

APRIL SPECIALS:

Handel's
"Israel in Egypt"

Monday, April 2 at 10:30am

Jeannette Sorrell leads Apollo's Singers and soloists in her new adaptation of George Frideric Handel's oratorio, Israel in Egypt. From plagues and pyramids to the crossing of the Red Sea, this gripping story comes to life with reverence and triumph.

Picture: Jeannette Sorrell, Apollo's Fire artistic director, conductor & harpsichordist.

Compact Discoveries:

Mario Castelnuovo-Tedesco Concertos

Tuesday, April 3 at 11am

Enjoy a very tuneful guitar concerto and melodious violin concerto by this 20th Century Italian-born composer.

The music includes Castelnuovo-Tedesco's Guitar Concerto No. 1 in D Major, Opus 99, performed by guitarist Narciso Yepes with the London Symphony Orchestra conducted by Luis Antonio Garcia Navarro; and his Concerto Italiano for Violin and Orchestra, Op. 31, performed by violinist Tianwa Yang with the SWR Sinfonieorchester Baden-Baden und Freiburg conducted by Pieter-Jelle de Boer.

New Letters on the Air

Poet Profiles:

Jericho Brown

Friday, April 6 at 3:30pm

Guggenheim fellow Jericho Brown describes the joy he finds in writing poetry and how his work helps him examine his world as a gay black man. He talks about some of his poetic mentors—from Emily Dickinson to Alice Walker—and reads from his second collection, The New Testament, winner of the Anisfield-Wolf Book Award, as well as his earlier American Book Award winner, Please.

The Spanish Hour:

Alberto Ginastera

Wednesday, April 11 at 11am

From Argentina's folk traditions to polytonality, we'll hear four exciting and exuberant works by Alberto Ginastera, self-described "man of Latin America" and one of South

America's most important composers of the twentieth century. Selections include Danzas argentinas from the 1930s, Pampeana No. 3 and Piano Sonata No. 1 from the 1950s, and Iubilum from 1980.

Maiden Voyage:

Herbie Hancock in the 60s

Friday, April 13 at 10pm

In the 1960s Herbie Hancock seemed to be everywhere on the jazz scene, recording both as a leader for Blue Note and as a sideman with Miles Davis and others.

Poetry Month Readings

Weekdays at 9:30 eastern

Public Radio 90 celebrates National Poetry Month with readings from local poets. Listen every weekday in April as local poets stop by our WNMU studios during National Poetry Month. You'll be taken on journeys to places familiar and unfamiliar through the words of writers who live right here in the Upper Peninsula. Enjoy them again or share them with a friend at WNMU-FM.ORG.

New Letters on the Air

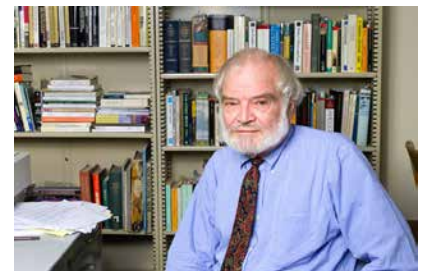

Poet Profiles:

The Past American Voice of Poet

Kenneth Irby

Friday, April 20 at 3:30pm

The late poet Kenneth Irby (1936-2015) traveled the States before settling in Lawrence, where he spent his teaching and writing career at the University of Kansas. Irby tells stories to former Kansas Poet Laureate Denise Low about his experiences and reads from his last book, The Intent On: Collected Poems 1962-2006.

Dear Public Radio 90 Members,

As we head into the homestretch of our fundraising year, which ends June 30, I want to thank you for your tremendous commitment and dedication to sustaining a local public radio station here in our upper Great Lakes region.

Listeners like you provide 53¢ of every dollar spent to operate WNNMU, Public Radio 90 and pay for the programs you value. So you can see how much your financial support matters.

If you've been thinking about giving a major gift to WNNMU now is a good time to do it. If you are establishing your will or trust, please consider including Public Radio 90 on your list of beneficiaries. Or consider a Sustaining Membership by authorizing automatic monthly payments for an indefinite time through your checking, savings, or credit card account.

You're doing a great job of proving that listeners can and will make a difference, and I'm proud to announce that when our April PREVIEW went to press we needed just over $124,000 to reach our fundraising goal for the year and maintain station operations through 2018.

As a loyal member of Public Radio 90, you know that one of Upper Michigan's treasures is as close as your radio—the rich variety of programs you hear on WNNMU-FM.

Thank you for doing your part to keep this valuable resource here for us all to enjoy!

Warm Regards,

Evelyn Massaro, Station Manager

Through Friday April 20 Jim Fleming reads The Elephant Whisperer: My Life with the Herd in the African Wild by Lawrence Anthony with Graham Spence (Thomas Dunne Books: ISBN-13: 978-1250007810).

Lawrence Anthony devoted his life to protecting the world's endangered species, but then he was asked to accept a herd of wild elephants on his game reserve in Zululand. Musical theme: "Unomathemba" and "Golgotha" by Ladysmith Black Mambazo; from the album Shaka Zulu.

Monday April 23 through Friday May 4 Carol Cowan reads A Country Year: Living the Questions by Sue Hubbell (Mariner Books: ISBN-13: 978-0395967010), from the Chapter A Day Archives from 1988. In a series of exquisite vignettes, Hubbell reveals the joys of a life attuned to nature in this heartfelt memoir about life on the land, and of a woman finding her way in middle age and starting life over as a beekeeper in the Ozarks.

Chapter a Day from Wisconsin Public Radio has been airing in Wisconsin since 1927 and features a variety of readers. Episodes are available online for one week after they air.

Thursday:

Deutsche Welle Festival

- 4/5 - Berlin Festival – Long one of Germany's unsung conductors and now in his late 70s, Marek Janowski has seen his career take a steep curve upward in recent years. Giving his premiere in 2014, he's now heavily sought everywhere. At the Berlin Festival, he leads one of Germany's – and the world's – most superb orchestras in a program that is Romantic through and through.

- 4/12 - ARD Music Competition – A sneak preview of the soloists we'll all be talking about soon: winners at one of the world's major music competitions. Oboe, violin, piano and guitar were the categories in the most recent edition of the competition in Munich, Germany.

- 4/19 - Le Concert Olympique – Ludwig van Beethoven sometimes performed in marathon concerts showcasing his own works. Conductor and Beethoven biographer Jan Caeyers re-created an 1803 event at the most recent Beethovenfest. Not just the playbill, but also the sound and spirit of the orchestra Le Concert Olympique are faithful to the original.

- 4/26 - Shostakovich Days in Gohrlich – Dmitry Shostakovich vacationed in Gohrlich twice and wrote one major work there. Now there's a yearly festival in the composer's memory where the emphasis is on rediscovering his output and his times.

4/6 & 10: NMU Jazz Combo/
Dave Brubeck 1992

Starting a month of jazz to celebrate the NMU Jazz Fest that takes place every April, we begin with a program called "Mingus, Mingus, Mingus," taken from a February 2016 concert by the NMU Jazz Combo. We'll also throw it back to 1992, with a very special visit to NMU by Dave Brubeck.

4/13 & 17: NMU Jazz Combo &
Band / Keweenaw Symphony Orchestra

This week, we continue a month of jazz, celebrating the NMU Jazz Fest that takes place every April. The NMU Jazz Combo and Jazz Band are featured; the combo plays original compositions, while the band plays classic works by Berger, Carmichael, Ellington and more. Plus, "Scenes from the Keweenaw" from the Keweenaw Symphony Orchestra.

4/20 & 24: NMU Jazz Band & Combos

This week, we're in week three of a month of jazz, celebrating the NMU Jazz Fest that takes place every April. This time, we've got three NMU jazz ensembles playing the likes of Pepper Adams, George Gershwin, The Beatles, and even original compositions from director Dr. Mark Flaherty. Plus, we'll even throw in part of a "hip" harp recital from 2012.

4/27 & 5/1: NMU Jazz Concert

This week we wrap up a month of jazz, with a program featuring a jazz concert from November 2016. We'll hear songs by Victor Young and Count Basie to name a few, as well as excerpts from the Pine Mountain Music Festival's "Wood Meets Wind" concert.

Supporting Public Radio 90 is as Easy as 1-2-3 When you Become a Sustaining Member

One of every three Public Radio 90 members now uses the Sustaining Membership plan to make their annual donations. They will also provide nearly 35% of our 2018 fundraising revenue, $142,996 and counting... Wow!

As our Sustaining Membership grows, it helps us reduce our reliance on state and federal funding to operate, and will ensure that we all get to continue to enjoy and cherish all that local public radio has to offer.

To become our next Sustaining Member...

- 1. Decide how much you want to contribute to Public Radio 90 and how often—monthly, quarterly, semi-annually, annually.
- 2. Complete and sign the authorization form. Installments can be paid from your checking or savings account at your bank or credit union, or you may use a major credit card. You can even authorize an inflation guard which will automatically increase your installment amount by 10% each year. A form can be downloaded from our website at wnmufm.org/sustaining-membership.
- 3. Sit back and relax. Your donation installments will be automatically deducted with a record of each transaction appearing on your monthly statement. Your membership is automatically renewed each year on your membership anniversary date.

As a Public Radio 90 Sustaining Member, your gift goes further by:

- Providing WNMU-FM with a stable source of income to support the programming you value.
- Eliminating the cost of installment reminder notices.
- Reducing the cost of processing payments.
- Decreasing our dependency on traditional on-air fundraising

To become a Sustaining Member just call Sarah Stanley in Member Services at 800-227-WNMU (9668) or pledge online at wnmufm.org.

Answers to Frequently Asked Questions:

How long does it take for my withdrawals to start?

It takes approximately one month from the time we receive your authorization form for your first payment to be transferred from your bank/credit union account or charged to your credit card.

How can I increase my installment amount?

You can change your Sustaining Membership financial commitment at any time by calling Membership Services at 800 227-9668. You can also authorize the inflation guard option when you sign up for your Sustaining Membership, which will automatically increase your annual contribution by 10% each year. For example your $10 per month contribution would automatically increase to $11 per month the following year. You will also have the opportunity to upgrade your contribution amount each year when you receive your membership anniversary letter.

Is my contribution still tax deductible?

Yes! We will send you a tax receipt every January stating your total contributions from the previous year and the fair market value of any thank-you gifts you received during that calendar year.

Can I still get a thank you gift with my Sustaining Membership?

Yes, in fact you qualify for a thank you gift every year according to your giving level. If you choose Day Sponsors, we can even auto renew your dates for you every year so you don't have to remember to schedule them. Just be sure to request that we auto renew your Day Sponsor dates when your membership is renewed.

Is my contribution still eligible for a match if I work for a Matching Gift company?

Yes, typically the matching form is processed following your final installment payment. Please be sure to send us your Matching Gift form as soon as possible. Indicate the full amount of your contribution on the form, not each individual payment amount.

How do I stop my automatic transfers if necessary?

To stop your Sustaining Membership, simply call Membership Services at 800-227-WNMU (9668), or send us a request in writing. DO NOT notify your bank or credit union directly. They will often charge you for these services, while Public Radio 90 will do it at no charge.

Thank You for sustaining your local public radio station.
