MISC / OTHER:

518 Sessions - Exit 97.7 WEXT

Live performances and conversations with Local 518 musicians. Each week highlights a different Local 518 artist or band with a brief interview as an introduction. Airdates are Thursday 11:30pm, same session airs again Saturday at 6:30pm.

David Greenberger and Prime Lens - "My Thoughts Approximately"

Draws on four decades of conversations David Greenberger has had with elderly in various cities and circumstances, which are the starting point for the thirty emotionally, rich, character driven monologues. The recording sessions begin with musical ideas from the ensemble. Greenberger matches his text to the composition, allowing it to develop in the studio. Greenberger is best known for 32 years of his periodical, The Duplex Planet, which was borne out of his conversations with residents at a nursing home in Boston beginning in 1979. Over time monologues + music evolved, the elements working in tandem to form what he refers to as "a band with a guy talking."

David Greenberger, Glenn Jones, Chris Corsano - "An Idea in Everything"

Drummer Chris Corsano set in motion "An Idea in Everything". With guitarist and banjo player Glenn Jones, a longtime friend of both Greenberger and Corsano, the three began recording in Greenberger's living room in upstate New York. In just three days, with no advance preparation, they recorded the 28 tracks that make up An Idea in Everything. Corsano improvised, Jones invented new tunings for his banjo and guitar on the fly and Greenberger selected and read
