Stay Tuned

Radio & TV Program Guide | Nov 13

Giving Thanks
Thank you for your contribution to WKAR public media. We dedicate this issue of Stay Tuned to you, our viewers and listeners, because after all, the shows highlighted in this guide would not be possible without your generosity.

Noteworthy in November:
- Silver Bells in the City
- American Experience: JFK
- Carol Burnett: The Mark Twain Prize
- Downton Abbey IV with WKAR
Jimi Hendrix
Tue., Nov. 5, 9 pm
Experience the pioneering guitarist Jimi Hendrix’s life and music through never-before-seen performance footage, archival interviews, photographs and family letters. The film features new interviews with Hendrix family members, band mates, Paul McCartney and others.

An Evening with WKAR
Thu., Nov. 7, 7 pm
An Evening with WKAR features Eisenhower’s Secret War and producer/historian George Colburn Ill. Colburn presents an excerpt from his latest documentary and discusses the challenges and rewards of independent film making. The two-part documentary airs on November 29, 9 pm and 10 pm, on WKAR. For more information, visit wkar.org.

American Experience: JFK
Mon., Nov. 11 and Tue., Nov. 12 at 9 pm
Forever enshrined in myth by an assassin’s bullet, Kennedy’s presidency long defied objective appraisal. Recent assessments have revealed an administration long on promise and vigor, and somewhat lacking in tangible accomplishment. His proposals for a tax cut and civil rights legislation, however, promised significant gains in the months before his assassination.

Screening of Downton Abbey IV Comes to Jackson & Williamston
Dec. 12 and 14
Save the dates! Coming in December, mid-Michigan Downton Abbey fans have THREE chances to join WKAR for a screening of season four. The first is Thu., Dec. 12 at 6:30 pm at the Michigan Theater in Jackson; followed by screenings at the Williamston Sun Theater on Sat., Dec. 14, at 2:30 and 4:30 pm. Fans will see a one-hour preview of season four’s first episode. FREE registration for Downton Abbey IV with WKAR opens Mon., Nov. 25 at wkar.org.

Silver Bells in the City
Fri., Nov. 22
Watch for WKAR as we broadcast live from the 29th Annual Silver Bells in the City celebration in downtown Lansing. Visit wkar.org for more information and our complete event broadcast schedule.

Carol Burnett: The Mark Twain Prize
Sun., Nov. 24, 8 pm
Carol Burnett — comedic icon and all-around performing legend — will be honored as this year’s recipient of the Kennedy Center’s Mark Twain Prize for American Humor. The all-star cast includes Julie Andrews, Lucie Arnaz, Tony Bennett, Tim Conway, Tina Fey, Rashida Jones, Vicki Lawrence, Amy Poehler, Maya Rudolph, Martin Short and Rosemary Watson. The program features comedic highlights from Burnett’s half-century in show business.

Support WKAR’s Annual Food Bank Drive
Nov. 1 – Dec.15
For the 26th year, WKAR will be collecting items from viewers, listeners, MSU students and our colleagues at Michigan State University for the Greater Lansing Food Bank.
As always, high-protein, professionally packaged items are welcome, including canned juices, peanut butter, soups and cereal. In addition, we also accept personal products, including toilet paper, tissue and dental items.
Please bring your donations to WKAR’s south lobby at the Communication Arts & Sciences building on the MSU Campus, or to the MSU Library’s circulation desk in their south lobby.

A Special Thank You to WKAR Radio Listeners

WKAR listeners came through loud and clear during our fall radio pledge. A big, warm thank you to all who called in or made your pledge online!

During our radio pledge week, a total of $122,000 was pledged with 140 of those pledges coming from new members. This would not have been possible without the tremendous support of our fall pledge underwriters and volunteers, in addition to the nearly 1,000 listeners who made contributions. You are the reason WKAR can stay on the air and continue to create ways to delight and inform the mid-Michigan area.

Thanks to all our volunteers (l-r) Megen, Allison, Erica and Hannah of MSU PRSSA with WKAR’s Alyssa in the WKAR Radio Volunteer Center. More than 60 volunteers gave the gift of their time during the recent fall fundraising drive for WKAR Radio.

So we can continue to hear from you this month, WKAR Radio will be hosting two Coffee and Conversations to discuss your ideas about our news programming at Schuler Books & Music’s Chapbook Café.

- Tue., Nov. 12, 6 pm at the Meridian Mall
- Tue., Nov. 19, 6 pm at the Eastwood Towne Center

We are also airing two Faculty Recitals in November. The first recital will be Monday, Nov. 4, 7:30 pm from the Fairchild Theatre. The performance will feature Suren Bagratuni on cello and Minsoo Sohn on the piano. On Saturday, Nov. 16, 8 pm, listen to 90.5 from the Cook Recital Hall to hear violinist Dmitri Berlinsky, a soloist with the Cath International Chamber.

Again, your generous support enables WKAR Radio to bring worldclass local programming, performed right here in mid-Michigan, to listeners like you!

Wishing You and Yours
A Wonderful Thanksgiving!

As the leaves of summer turn crimson and gold and the last of the crops are harvested outside, we know that the month for giving thanks is here. At WKAR, we are always humbled by the dedication of our volunteers, the passion of our members for their favorite programs, and the generosity of our donors who help us bring a world of mysteries, music, discoveries and drama into your home every day.

Just this past month, your support gave us many reasons to give thanks:

• The fall radio pledge drive raised $122,000 in listener support
• WKAR 90.5 FM celebrated its 65th birthday
• Current Sports host Al Martin aired his 100th show on AM 870
• QuizBusters kicked off its 25th season, to-date offering more than $500,000 in MSU scholarships to area high school students
• WKAR participated in the MSU Homecoming Parade and received a rousing response from the community

From radio to television to new media and beyond, we truly strive everyday to “Expand Your World,” but it wouldn’t be possible without your support. On behalf of everyone here at WKAR and all the mid-Michigan families we are able to impact because of your generosity, Thank You!
