Dear Public Radio 90 Members,

Thank you for another year of great stories. Stories found only on public radio. The funny, tragic, optimistic and all those in between that we share with family, friends, neighbors and co-workers. Stories that help us to better understand the world around us, and everything and everyone who lives on it with us.

Stories that we would not be able to bring you without your financial support.

Thank you for providing the money it takes to send NPR reporters around the world to bring you in-depth news and analysis from people with integrity who seek to bring you the real story and not just strive to be first with the sensational headlines.

And thank you for helping WNMU train the next generation of public radio storytellers and news reporters. People who will carry on the tradition of excellence for future listeners.

Thank you for the musical notes you help us bring to the airwaves, from classical, jazz and folk music to big band, show tunes, and Blues, to performances from across the Upper Peninsula. Music that lifts you up, comforts you, or makes you tap your toes and smile.

Thank you for doing more than listening. Thank you for generously giving your time, your talents, and your financial resources to ensure listeners across our upper Great Lakes Region and around the world can enjoy and cherish all that public radio has to offer.

Thank you for another year of great listening!!

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year from all of us at WNMU Public Radio 90!

Evelyn

Evelyn Massaro Station Manager

PS: We hope you enjoy the wide variety of holiday programs throughout December that were made possible by your generosity. Some of them feature our own Public Radio 90 listeners too.

Your Donations to WNNM-FM, Public Radio 90 are Tax Deductible!

Thank you for including WNNM, Public Radio 90 among your year-end charitable gifts.

Donations received via check that are postmarked by December 31 and online donations via credit or debit card received by midnight on December 31, 2017 will be counted as 2017 gifts.

Everyone who donates to WNNM, Public Radio 90 during 2017, regardless of the amount, will be sent a 2017 tax receipt, which includes the total $$ amount of all donations received by WNNM during the year as well as the fair market value of any thank-you gifts received.

Email tax receipts are convenient and save $$ that can be used towards the programs you love instead. WNNM members helped Public Radio 90 save nearly $800 in printing and postage costs by allowing us to email their 2016 tax receipts.

Once again we are asking listeners to help us save on printing and postage costs by allowing us to email an electronic tax receipt for your 2017 contributions. Tax receipts do not contain any sensitive financial information so there's no need to worry about them being sent electronically. The e-receipt can be printed or saved to your computer.

We will be sending an email permission request in early January. Contributors not receiving an e-receipt will be mailed a paper receipt. Tax receipts will be sent the week of January 29th, 2018. If you have not received your 2017 tax receipt by mid-February, please call us at 800-227-9668 and we will be happy to send you a duplicate receipt.

Thanks again for your continued support of WNNM, Public Radio 90. Every dollar, every member makes a difference!

NPR NEWS SPECIAL:

Sexual Harassment: A Moment of Reckoning

Wednesday, 12/6 at 9:35am

Friday, 12/8 at 3pm

It has been a little more than a year since President Trump, then candidate-Trump, faced furious criticism over the now infamous Access Hollywood video featuring his comments about groping women. He subsequently faced a barrage of sexual harassment claims. While the moment sparked a national conversation about sexual harassment, it did not quash his Presidential aspirations.

Over the past year, sexual harassment remained in the news, with accusations at Fox News, lawsuits and the resignations of prominent TV personalities.

But this fall, floodgates seemed to open and stories have been pouring out. After revelations about the movie mogul Harvey Weinstein, the hashtag #MeToo was born and more allegations surfaced in Hollywood, in sports, in business, in politics and at media organizations, including NPR. While accusations of sexual harassment are not new, this year's reactions and consequences are different.

In a new hour-long special, Weekend Edition Sunday host Lulu Garcia-Navarro, looks at the significance of this moment and what it could do for the culture.

Fridays at 8 pm
& Tuesdays at 1 pm
with host Kurt Hauswirth

12/1 & 5: Vienna Strauss Ensemble & Detroit Symphony Orchestra Brass Quintet (Archive Performances) Revisit selections from a duo of archived visiting artists. The Vienna Strauss Ensemble, still around today, performs music of the 18th and 19th century music capital of the world, Vienna. The Detroit Symphony Orchestra's Brass Quintet performed light classical and jazzy arrangements from Claude Debussy, John Cheetham, Fats Waller and more. Recorded in 1992-93.

12/8 & 12: 2016 NMU Choirs Experience the sound of two NMU Choir concerts. Hear music from February and April of 2016, performed by the NMU Choral program which includes the University Choir, the Arts Chorale, and the Lake Effect Show Choir. You'll hear the works of Hans Leo Hassler, Orlando di Lasso, Johannes Brahms, Alan Menken and more.

12/15 & 19: Cantatas in the Cathedral Celebrate the holiday season with The Marquette Choral Society. They traditionally perform in December, and this year they sing 'Cantatas in the Cathedral.' Pieces performed with the Diocesan Children's Choir are Benjamin Britten's "St. Nicolas Cantata" and Arthur Honegger's "Une Cantate de Noel."

12/22 & 26: Carols in the Cathedral: Marquette Choral Society Double Feature Continue the holiday spirit with the sounds of the Marquette Choral Society. Hear Carols in the Cathedral from a 2015 performance, as well as some favorites from former director Dr. Floyd Slotterback.

12/29 & 1/2/18: NMU Wind Ensemble / Symphonic Band Enjoy the sound of the NMU Wind Ensemble and Symphonic Band, from concerts in March and April of 2017. Hear music of John Wasson, Girolamo Frescobaldi, Norman Dello Joio, Malcolm Arnold and more.

Tell Them You Want the Gift of Public Radio This Year

We recently received a call from one of our members. She told us that this year she's asking family and friends not to buy her anything for Christmas and instead give her something she really wants: the gift of Public Radio! By giving a donation to WNMU, Public Radio 90 in support of her favorite programs, she'll get something that she'll use all year long. And it's always the perfect fit!

We're passing this great idea to other Public Radio 90 lovers who already have too many things hanging on the wall or sitting on a shelf and would really appreciate the gift of In the Pines, 8-18 Media, Peninsula Performances, or any of the shows you enjoy. Programs found only on WNMU-FM.

If you have a Public Radio 90 lover on your gift list, don't wait for them to make the suggestion. Make it easy on yourself and give them something you know they'll enjoy!

Send your check to WNMU, Public Radio 90, NMU, 1401 Presque Isle Ave, Marquette, MI 49855-5301 or give securely at WNMU.FM.ORG by clicking on the red DONATE button at the top of the page.
