From the Estate

Last week, the second season premiere of the mini-series "Downton Abbey" was watched by millions. The show is set in a fictional English manor during the early 20th century and explores the lives and loves of the aristocracy and their domestic staff. The show has been praised for its attention to detail and historical accuracy, and has become a cultural phenomenon. The third season will pick up where the second season left off, with the winter holidays and the beginning of the spring season. As we prepare for the next episode, we take a look at some of the key events and moments from the first two seasons.

State of the State 2014

Governor Rick Snyder and First Lady Sue Snyder will address the state of the state at Michigan State University's McGuirk Arena on Monday at 11 a.m. The governor's annual speech provides an overview of the condition of the state and sets forth his priorities for the upcoming legislative session. The speech is expected to address various issues facing the state, including education, health care, and job creation.

Civil Rights for Immigration Task Force

The Civil Rights for Immigration Task Force is an organization that works to promote and protect the rights of immigrants in the United States. They advocate for policies that are fair and just for all individuals, regardless of their immigration status. The task force is made up of a diverse group of individuals from various backgrounds and walks of life, and they work together to create a more just and equitable society.

American Experience: 1964: American Experience

The story of the Eli and Edythe Broad Art Museum -- how this world-class art museum came to be at Michigan State University, from the vision of Eli Broad to the realization of a dream.

In this episode of American Experience, we explore the creation of the Eli and Edythe Broad Art Museum at Michigan State University. The museum, which opened in 2013, was the result of a long-term commitment by Eli Broad, a California businessman and philanthropist, to support the arts in the midwest. The museum's design, by world-renowned architect Zaha Hadid, was inspired by the university's architectural traditions and the surrounding landscape.
