Hosted by The Moth Radio Hour Producer, Jay Allison (with help from his mom.)

A Salute in Song
for Memorial Day
Monday, May 28 at 10am

Enjoy a two-hour music & sound chronicle of America's war history starting with the Civil War, which spurred the eventual creation of Memorial Day. Highlights music of the Spanish-American War, World Wars I & II, Korea, Vietnam, and the Persian Gulf, touching also on Bosnia, Iraq, and Afghanistan. It documents our country's strife over our entry into some wars, but respectfully acknowledges the hardships of combat, and honors our fighting men and women who have given the ultimate.

The Great American
Songbook Memorial Day Special

Monday, May 28 at 10pm

Phil Furia brings you songs from the home front to the foxholes of World War II by some of America's greatest composers and lyricists.

Dear Public Radio 90 Members,

Thank you for giving listeners across our upper Great Lakes region the opportunity to enjoy all that a local public radio station has to offer. From locally produced programs, to interviews with musicians, artists and authors, to news and entertainment programs second to none, your contributions make it all possible.

As I write this letter, President Trump has just signed the fiscal year 2018 omnibus appropriations bill into law, providing full funding for public media through September 30th. Thank you for your help with this major achievement. In fact, over the entire funding cycle from March 2017 to now, Congress received 694,605 messages in support of protecting public media funding. We are confident that if we continue to raise our voices during key moments in the congressional process that we can secure FY2019 funding too. The best way to know when and how to raise your voice to protect funding is to sign up for updates at protectmypublicmedia.org.

WNNMU's primary focus is on preserving and expanding the programming you've told us is important to your Public Radio 90 listening experience, from local programs like Peninsula Performances, Media Meet, and In the Pines to nationally acclaimed programs like Morning Edition and All Things Considered. But we can't do it without your help.

Funding from the Corporation for Public Broadcasting comes to WNNMU in direct proportion to the local funds we receive from listeners. Giving to Public Radio 90 helps return tax money to this station and our listeners. In short, your contributions directly increase the amount of federal money WNNMU receives to purchase the top-quality programs you expect.

May is also our last fundraiser of the fiscal year. It's important that we raise the remaining $78,000 needed to finish the year in the black. First, it's required by law, and it will ensure we can continue bringing you the public radio programs you enjoy and value. Any amount you can give at this time will make a big difference. Send your check to Public Radio 90, Northern Michigan University, 1401 Presque Isle Ave, Marquette, MI 49855 or give online at WNNMUFM.org.

Thank you again for your continued generosity and personal commitment to WNNMU, Public Radio 90.

Sincerely,

Evelyn Massaro, Station Manager

Calling All Volunteers

Your help is needed during our Summerfest 2018 on-air fundraiser, May 15-24. You'll get a chance to tour our Public Radio 90 studios and meet the people behind the voices you listen to every day. You'll also be helping us raise the money needed to sustain this valuable community service by answering phones and taking donation information from listeners.

Volunteers are needed weekdays from 7am-9am, 9:30am-Noon and 3-6:30pm; and Saturday 8am-1pm and 4-8:15pm. Coffee and refreshments are provided. To sign up for a volunteer shift contact Sarah Stanley at 800-227-9668 or email her at sastanle@nmu.edu. New volunteers are always welcome – and encouraged!

Your Legacy

A gift through your will is a wonderful legacy to leave to those that will need a trusted place to hear what is going on in the world.

A well-crafted will or estate plan speaks volumes about your hopes and dreams for the future. It also ensures that what you've worked a lifetime for is distributed according to your wishes.

As WNMU, Public Radio 90 looks to our future, we would be honored to share in your legacy and ensure that quality public radio programming is here for future generations.

Please contact Station Manager Evelyn Massaro at 906-227-2633 or emassaro@nmu.edu for more information about making a gift to WNMU in your will, or visit futurefocus.net/wnmu/plangiv.htm

Monday-Friday at 9am

Through Friday May 4, Carol Cowan reads A Country Year: Living the Questions by Sue Hubbell.

Monday May 7 through Friday May 25 Norman Gilliland reads The Philosopher's Flight by Tom Miller. (Simon & Schuster: ISBN 978-1-4767-7815-0.)

This debut from an ER doctor turned novelist is a fantastical re-imagining of American history and a beautifully composed coming-of-age tale for anyone who has ever felt like an outsider.

Monday May 28 through Friday June 15, Jim Fleming reads Walking Home Ground: In the Footsteps of Muir, Leopold, and Derleth by Robert Root (Wisconsin Historical Society Press: ISBN-13: 978-0870207860.)

When longtime author Robert Root moves to a small town in southeast Wisconsin, he gets to know his new home by walking the same terrain traveled by three Wisconsin luminaries who were deeply rooted in place.

Chapter a Day from Wisconsin Public Radio has been airing in Wisconsin since 1927 and features a variety of readers. Episodes are available online for one week after they air. www.wpr.org/programs/chapteraday

MEDIA MEET

Sundays at 7:30 am ET
Repeats Mondays at 3:30 pm ET

5/6-7 "Making Votes Matter, Part 1"

A survey of proposals aimed at increasing voter response. Topics include voter behavior, a proposed constitutional amendment to lift certain voter restrictions in Michigan, and efforts to address issues with political gerrymandering. (Repeat from April)

5/13-14 "Dealing with Homelessness"

A look at the different forms and needs of homelessness in the Marquette community. This discussion will look at transitional housing, emergency shelters, low-income housing, mobility impaired residents and hospice patients, and what local groups are doing to serve the various housing needs.

5/20-21 "Making Votes Matter, Part 2"

The discussion about voter access, integrity and accountability continues with Marquette County Clerk Linda Talsma, Marquette City Clerk Kris Hazeres and retired NMU political science Professor Robert Kulisheck. Single party voting, polls, and gerrymandering are addressed. (Repeat from April)

5/27-28 "Lead-Related Mortality"

Evidence shows even low levels of lead exposure can increase the risk of cardiovascular disease, hypertension and other complications in people over 40 years of age. Dr. Scott Doughty and other experts talk about how to cope with issues resulting from lead exposure.

Program topics are subject to change in order to cover timely news and events.
