Dubbed "the Saxtress" after the title of her debut record, Pamela Williams is undoubtedly, one of the most popular performers on today’s Smooth Jazz scene. However, we’ve long preferred to refer to Ms Williams affectionately as the first lady of sax!!! Although she established her solo career in LA, Williams’ molded her musical identity during her youth. Her talents were nurtured by the rich musical heritage of Philadelphia. One of her earliest influences was the late great Grover Washington Jr. whose cutting-edge blend of styles first inspired Williams with an interest in Jazz. Pamela tours the world electrifying audiences with her dynamic sound and captivating stage presence.
