A NEW VOICE: MEET JAMIE PAISLEY

Jamie Paisley is a new face in the WKAR broadcast area, bringing his love of the arts and his passion for music to the airwaves. He is the new host and music director of W213 A, the station's Classical Music channel, and he's also the new host of Classical Music Saturdays on W213 B.

Jamie is a classically trained pianist and has been playing the instrument since he was five years old. He has performed with various orchestras and has even appeared on TV shows like America's Got Talent. He's also a great storyteller and loves to share the stories behind the music with his listeners.

Jamie is excited to be a part of the WKAR family and can't wait to share his love of music with everyone. So tune in to W213 A for all things classical music, and check out his show on Saturdays for a fun and informative mix of music, stories, and interviews.

Meet Jamie Paisley, a new voice for the arts!
