WKAR Selected by University Club to Compete for U-Club Event

WKAR was selected by members of the University Club of MSU to compete in their “Big Bang-quet” $10,000 Community Charity Challenge. WKAR is one of 26 mid-Michigan organizations asking the public for their votes to help them win a $10,000 credit towards a fundraising event held in the University Club’s newly renovated dining room. The program is conducted by the University Club of MSU in cooperation with the Capital Region Community Foundation (CRCF) and sponsored by the MSU Federal Credit Union.

A “vote” is a $5 tax-deductible donation to the Capital Region Community Foundation. Votes can be cast online through Friday, March 16 at www.universityclubofmsu.org/theclubwithaheart.

WKAR will receive 90 percent of the funds raised from votes for WKAR, with the remaining amount retained by the Capital Region Community Foundation to cover processing fees.

Gaming Workshop for Middle Schoolers!

WKAR invites children in grades 5-8 to attend the “Imagine, Create and Play” video game workshop on Saturday, February 11. The day-long free event will feature inspiring speakers and hands-on fun as kids learn how to create a video game. Lunch is included.

For details or to register visit WKAR.org. The event is co-sponsored by MSU’s Colleges of Communication Arts & Sciences and Engineering.

BackStage Pass Online!

If you miss a BackStage Pass program or want to share it with a fellow music fan, it’s as easy as logging on to WKAR.org! WKAR’s BackStage Pass Facebook page offers a rich variety of musical clips – including some by artists whose music won’t be featured until later this season! So, your sneak preview is just a click away! Our Twitter hashtag is #bspwkar.

This month’s BackStage Pass performances include Seth and May, Orrick Ewing, Bob Seeley and Bob Baldori and The Lash. Catch some of the best music made in Michigan every Thursday at 10 p.m., with Saturday repeats on WKAR World at 8 p.m. and WKAR-TV at 11 p.m.
"Super" Alternatives to the Super Bowl
Sunday, February 5
Take a break from the Super Bowl and pre-game television options to enjoy Anne of Green Gables on WKAR-TV. The five-hour marathon begins at 4 p.m. Best of all, it’s a great time to take a minute to support WKAR-TV with your pledge!

Black History Month
WKAR will feature a number of programs highlighting Black History Month in February. Here are a few of our favorites.

American Masters: Cab Calloway – Sketches (Mon., Feb. 27, 10 p.m.) profiles the life of this iconic jazz man, the jazz age and its impact on American culture.

Freedom Riders (Tues., Feb. 7, 8 p.m.) reminds us how an integrated band of college students decided to risk everything and travel to the Deep South in 1961 on a bus.

Underground Railroad: The William Still Story highlights the courageous efforts of a black man from Philadelphia in assisting escaping slaves. (Mon., Feb. 6, 10 p.m.)

Great Performances offers Memphis (Fri., Feb. 24, 9 p.m.), the 2010 Tony Award-winning musical.

Underground Railroad: The William Still Story (Mon., Feb. 6, 10 p.m.), reveals lesser-known stories behind this humanitarian enterprise.

Look for more Black History Month offerings throughout WKAR-TV and on WKAR World.

Tupperware!
Tuesday, February 14, 8 p.m.
American Experience looks at the secret of Tupperware’s success in an entertaining documentary that shows how, bowl by bowl, women built an empire that now spans the globe.

Clinton
Monday and Tuesday, Feb. 20, 9 p.m.; Feb. 21, 8 p.m.
In the latest installment of presidential portraits by American Experience, explore the fascinating story of an American president who became one of the most successful politicians in modern American history and one of the most complex and conflicted characters to ever stride across the public stage.

American Experience presents a portrait of William J. “Bill” Clinton. (Feb. 20, 9 p.m.; Feb. 21, 8 p.m.)

Michael Feinstein’s American Songbook
Fridays, 9 and 10 p.m.
Michael Feinstein returns with new episodes and encore broadcasts in his American songbook series. His quest is to preserve, perpetuate and celebrate one of America’s greatest treasures, the legacy of songwriters like the Gershwins and Rodgers and Hart. Viewers join Feinstein in a video journey in which he discovers collectors, treasures, and performs a song or two himself.

The Amish
Tuesday, February 28, 8 p.m.
The intense faith and adherence to 500-year-old traditions have inspired and confused for more than a century. With unprecedented access, this film is the first to penetrate deeply and explore this attention-averse group.

Great Performances offers Memphis (Fri., Feb. 24, 9 p.m.), the 2010 Tony Award-winning musical.

Nicholas Sparks

The Best of Me
By Nicholas Sparks
Dick Estell begins reading from The Best of Me, by Nicholas Sparks, on Monday, February 27.

The Best of Me tells the heart-rending story of two small-town former high school sweethearts who come from opposite sides of the tracks. Now, middle-aged, they have taken wildly divergent paths but neither has lived the life they imagined, and neither can forget the passionate first love that forever altered their world.

When they are forced to come back to their hometown for the funeral of the man who was their mentor, they are forced to confront the choices each has made and ask whether love can truly re-write the past.

“MSU Today” on AM 870

Spartan fans may have already discovered the MSU Today radio show, Sundays at 4 p.m. on AM870. Host Russ White focuses on projects and activities making an impact on MSU and the world beyond through interviews with special guests and regular features.

White is the assistant director of MSU’s advancement communications unit and a multimedia coordinator. “I manage MSU’s relationship with News/Talk 760 WJR and produce three programs that air on WJR – “Greening of the Great Lakes,” “MSU Today” and the “MSU/WJR Tailgate Show,” he says. White is also senior producer at Spartan Podcast.

The MSU grad has been with the university since 1997, and also produces multimedia content like audio and video for all MSU Advancement programs.

Prior to coming to MSU, Russ worked at WJR as technical director of the late J. P. McCarthy’s show. He launched the Mitch Albom and Paul W. Smith shows.

WKAR-TV carries a television version of MSU Today with host Jim Peck. The program appears at various times in the WKAR schedule. Check listings.

The Metropolitan Opera
| Saturdays at 1 p.m. |

The Metropolitan Opera production of Donizetti’s “Anna Bolena” starring soprano Anna Netrebko, is featured on Saturday, February 4, on The Metropolitan Opera. (The opera aired last month as part of WKAR-TV’s Great Performances series).

The opera, a compelling dramatization of the tragic final days of Anne Boleyn – whose husband Henry VIII spurns her and has her sentenced to death – is directed by David McVicar and conducted by Marco Amilato. The cast includes Russian mezzo-soprano Ekaterina Gubanova as Anna’s romantic rival, Giovanna (Jane Seymour); Russian bass Ildar Abdrazakov as the cruel Enrico (Henry VIII); American tenor Stephen Costello as Anna’s first love, Lord Percy; and American mezzo-soprano Tamara Mumford as the queen’s page Smeton.

Generally considered one of Donizetti’s finest operas, Anna Bolena is the first in a trilogy of works based on the lives of Tudor-era queens that David McVicar will direct at the Met over the next few seasons (the other two are Maria Stuarda and Roberto Devereux).

“Donizetti takes the bel canto form and explores every possible dramatic opportunity within it,” McVicar says. “The lynchpin of the story is Anna Bolena’s inability to provide Henry VIII with the male heir that he craves. And, of course, to be a wife of Henry VIII is to risk as much as you gain.”
