming months, I'll try to give you the inside straight on others who help make the place what it is. – Alan was the stomping ground for Rudolph and Frosty, host Mike Flanagan gives us an audio tour of how underneath the marshmallow world of perfect conformity was another take on holiday cheer that involved rock n' roll, space travel, and my baby left me blues.

From there we jump to the classical melodies from A Festival of Nine Lessons and Carols, hosted by Michael Barone. From 10AM to 12PM, this is a live stereo music and spoken-word broadcast from the chapel of King's College in Cambridge, England. The 30-voice King's College Choir performs the legendary Festival of Nine Lessons and Carols service of Biblical readings and music.

On Christmas day we'll continue with tradition, and after Morning Edition at 9AM, we'll Welcome Christmas! This year's program puts the focus on old French carols, alongside two world premieres in the annual VocalEssence/American Composers Forum Christmas carol contest.

At 10AM we'll hear the St. Olaf Christmas Festival, a service in song and word that has become one of the nation's most cherished holiday celebrations. The festival includes hymns, carols, choral works, and orchestral selections celebrating the Nativity and featuring more than 500 student musicians who are members of five choirs and the St. Olaf Orchestra.

And at 11AM we'll celebrate Christmas with Morehouse and Spelman Glee Clubs. One of the great holiday traditions in America, the choirs of Morehouse and Spelman Colleges get together to present a spine-tingling concert program.

We'll get a little raucous with All Songs Considered for the Holidays at noon. Host Bob Boilen and friends will trade holiday cheer and snarky barbs while bringing you the best holiday songs from new and emerging breakout bands.

A Christmas Celtic Sojourn will tantalize your ears between 2PM and 4PM. Host Brian O'Donovan has assembled some of the best musicians, singers, and dancers imaginable from around the Celtic world, and beyond!

And it's not over yet, folks! We'll bring you a Kwanza celebration at 11AM on December 26th, and our annual live show Toast of the Nation on New Year's Eve/Night, as well as Live from Vienna! the following morning.

So keep those radios on, break out the Manischewitz and Spiced Rum, and sit back and enjoy.

Until next month my friends,
Katie

Listen to Paul Caiano's WAMC Regional forecast, updated every weekday morning. Paul Caiano is a meteorologist at WNYT Newschannel 13.

Person Place Thing

Third Friday of each month 1pm–2pm

Embracing the idea that people reveal themselves most intimately when speaking not directly about themselves but about something they care about passionately. Interview subjects talk about a person, a place, and a thing that are important to them: love it or hate it, as long as you have strong feelings about it. This structure elicits conversations that would not emerge in a standard interview, inviting the guests to tell stories they never have before.

Playing on Air

Fourth Friday of each month 1pm - 2pm

A public radio show of short plays. Originally written for the stage, these 10-20 minute selections translate to radio without need for stage directions.

The Power of Words

Second Friday of each month 1pm - 2pm

Follow American history through some of the most memorable political speeches of our time. Original speeches from the likes of Presidents F.D. Roosevelt, Ronald Reagan, Barack Obama, & J.F. Kennedy, followed by discussion and analysis by Alan Chartock and guest scholars.

A Prairie Home Companion

Saturdays, 6-8pm

Repeated Sundays from 3-5pm

Monologues, skits, and more, hosted by Garrison Keillor. Write to Prairie Home Productions, LLC, 611 Frontenac Place, St. Paul, MN 55104. Phone: (800) 228-7123. E-mail: phc@mpr.org. Web: www.prairiehome.publicradio.org

Pulse of the Planet

Weekdays, 11:20am

Weekends, 8:35am

A two-minute sound portrait of Planet Earth, tracking the rhythms of nature, culture and science. Write to Pulse of the Planet, PO Box 344, Accord, NY 12404. E-mail: pulse@jgc.org. Web: www.pulseplanet.com

Radio Deluxe

Saturdays, 2-4pm

Tuesdays 8-10pm

Singer/guitarist John Pizzarelli takes listeners on a 2-hour tour through the great American songbook. Web: www.radiodeluxe.com

Radiolab

Mondays 1-2pm

Each hour we take a big idea, so big that it lives everywhere, hiding in a thousand places under different names, and we chase that idea, going wherever whim takes us. Along the way, hosts Jad Abumrad and Robert Krulwich interview, argue, imagine, and discover the hidden connections that make this idea so surprisingly powerful! It's Technicolor radio.

Web: www.radiolab.org/

The Roundtable

Weekdays, 9am-12 pm

Joe Donahue and rotating co-hosts offer this mix of news, interviews and more. Featuring Performance Place. Tapes are not available. Web: <http://www.wamc.org/programs/roundtable>

Selected Shorts

Sundays, 11am-12noon

Repeated Wednesdays at 10pm

A match of Oscar and Tony Award winning actors with short stories by contemporary and classic authors. Tapes are available. Phone: (212) 864-1414, ext. 206. E-mail: shorts@symphonyspace.org. Web: www.symphonyspace.org

Approaching the "Philanthropic Cliff"

By Thomas E. Brockley
Senior Vice President – Financial Advisor
Senior Portfolio Manager – Portfolio Focus
Courtesy of RBC Wealth Management

As a WAMC listener, you may have heard news reports about the "fiscal cliff" that may impact our economic recovery beginning on January 1, 2013. (Absent government action on spending cuts and higher taxes set to take effect on that date.)

And as a regular reader of this program guide, you may have seen the recent articles describing the wide range of charitable giving strategies available to investors, ranging from gifts of cash or appreciated assets (like stock or real estate) to using life insurance, trusts, family foundations, donor advised funds or pooled income funds.

Now that December is here – and the holiday season is in full swing – you may be thinking about supporting the worthy causes, like this station, that you care about.

Which is why I want to warn you of the "philanthropic cliff" that is also approaching. The tax rules for next year may be up in the air right now. But if you want to make a tax-deductible gift to a qualifying charity during the 2012 tax year, time is running out. Because the institutions or custodians that you are transferring assets to may have deadlines for when they can accept the securities or financial products you wish to use to make your charitable gift.

For example, here at RBC Wealth Management, transfers of mutual funds take 5-10 days to complete and must be submitted by December 16 to complete transfer by year end. The institution transferring to us may need processing time, as well.

Plus, your financial advisor and the other professionals who help you manage your wealth may be taking time off at the holidays. After all, they have loved ones who they wish to spend time with, just like you.

So don't delay. Contact your charity of choice, financial advisor, attorney and tax advisor today to discuss your charitable goals, investment objectives and tax situation. That way, you'll also have more time to relax and enjoy the true spirit of the season.
