June 2012 - Volume 18 Issue 7

Thanks for your support during the Fund Drive

Sending a Signal

Alan S. Chartock
WAMC President and C.E.O.

There is, of course, a tremendous sense of relief and gratitude at the end of every fund drive. The end means that a group of people, dedicated to preserving something precious, have done it again. I keep thinking of the early American spirit of raising barns together. There is something splendid about a government that tries to help. Nevertheless, in the end governments are too often controlled by politicians who are primarily dedicated to preserving and maintaining personal power. My friend Eliot Spitzer has said time and again those politicians who give you money too often believe that the people's money is their own to play politics with. We know that the Republicans in the House of Representatives have voted to stop funding the Corporation for Public Broadcasting that group that gives out the money to public radio and television stations. We know why they are doing that. They want to control the message.

No matter, when we prevail in a fund drive, we are sending a signal to those politicians who would

July Programming Notes

Katie Britton
WAMC Director of News/Programming

Hello WAMC Land!

Well, as we take to the road to get to our 4th of July picnics and firework displays, we have a great line-up to get you in the mood to celebrate our nation's birthday.

Our special coverage begins at 9AM with Groundwork's Democracy Close to Home. It's a timely one-hour special, hosted by NPR's Scott Simon that tells stories of American democracy at the local level. We listen in as people wrestle with issues alongside -- and in opposition to -- their neighbors.

A Capitol Fourth airs Wednesday, July 4th at 8pm

defund NPR, CPB and WAMC. That message is that like the colonists of old, we will band together and find a way to keep things going. Incredibly, we persevered. A million dollars is a great deal of money and we never would have achieved that monumental goal unless a lot of individuals and families decided not to walk away, or more affirmatively to put something toward the common effort. We heard from Republicans and Democrats and independents. Each person has a favorite show and would dedicate a pledge to keep it going. As the money comes in, we read each and every message about what people like, what they don't like and what new things they'd like to see.

When the snow birds come back from Florida or Arizona, they call in with messages about just how good WAMC is compared to the stations they have been listening to down south or out West. Now, with the option of listening on line at WAMC.org or to the WAMC "App.," more and more people tell us how they listen all year no matter where they are. In the last drive we heard from China and Australia.

People always ask me what we are going to do in a coming fund drive. I always say that despite any planning we may do, that drives take on their own character. It's all serendipitous. In this fund drive there is no question that the crank radios we were offering as premiums took off like a great bird. We started with just a few but as it became clear that a lot of people wanted them our Dona Frank kept reaching out for more. I was telling the truth that in the beginning we just had a few of them but with each new lot the pressure was on to find more. Finally, a listener called in and said, "Alan is always saying how few are left. Sounds to me like the few are having babies."

Then there was the wonderful generosity from Tanglewood and SPAC. The tickets that they gave us were tickets that they could have sold themselves but they know a good partnership when they see one and they were there.

We set a record this time but don't let anyone tell you that this is ever going to be easy. Nothing worthwhile ever is. I feel a tremendous amount of connection when I am sitting there, depending on you to make it happen. "Mr. Big," gave us a tremendous $25,000 match that produced a record $75,000 morning. Then Eliot Spitzer came up with a similar test. Both gave us two dollars for every dollar that you donated and then a wonderful philanthropic group with deep ties in the Capital region gave us a whopping match that helped end the drive. It is always amazing how these big matches inspire everyone to give.

When the drive is over it takes me a couple of weeks to recover. As I write this we are about a week and a half out of the drive and I am so tired that I can't pick my head up. So, thanks to all of you for everything you've done to keep the fragile experiment alive. I know why you do it but I am so proud of all of us that I could burst. — Alan

At 10AM to 12PM we have a two-part two-hour special called Natural Woman, which celebrates Carole King's iconic career as a singer, songwriter, and pianist extraordinaire.

Don't worry, you'll get your news fix... at noon Midday Magazine will hit the airwaves, followed by The Commonwealth Club, with guest Joseph Stiglitz, Nobel Memorial Prize Winner for Economics at 1PM. Plus you'll get Northeast Report at 3:30PM.

2PM we'll have our annual Power of Words tradition of FDR's Four Freedoms speech.

A WAMC Independence Day tradition continues at 3pm, when we air The Capitol Steps' July 4th Special, "Politics Takes a Holiday."

And don't forget to join us at 8PM as America's national Independence Day celebration broadcasts live from the West Lawn of the United States Capitol. Hosted by Emmy Award-winning TV personality Tom Bergeron and NPR newscaster Korva Coleman, this year's A Capitol Fourth features an inspiring Olympic tribute to Team USA and performances by Megan Hilty, Javier Colon, Kool & the Gang, Kelli O'Hara and the National Symphony Orchestra.

Enjoy the day and bursts of color. - Katie

Weekdays, 6:53am and 12:25pm

Listen to Paul Caiano's WAMC Regional forecast, updated every weekday morning. Paul Caiano is a meteorologist at WNYT Newschannel 13.

Person Place Thing

Third Friday of each month 1pm- 2pm

Person Place Thing embraces the idea that people reveal themselves most intimately when speaking not directly about themselves but about something they care about passionately. Interview subjects come prepared to talk about a person, a place, and a thing that are important to them: love it or hate it, as long as you have strong feelings about it. This structure elicits conversations that would not emerge in a standard interview, inviting the guests to tell stories they never have before.

Playing on Air

Fourth Friday of each month 1pm - 2pm

A public radio show of short plays. Originally written for the stage, these 10-20 minute selections translate to radio without need for stage directions.

The Power of Words

Second Friday of each month 1pm - 2pm

Follow American history through some of the most memorable political speeches of our time. Original speeches from the likes of Presidents F.D. Roosevelt, Ronald Reagan, Barack Obama, & J.F. Kennedy, followed by discussion and analysis by Alan Chartock and guest scholars.

A Prairie Home Companion

Saturdays, 6-8pm

WAMC Live at the Linda - Broadcasts

Wednesdays at 8pm on WAMC

7/11 – Dancing on the Air - It's live performance radio with Jay Ungar and Molly Mason and the Dancing On The Air Orchestra. Guests TBA

7/18 – Diego Garcia w/s/g Matt Durfee
(Recorded live at the Linda on 1/27/2012)

Prior to his successful solo career, Diego Garcia made his mark on the indie music scene as front man for the popular indie act Elephant. Drawing from his Argentine roots, he explores his Latin with a sound that conjures the spirit of 1970's troubadours like Sandro and Jobim as well as singer-songwriters like Leonard Cohen and Harry Nilsson.

Matt Durfee is an Albany folk/Americana singer and songwriter.

7/25 – Eilen Jewel w/s/g Jennie Lowe Sterns (Recorded 12/3/11)

Since her 2006 debut, Eilen Jewell has surveyed a wide range of traditional musical styles, to the electricity of '60s UK garage rock and Chicago blues.

Jennie Lowe Stearns has always written songs from a personal place. The results are haunting songs that are beautiful and sad, yet triumphant in their way.

Why underwrite?

Sinle yourself out

Place your product or service in a unique position by clearly separating your name from the clutter inherent in commercial advertising.

Reach your target audience

We offer you the chance to contribute to one or more of our various funds, allowing you the freedom to select the programming that will most economically reach your segment of the market.

Identify your company as socially aware

An association with WAMC, with its long-standing reputation for social responsibility, identifies your company as community-minded.
