WFAE's Joni Deutsch Named in Charlotte Agenda's 30 Under 30 Program

Charlotte, N.C., (Sept. 19, 2018) – WFAE's Joni Deutsch was selected for Charlotte Agenda's 2018 Class of 30 Under 30. The program recognizes young people making an impact in Charlotte.

Deutsch was recognized for her work as host of "Amplifier," a podcast series that profiles the musicians, songwriters and artists who call the Queen City their musical home. She is also responsible for editing and producing WFAE's other podcasts: "FAQ City," "SouthBound" and "She Says."

Launched earlier this month, "Amplifier" celebrates the minds and music that help shape Charlotte. Episodes have highlighted notable musicians and singers such as Hope Nicholls, considered to be the matriarch of the Charlotte music scene and lead singer for the '80s band Fetchin' Bones; Chad Lawson, a classical pianist; and Jason Jet who has an alternative R&B sound that Grammy-winner Anthony Hamilton has called "the next best thing in Charlotte."

"Amplifier" is available at WFAE.org/Amplifier and the WFAE app, as well as through Apple Podcasts, NPR One, Stitcher and other sources for podcasts.
