WKAR Radio Pledge Kicks Off

There’s lots to like on WKAR Radio this month and every month! WKAR Radio’s annual on-air fundraising campaign will run April 8-15. This is one of two annual radio campaigns. You can make a gift to support classical music or news by calling (517) 353-5000 during the campaign or online at WKAR.org.

Make sure you check out our new Classical Club. Club members may select a piece of music to be featured on 90.5 Classical. (See “Hear This!” on page 8 for more details.)

Now is the time to say “thanks” for adding 90.5 Classical music recitals from MSU School of Music’s talented faculty. Let Peter Whorf know he made the right decision when he added What’s New on WKAR to the WKAR line-up. (This month we are adding an encore of that program and 90.5 Community Concerts). Tell Mark Schwickzgoebel and Jody Knoel that you welcome their classical selections and musical insight each weekday. And let Mark Bashore know that you appreciate a timely look at what’s happening in mid-Michigan every day on Current State.

Whether you call our friendly volunteers or make an online gift, just know that WKAR Radio would not be possible without your support. Thank you.

Is Your Stay Tuned Arriving on Time?

The mail processing center on Collins Road in Lansing closed in February of this year. As a result, mail sent in the city to another city address could take up to three days for delivery. Operations at the Lansing processing and distribution center were shifted to service centers in Grand Rapids and Pontiac.

WKAR also received an increase in phone calls and emails during this transition from members who had not yet received their latest issue of Stay Tuned.

With nearly 12,000 copies mailed each month, we anticipate that a few may get lost. We work closely with our printer to make sure our mailing list is accurate and complete. We even send the publication at a slightly higher rate to ensure more expedient delivery. Mailings are timed so that WKAR members receive Stay Tuned prior to the first day of the month.

However, once Stay Tuned is delivered to the U.S. Post Office, it is out of our hands. What we can do though, is immediately mail another copy to you if you email staytuned@wkarr.org or call 517-884-6990.

MSU to Host First Campus-wide Science Festival

April 12-21, 2013

Every day on MSU’s campus and around the globe, faculty and students are engaged in amazing scientific breakthroughs and applications that are improving our quality of life. From April 12-21 you have a chance to learn first hand about the fascinating science underway right here at Michigan State.

WKAR will be interviewing key scientists and covering some of the hundreds of activities that will be taking place throughout the festival. Our Kids’ Club and PBS Kids will be teaming up with the MSU Extension on April 13th so please bring your kids or grandkids to visit us and experience how fun and captivating science can be!

mother and Oglala Sioux woman living on a North Dakota Reservation. Follow Charboneau over three years as she struggles to raise her children, further her education, heal the wounds of sexual abuse she suffered as a child and battle alcoholism. It is a journey of discovery, heartbreak and, ultimately, redemption.

Central Park Five
Monday, April 8, at 9 p.m.
The Central Park Five, from Ken Burns, tells the story of the five black and Latino teenagers from Harlem who were wrongly convicted of raping a white woman in New York City's Central Park in 1989. The film chronicles The Central Park Jogger case for the first time from the perspective of these five teenagers whose lives were upended by this injustice.

Live From Lincoln Center
Fridays, 9 p.m.
You have the best seat in the house for three terrific concerts this month. Josh Groban performs selections from his most recent CD, All That Echoes, on April 12. The following week, Stephanie Blythe

Kind Hearted Woman
Mon.-Tues., April 1-2 at 9 p.m.
In a special two-part series, acclaimed filmmaker David Sutherland profiles Robin Charboneau, a 32-year-old divorced single woman and Oglala Sioux woman living on a North Dakota Reservation. Follow Charboneau over three years as she struggles to raise her children, further her education, heal the wounds of sexual abuse she suffered as a child and battle alcoholism. It is a journey of discovery, heartbreak and, ultimately, redemption.

Bletchley Circle
Sundays at 10 p.m., beginning April 21
Sundays are filled with British drama! Call the Midwife and Mr. Selfridge continue through the month. Joining them at 10 p.m. on April 21 is The Bletchley Circle. This series follows four women with an extraordinary ability to break codes, a skill honed during World War II when they worked undercover at Bletchley Park, the UK’s main decryption establishment.

Now in 1952, the women have returned to civilian life. A series of ghastly murders reunites the team as they set out to decode the pattern behind the crimes.

1,000 Pledges, 1,000 Trees
On April 22, WKAR Radio and TV will honor Earth Day with special programming on all our stations. We invite our friends and members to celebrate Earth Day with WKAR during this one-day pledge drive, while also helping to beautify our own mid-Michigan environment.

Our special programming will include Alone in the Wilderness, Parts One and Two on WKAR-TV and a Current State environmental edition.

The Earth Day challenge goal is 1,000 pledges between WKAR Radio and TV. In partnership with the Michigan Arbor Day Alliance, for each pledge you make on Earth Day, one tree will be planted in mid-Michigan. The "1,000 Pledges, 1,000 Trees" goal on April 22 will help not only support programming you love on WKAR Radio and Television, but also help the mid-Michigan environment.

You can make a difference! Listen. Watch. Pledge.

And thank you!

Lots to Like!

There's lots to like on WKAR Radio this month – including local classical programs to enhance your Saturday afternoon listening.

What's New on WKAR and 90.5 Community Concerts are coming to Saturdays. Beginning at noon, hear an encore of an earlier What's New program from the week before and at 2 p.m., that week's Community Concert.

"We're pleased that we'll be able to feature programs that highlight our talented local musicians more than once a week," says WKAR station manager Peter Whorff. "And, with encore broadcasts of What's New on WKAR, you'll easily be able to pick up a few great titles to add to your personal collection."

This month we'll also feature another MSU Faculty Recital with the wind orchestra on Thursday, April 25 at 7:30 p.m.

During our annual April membership campaign, we will also be launching our new Classical Club. For an open-ended gift of $100 each month, you will be able to select your own favorite classical music piece to be played on the air, along with your reasons for selecting it. This benefit also qualifies you as an Evergreen Partner.

Our April 8-15 campaign is a perfect time to show us your appreciation for these programs, along with our newest offering, Current State.

Of course you needn't wait! You may give anytime online at WKAR! And thank you!
