Be in the QuizBusters TV Audience and Meet Local Personalities

(East Lansing, MI) – Members of the mid-Michigan community are invited to join the studio audience as WKAR launches a new season of QuizBusters with a Special Edition series featuring local personalities. The popular academic game show and WKAR original series is entering its 26th season on the air in mid-Michigan.

The two special QuizBusters episodes will be recorded on Tuesday, September 9, at WKAR TV studios in the Communication Arts and Sciences building on the Michigan State University campus. Doors open at 6:30 p.m. Two games will be recorded back-to-back. There is no admission charge.

Guests scheduled to appear include musician Wally Pleasant, Sweetie-licious Bakery owner Linda Hundt, Sexton High School basketball coach Carleton Valentine, actor Doak Bloss, MSU head softball coach Jacque Joseph and WKAR's own Scott Pohl. Visit WKAR.org or follow WKAR on facebook for updates and more information.

The two QuizBusters Special Edition 2014 episodes will premiere on Saturday, October 4, at 6 p.m. and 6:30 p.m. on WKAR-TV, with repeats Sunday (Oct. 5) at 11 a.m. and 11:30 a.m. QuizBusters returns to its regular format the following week in the same time slots, featuring more than 60 teams from mid-Michigan high schools competing for scholarships to Michigan State University.

This is the third year that WKAR has kicked off a new season with special guest episodes. Past episodes featuring guests such as Lynn Jondahl, Kat Cooper, Tico Duckett and Jane Aldrich can be viewed online at video.wkar.org. All recent QuizBusters episodes are also available on Roku, Xbox 360, Apple TV, and iPad/iPhone in the PBS app.

QuizBusters host Matt Ottinger has been with the series since it began in 1982. Ottinger is a game show fan with a large personal collection of both television game shows on video and board games. He has the distinction of competing on “Jeopardy” during the Ken Jennings run, and while he didn’t defeat the champion, he did give Jennings a run for his money.

WKAR is part of Michigan State University’s College of Communication Arts & Sciences and includes WKAR-TV, WKAR Radio, WKAR.org, WKAR Radio Reading Service and WKAR Ready To Learn. WKAR is funded in large part by contributions from viewers and listeners, with additional support from Michigan State University and the Corporation for Public Broadcasting.
