Local Special: Elderly Instruments All Things Strings
Fri., May 8, 12:30 pm
Visit the Lansing music store that has fans of all ages. Join us as we highlight key moments in the lives of four incredible individuals that have dedicated their life to changing the lives of others through music. Engage in conversation with a string instrument maker, a community leader, a music therapist, and a dancer as they share their personal journeys with their favorite instrument. This captivating discussion will explore the transformative power of music and how it has enriched the lives of those who have experience it as a tool for healing, communication, and inspiration.
