Stay Tuned

WKAR-TV Membership Campaign
March 1-11

Whether your membership is up for renewal or you’d like to make an additional gift, we hope to hear from you during our March pledge drive. We have terrific new specials and some favorites just for you!

Also Noteworthy in March:
- WKAR Bids Farewell to Earle Robinson
- An Evening at WKAR presents “Call the Midwife 2”
- Fun for Kids at Free Literacy Event

Let “Hullabaloo” take you on a 60s flashback during March pledge!
WKAR’s Volunteers, Sponsors and Members Really Shine!

WKAR’s annual March membership campaign is March 1-11 and will feature many new and returning specials. We want to thank our pledge sponsor, the MSU Federal Credit Union. MSUFCU is a strong community partner with many organizations in mid-Michigan. Here at WKAR, we are very pleased to have MSUFCU on board for March pledge.

During this campaign, dozens of volunteers will answer calls here in our volunteer center. We thank you for spending your time with WKAR.

Did you know our volunteers contribute more than 1,000 volunteer hours during the TV pledge drive? Many volunteers serve other roles as well. Whether helping with phones, stuffing envelopes, reading for Radio Reading Service or helping at events, our volunteers really shine. If you are part of that group, thank you!

Volunteering is a way that people who love WKAR can make the very important gift of time to this station. If you would like to spend an evening with us during our campaign, please let us know by calling Liz Austin at (517) 884-4789 or email volunteer@wkar.org.

Of course we are grateful for your financial support as well. Your gift to WKAR not only helps ensure the future of WKAR-TV for your own pleasure, but also helps others in our community. Our family-friendly TV programs provide a safe, educational haven for your children, a front-row seat to the world’s greatest concert stages and so much more.

“Call the Midwife” Screening!

Thursday, March 21 • 7 pm
Studio C! Theatre

The new season of Call the Midwife begins on March 31. Please join us on Thursday, March 21 at Studio C! for a sneak peek at the first hour of Call the Midwife’s second season!

You’ll see the first hour of the new season and learn what’s happening with Jenny, Cynthia, Trixie, Chummy and all the nuns at Nonnatus House.

The event is free, but registration is required. We anticipate this will be a popular showing, so reserve early at WKAR.org. Reservations will open on Thursday, March 7.

Our Volunteers Make a Difference!

Did you know more than 1,000 volunteer hours are needed for each TV pledge drive? Or that more than 150 volunteers support Radio Reading Service?

Our volunteers help us in many ways – answering phones, stuffing envelopes, helping at events and reading books and the newspaper for those with vision challenges.

We want to thank all of WKAR’s volunteers and encourage you to join them!

To volunteer at WKAR contact Liz Austin at (517) 884-4789 or email volunteer@wkar.org.

Membership Campaign

For great information, terrific music and fun nostalgia, look no further than your television set! WKAR-TV’s annual March membership campaign offers all this and more.

Of course we will include some viewer favorites in our line-up, like Blenko Glass: Behind the Scenes, Barbra Streisand: One Night Only, Dr. Fuhrman’s Immunity Solution, Animal Odd Couples, and several doo-wop concerts.

What’s new? Rick Steves’ Travel Skills will help you with planning details, packing tips and useful ideas for making the most of your European vacation. Rick Steves’ Delicious Europe, focuses on some of the delicacies you can enjoy while abroad.

WKAR rocks with some terrific music, including Love for Levon, an all-star tribute concert honoring Levon Helm, The Who Live in Texas, and ‘60s Flashback: Hullabaloo, saluting the days of go-go dancers and the teen beat. Aaron Neville shares his world in song in Doo Wop: My Life Story. Paul Anka Live in Switzerland, Cherish the Ladies, Andrea Bocelli in Portofino and Daniel O’Donnell from the Heartland should provide a gentler alternative.

Look for comedy with An Evening with Jerry Lewis and programs to help you protect your memory and ease your arthritis pain.

There are special programs on WKAR Create and World as well, including Divinas Live at Chambord Castle, The Doors Live at the Bowl ’68 and Is It Me or Is It Hormones?

Your renewal or additional gift to WKAR helps us continue to bring you the programs you value all year long. Thanks so much for your support.

“Call the Midwife” Marathon, New Season

Call the Midwife returns for a new season on Sunday, March 31, at 8 pm. Nonnatus House opens its doors to welcome the audience back into 1950s East End London. With more births, babies, bicycling and a blossoming romance, the new season promises many heartwarming episodes.

If you missed any of Season One, enjoy six back-to-back episodes in a Call the Midwife Marathon, Sunday, March 17, beginning at 5 pm.

Catch up with the midwives in a Call the Midwife marathon, then enjoy a new season!

Masterpiece: Mr. Selfridge

Jeremy Piven ("Entourage") stars as a wheeling-dealing American who shows early 1900s Londoners how to shop in an eight-part series based on the life of colorful retail magnate Harry Gordon Selfridge. Mr. Selfridge premieres Sunday, March 31, at 9 pm.

American Masters: Philip Roth

Explore the life of the Pulitzer Prize- and National Book Award-winning novelist, often referred to as the greatest living American writer, on Friday, March 29, at 9 pm. In candid interviews, Philip Roth discusses intimate aspects of his life and art as he has never done before, while others lend their personal insight to his work.

Live from Lincoln Center: Kristin Chenoweth – The Dames of Broadway: All of ‘Em!!!

Emmy- and Tony Award-winning actress and singer Kristin Chenoweth presents “The Dames of Broadway,” singing beloved songs of the Broadway stage on Friday, March 29, at 9 pm.

WKAR said farewell to one of our longtime radio personalities last week when Earle Robinson hung up the SportsTalk 870 microphone for a life of retirement. Earle came to WKAR 39 years ago, where he worked with WKAR sports director, Jim Adams. While much of the focus was on MSU sports, they also looked at Michigan’s teams – the Tigers, Lions, Red Wings and the Lansing Lugnuts.

Earle and Jim made an impressive team, one greatly loved by mid-Michigan sports fans. When Jim retired there was no doubt that Earle would stay on and carry SportsTalk as a solo gig. In that role he talked to all the coaches and past and present players, citing Earvin “Magic” Johnson, a man he says changed the popularity of basketball at MSU, as a favorite.

“For those of us who live on the other side of the lake, Earle was the one real link to MSU sports, especially when the Internet came along,” said David from Ontario. “I, for one, used to adjust my work day to make sure I was free [for his show].”

Michael from Saginaw, where Earle started his career, was a “regular” caller and would often come up to WKAR to visit Earle.

“He did a great job of serving the whole audience and I appreciate that,” he said, adding, “Thank you for many years of service. You have been a beacon in my life.”

WKAR will recognize Earle and sports journalism in general during a celebration in April. Watch Stay Tuned and WKAR.org for more information. Meanwhile, SportsTalk will continue on WKAR AM/870, so keep listening!
