

HUDSON KITCHEN + BATH

Renovating your kitchen or bathroom can be a daunting task. There are countless decisions to make in layout and design, material & fixture selection, as well as finding and scheduling qualified trade professionals. Managing the entire process from demolition to the final clean up takes a great deal of time, patience and if not done effectively, a good deal of money.

At Hudson Kitchen + Bath we are here to help. Whether it be a weekend home or your primary residence, we are there to guide you through the entire process. We provide design assistance, project management and installation services to make your renovation a true home improvement.
