

COMMUNITY CINEMA
FREE FILM SCREENINGS

In the wake of recent events that have sparked a national dialogue on race dynamics, American Denial explores the impact of unconscious biases around race and class, using Gunnar Myrdal's 1944 investigation of Jim Crow racism.

American Denial sheds a unique light on the unconscious political and moral world of modern Americans. Highlighting social research from the 1940s, the film weaves a narrative exposing some of the potential underlying causes continuing to affect implicit racial biases inherent in America's institutions today.

The evening includes a short preview of the film and conversation addressing the issues as they play out in Michigan.

PANELISTS:

Pero Dagbovie, Ph.D.

Graduate Director and Assoc. Chair, MSU Department of History

Eva Lois Evans, Ph.D.

Education leader, Michigan Women's Hall of Fame

American Denial premieres on Independent Lens on PBS Monday, February 23 at 10/9c.
