The Head of Joaquin Murrieta

This program was produced by ComArtSci professor of practice John J. Valadez.

The Head of Joaquin Murrieta is an irreverent, entertaining and often disturbing tale that uses both fiction and documentary story telling devices to tear open a painful and long ignored history: the lynching of Mexican Americans in the southwest. For over a decade filmmaker John J. Valadez searched for the remains of Joaquin Murrieta, a legendary Mexican outlaw who blazed a trail of revenge and rebellion. In 1853 he was killed by bounty hunters who put his head in a jar and displayed it across California. One hundred and sixty-two years later, Valadez is convinced he finally has the head. So together they embark on a quixotic, cross-country road trip to bury the head of Joaquin Murrieta, and finally lay to rest a dark and troubled past - one that has chilling parallels with the filmmaker's own family story.

BEST OF CAR TALK Says Farewell

For three decades, Tom and Ray Magliozzi have been America's funniest auto mechanics. Since Tom's passing in 2014, Ray and the Car Talk team have crafted "Best of" episodes so fans could continue to "waste an hour" each week with Click and Clack the Tappet Brothers.

Now, as Ray writes in a letter to fans, "It's time for us to step aside and make room for new programs," one of which could turn out to be your next favorite show. Or it could be a disaster: one may be the next Car Talk."

Listen to 90.5 FM Saturdays at 10am all this month for special editions and all-time best moments from Tom and Ray. Then, StayTuned to hear what's new in October. It could be your next favorite show.
