Silver Bells in the City

Fri, Nov 20, 7pm

Every morning our news shows on the radio play the same Christmas song over and over and over. Here at Wkar.org we want to remind you that there is still something special about the music of Christmas. The spirit of Christmas is found not in a song, but in the people who share it with you. This holiday season, come and hear Silver Bells in the City, a live, on-location broadcast from downtown Lansing. Don’t miss this special event during one of the most important times of the year, as the city transforms into a winter wonderland. The focus will be on the lights and music of Silver Bells in the City, a tradition that has brought joy to generations of Americans.
