The revamped site showcases vivid images along with a variety of community centered digital resources like: What's New at WCLK; Latest from NPR; Now Playing; Podcasts; and more. www.wclk.com offers features that allow users to chat with announcers and station staff via web logs and, upload community events and activities. The hallmark of the new site is the enriched member and underwriting sections along with the capability to preview Jazz concerts as well as live musical performances.

Social media links to Facebook, keep users connected, while a live Twitter feed on the site allows up-to-the-minute interactivity. Contact, interact and share: www.wclk.com.

First Impressions are Everything...

One of the first things people notice about you is your hair. Jazz 91.9 WCLK, dedicated to helping you discover the benefits of health and wellness, is pleased to debut a modern, cutting edge and one of a kind public affairs program, The Toni Love Show. Show Host, Toni Love will focus on all aspects of the beauty industry and, explore innovations in cosmetics and hair plus a variety of wellness procedures. The Toni Love Show airs Saturday, February 2, 7:00 a.m. until 7:30 a.m. and every first Saturday thereafter.

Listeners can get information about hot topics ranging from beauty applications and hair styling techniques to entrepreneurial advice and tips.

Community Coverage

Got trash? Well, you can recycle the day away at the AUC Recyclemania Day on Saturday, February 9 from 10:00 a.m. until 2:00 p.m. in the Milligan Parking Lot on the campus of Spelman College, 440 Westview Dr., SW, Atlanta 30310.

For three years, Jazz 91.9 WCLK has partnered with Clark Atlanta University, the Atlanta University Center Consortium institutions and Environmental Protection Agency to collect paper products, plastics, cans, cardboard, glass, cell phones and computer monitors. AUC Recyclemania Day jump starts the schools' participation in the 2013 RecycleMania tournament.

After the joint kickoff event, the five AUC institutions will begin a friendly, eight week competition against each other and more than 450 other colleges and universities nationwide to see which campus can reduce, reuse and recycle the most waste. This year's competition runs from Sunday, February 3 through Saturday, March 30. More information about RecycleMania is available at (404) 880 - 6693 or vchandler@cau.edu.

Jazzy PROFILE

Terreon Gully is an exceptional musician whose voice of choice is a drumset. As a diverse musician, he has mastered a variety of musical styles: Straight Ahead, Funk, Fusion, Afro Cuban, Big Band, Drum and Bass, Rhythm and Blues, Hip Hop, Pop and Gospel. Terreon's musical abilities expand to include writing, producing and arranging.

Terreon Gully

A native of East St. Louis, Illinois, Terreon, began his musical journey performing on a drum set as a child in church. Pursuing his love for music, Terreon joined the world renowned Lincoln Senior High School Jazz Ensemble under the leadership of Director Ronald Carter. Furthering his education, Terreon attended the University of Houston in Houston, Texas, where his mentor Marvin Sparks, Director of Percussion Studies, introduced him to the wide world of Percussion. Gully has performed with the likes of The Christian McBride Band, Stefon Harris, David Sanborn March Cary and Geoffrey Keezer, to name a few.
