FROM ALAN

ALAN CHARTOCK

It's hard to believe that September is already upon us. It has been a sensational summer, not just because of the natural beauty of the great northeast, the glorious weather (mostly) and all of the incredible cultural events that take place throughout the region. I think you'll agree that this has been THE most extraordinary run-up to any election, possibly ever. I was recently reading the trade newspaper that comes to all of us public broadcasters. We already know that the number of people listening to public radio has increased dramatically with the election in sight and I figure it's probably in large part due to the, "What will they do next?!" factor. Well, rest assured, I promise you that whatever they do next, we'll be talking about it on WAMC. It's already been quite the roller coaster ride and together, we've watched it all unfold, from the earliest primaries to the latest polling data. As a collective family, we might not agree on everything, but looking back on our morning Roundtable discussions, I think civility has been the word of the day. Of course, sometimes passions flare and people get excited but that's what makes it interesting and real. The amount of feedback we've gotten assures us that you are listening and that's what it's all about.

So here we sit, awaiting the cooler weather and, among other things, a series of Presidential debates in advance of a national election and the October Fund Drive. These two things are not unrelated. Here's the thing, as they say. Nobody is going to force you to vote. That's your choice. But if you believe in the democratic process, you understand that it is both your privilege and your responsibility as a citizen to participate in the upcoming election. Now, think about this radio station. Nobody is forcing you to "pay up." Unlike your cable company, nobody is sending you a monthly bill. There's no "radio tax." But if you are a listener, and I know you are, I ask you to consider your responsibility to the station and contribute what you can to keep us going. We simply cannot do it without you.

Remember that wherever you may be, WAMC can and will be there with you, either on your radio or online. I hope that you'll think about all that it takes to bring you the programming you've come to rely on. A summer full of beautiful music from Tanglewood, coverage of regional, national, and international news, new podcasts, a greatly improved website, and the list goes on. With your support, we've been able to do so much. But you know the drill – we are only as secure as our last fund drive.

The October Fund Drive is coming up fast. How about casting your vote for WAMC with an early contribution to the Locked Box? The on-air portion of the drive starts on October 17 and every dollar that goes into the Locked Box before then will count toward the first day of the Drive. Or maybe you'd like to do even more by coming in and volunteering during the fund drive. We always need help and volunteering is a wonderful way to meet nice folks and eat great food. You can call the station at 800.323.9262 or volunteer online at wamc.org. And one final thought...this will be the last Fund Drive of the calendar year, so as you consider your charitable contributions, I hope you'll put WAMC high on the list. And even though the nights are getting cooler, stay tuned as this election season heats up.

SEPTEMBER PROGRAM NOTES

■ KRISTIN GILBERT

As the last magical notes of this summer's Tanglewood season resonate in our souls, we will return to our normal programming schedule this month. Don't fret, we will still get to enjoy the Boston Symphony Orchestra on Sunday evenings 8 p.m. – 10 p.m. to hold us over until next year's Tanglewood season.

We have a great line up of holiday special programming coming up on Labor Day, September 5th. Our specials begin at 9 a.m. with Work n' Music-A Labor Day Special. This program features music about work and workers in a variety of genres: soft rock, bluegrass, country, bebop, folk, show tunes, and more. Artists include Amy Adams, Tom Paxton, Jim Croce, Sawyer Brown, Gordon Lightfoot, Joan Baez, Jim Brickman, Hank Snow, The Silhouettes, John Denver, and many more. plus a classic comedy bit by George Carlin.

Starting at 10 a.m., we will enjoy a 2 hour special marking the 50th anniversary of the release of The Beatles' landmark album RUBBER SOUL. Producer Paul Ingles presents another in his acclaimed series of specials on Beatles' history. Over a dozen musicians, music writers and Beatles fans comment on the significance of this 1965 release by the band along with song-by-song notes on the writing and performances of each track. RUBBER SOUL was slotted at #5 in a ROLLING STONE MAGAZINE 2012 survey of the Top 500 Rock Albums of All-Time.

The fun continues at 2 p.m. with Workin': The Work Song in Jazz and Popular Music. Work songs gave laborers a way of transforming their toil into something more meaningful, of enriching their everyday lives through music. How did the influence of the work song emerge in the recordings of artists such as Duke Ellington, Charles Mingus, Nat Adderley, Dave Brubeck and other musicians? Jazz historian Ted Gioia, author of Work Songs, joins Night Lights for a Labor Day look at the work song's relationship to jazz and popular music. Other featured artists include Louis Armstrong (his ode to Pullman porters, "Red Cap"), Cassandra Wilson (her cover of Jimmy Webb's "Wichita Lineman") and Sting (with saxophonist Branford Marsalis joining him for the tribute to English coal-miners, "We Work the Black Seam").

Also coming up this month; WAMC will host a live debate between the candidates for New York's 19th Congressional district seat, Republican John Faso and Democrat Zephyr Teachout, on September 15th from 1-2 p.m. at The Linda in Albany. Featuring two former candidates for governor of New York, the race to replace retiring GOP Congressman Chris Gibson is one of the most closely-watched in the country in this election cycle.

Hosted by WAMC's President and CEO Dr. Alan Chartock
- anchor of WAMC's daily Congressional Corner segment
- the debate will be co-moderated by WAMC's Hudson Valley Bureau Chief Allison Dunne and Times Union state editor Casey Seiler, also of WMHT's NY Now. The debate will be broadcast live over WAMC's 29 radio frequencies and at wamc.org. It is free and open to the public, though reservations are required. Doors open at noon.
