

The 2017 WFIT Garage Band Contest “Looking For Undiscovered Talent”

Winning Band will:

- Be interviewed by “Sound Waves” host Todd Kennedy and perform their song in the WFIT Performance Studio. The recording will be aired on WFIT at a later date.
- Perform at the 2017 WFIT Spring Music Festival on April 8th as the opening act.
- Get a WFIT Performance Studio recording session for their band.

Here is what you do:

- Create a new video of your band performing in a garage, playing a song you've written.
- Upload your video to YouTube.
- Submit the entry form to WFIT between February 1st and March 24, 2017.

Judging:

- Video Judged on musical quality/appeal, originality, stage presence and charisma.
- Winner announced March 28th at 12 pm (noon).

The Qualifications Checklist

Band

- Your band is currently unsigned.
- At least one member of your band is enrolled in a Florida Space Coast high school or college/university.
- Each person in your band 17 or younger has his/her parent’s or legal guardian’s permission.

Song

- The song is your original work.
- The song does NOT sample from other songs, movies, or other bodies of work.

Video

- The video, made specifically for this contest, takes place in a garage.
- The video records a single song.
- The video is shorter than 10 minutes.
- Your videographer has given permission for you and others to use the video for all purposes in all media.