FROM ALAN

ALAN CHARTOCK

The Fund Drive is where we live. Hey, if everyone puts in just a little money we will have what we need to go forward. Everyday I go out on the streets and so many of you shake my hand and tell me what the station means to them. Maybe because I am getting a little older people thank me for my part in putting WAMC together. As I tell them, I am telling you — it isn't me. They think I'm being modest but I am not. I assure them that this has happened because people believe in what we are doing and are not afraid to put something in the pot.

We are now slogging through one of the worst threats that the United States has ever faced. We have a president who lost the popular vote yet seems determined to do everything in his power to negate the popular will.

His choices for cabinet positions represent the antithesis of logic. He installs a climate denier in the cabinet at the EPA. It couldn't be worse. We scratch our heads and wonder how this could be happening. So from the very beginning WAMC has been there. We will always speak truth to power. We will give you all sides. And more people are listening than ever before.

Our Congressional Corner invites every Congressperson on the air. We let them have their say. One or two angry, frustrated people have called me up and said that it was my job to beat up some of our Republican congress people. I tell them that I ask the questions and they answer.

That's true for the many Democrats who we have had on the show. When an occasional note comes in from a conservative listener who complains that I wasn't hard enough on a Democrat, I say the same thing that I say to everyone else. "As long as I can draw a breath, WAMC will invite everyone on and let them have their say." I also remind them that if they think a John Faso isn't telling the truth about health care, they have to realize that there are a lot of other people out there who are as intelligent as they are and who hear the same thing.

Donald Trump is now in big trouble. He is a liar. He tells us that he will make a "better" health care system and then does the opposite. He fires the FBI director and tells people that he did it because of "the Russian thing." The White House is now getting prepared for the obvious impeachment effort but I want to remind everyone that it wasn't always that way. At the beginning of his presidency, people were really scared. They kept writing me and saying, "What can we do?" Through it all we had WAMC in common.

People were doing commentaries, one after another, that dealt with every aspect of our politics. The Roundtable brought out all sides of every debate. The listener comment line was filled to the brim. Incredible guests like Malcolm Nance and so many others were interviewed by Joe Donahue and by our crack news team.

The Congressional Corner gave everyone a chance. And there was one reason we could do it all -- you. Your generosity and decency literally brings tears to my eyes. I'm now 75, but when I was struggling in high school and college and through a Ph.D., I had no idea that I would ever be allowed to do anything this important. I have made my mistakes; I have spoken too sharply to some of my critics, even when they were unspeakably cruel and mistaken. Obviously we all make mistakes but we are not mistaken in our love of this radio station that we have made together. As long as we keep on supporting what we have made, we will have this wonderful thing.

PROGRAM NOTES

KRISTIN GILBERT

In addition to our award winning Roundtable show, local news programming, and National Production shows, we have an outstanding line up of musical programming throughout the week! I figured we would set the mood for the Spring/Summer music festival season by highlighting the great music programs we carry on WAMC! Mountain Stage features performances from seasoned legends and emerging stars in genres ranging from folk, blues, and country; to indie rock, synth pop, world music, alternative, and beyond. Mountain Stage airs Monday nights at 8 p.m.

American Routes is a weekly two-hour program produced in New Orleans, presenting a broad range of American music — blues and jazz, gospel and soul, old-time country and rockabilly, Cajun and zydeco, Tejano and Latin, roots rock and pop, avant-garde and classical. The show explores the shared musical and cultural threads in these American styles and genres of music and how they are distinguished. American Routes airs Tuesdays at 8 p.m.

On Wednesday nights at 8 p.m., we feature musical acts recorded live in front of a studio audience at our very own performing arts venue, The Linda. Hosts Carl Blackwood and Matthew Plummer have some great shows to share with you this month starting out with Tinsley Ellis and special guest The Amy Ryan Band on July 7th. The Matt Flinner Trio and the Foghorn String Band will air on the 14th. Our annual rebroadcast of the Blues Band Competition hosted by the Capitol Region Blues Network takes place on July 21st. We will then finish the month off with a triple bill of Molly Durnin, Olivia Quilio, and Mary Leigh Rowan on July 28th. On Jazz After Hours, new releases are featured each week, along with classic recordings from jazz's greats. Host Jeff Hanley covers the jazz scene across America and connects the music and the musicians on the show to the club gigs, festivals, and concerts that keep jazz alive. Jazz After Hours airs overnights on Saturdays from 1 a.m. to 5 a.m. and Sundays 12 a.m. to 5 a.m.

Radio Deluxe features two hours of great jazz and smart, sassy repartee from husband and wife duo John Pizzarelli and Jessica Molaskey. Occasionally, a special guest drops by the deluxe living room to join in on the fun! Radio Deluxe airs Saturdays at 2 p.m..

A Prairie Home Companion is a two-hour weekly variety show broadcast live from the Fitzgerald Theater in St. Paul, Minnesota and other locations in the U.S. and around the world. On October 15, 2016, Chris Thile took over for Garrison Keillor as the show's new host. Chris's wide range of musical taste, paired with his vast network of famous, talented friends, are drawing new, diverse talent to public radio. A Prairie Home Companion airs Saturdays at 6 p.m.

Saturday nights from 8 p.m. to 10 p.m. we feature the very best in folk music with WAMC's Hudson River Sampler. Our beloved Wanda Fischer began as the host of The Hudson River Sampler on September 18, 1982 and the program continues to be a listener favorite today! At 10PM, WAMC Bluegrass Time with Nick Barr brings listeners the best in bluegrass music, from the current chart-toppers to the cherished classics. Nick started at WAMC in January 2001.

WAMC's Tim Coakley has hosted the Tim Coakley Jazz Show since 1987! Over the years, he has presented a broad range of jazz styles with an emphasis on swing and melody. Many of the programs have a theme, such as performers on a specific instrument, a birthday salute to a famous player or songs associated with changing seasons. Join us for the Tim Coakley Jazz Show Saturday nights at 11 p.m.! Peabody award winning Afropop Worldwide is a weekly, hour-long program dedicated to presenting the music cultures of Africa and the African diaspora. Hosted by veteran Cameroonian broadcaster Georges Collinet, the show blends great music, interviews with artists and experts, rich sound gathered in the field, and extensive research by our team of producers and consulting scholars. Afropop airs Sundays at 4 p.m..

From the Celtic heartland, The Thistle & Shamrock connects musical communities on both sides of the Atlantic through an engaging and entertaining current. The most listened to Celtic music program in the world is also the perfect vehicle for award-winning host Fiona Ritchie to explore her musical passions. These are both contemporary and rooted, concentrating on evolving traditions in Ireland, Scotland, Brittany, England, Wales, North America, and beyond. The Thistle & Shamrock airs Sundays at 7 p.m..

Sunday nights at 8 p.m. we feature concerts by the Boston Symphony and Boston Pops, direct from the fabled acoustics of Boston's Symphony Hall. Please note: Due to the Tanglewood Summer Season in July & August, the Boston Symphony Orchestra pauses production of their Sunday night shows in order to focus on their live concert broadcasts from the Koussevitzky Music Shed at Tanglewood.

During the hiatus, we will fill the Sunday night 8 p.m. slot with our Live at the Linda series. The BSO Classical New England show returns when the orchestra arrives home from their summer season.

Grateful Dead Hour host David Gans takes us on the "Long Strange Trip" of the music of the Grateful Dead every Sunday at 10 p.m..

Slow down from the busy weekend hustle with Hearts of Space on Sunday nights at 11 p.m.. The uninterrupted format weaves together quiet contemporary electronics, classical adagios, soft jazz, space-creating sounds from many world music traditions, and the very best of the new age genre. Producer Stephen Hill billboards it as "slow music for fast times." Coming up, WAMC will continue the summer tradition of carrying the Friday and Saturday night 8:00 p.m. broadcasts as well as the Sunday 2:30 p.m. Boston Symphony Orchestra concerts live from the Koussevitzky Music Shed at Tanglewood in July and August. Our July Program guide will feature the season broadcast schedule.
