

SEPTEMBER SPECIALS:

Work 'n Music

A Labor Day Weekend Special
Sunday, Sept. 2 at 10pm

From mining to manufacturing, housework to ranching, hear the factual history and realities of American labor, wages, employment, progress, quitting, firing, and hiring, surrounded by songs about the toughness, dangers, and joys of work

The Working Tapes of Studs Terkel

Monday, Sept. 3 at 9:30am

In the early 1970s, author Studs Terkel went around the country with a reel-to-reel tape recorder interviewing people about their jobs. The result was a book called "Working," which quickly became a bestseller. Until now, few of the tapes have ever been heard. This hour features Studs' interviews with a telephone switchboard operator, hotel piano player, Chicago police officer, private eye, auto worker, and more.

The Blessings of Work

Monday, Sept. 3 at 10:30am

This Music & the Spoken Word Labor Day Special features music celebrating work, including "One Person, from Dear World," "My Song in the Night," "Hallelujah Chorus" and more.

Workin' The Work Song in Jazz & Popular Music

Monday, Sept. 3 at 10pm

Work songs gave laborers a way to transform their toil into something more meaningful, and a way to enrich their lives through music. Jazz historian Ted Gioia, author of the book "Work Songs," presents artists influenced by work songs, including Duke Ellington, Charles Mingus, Nat Adderley, Louis Armstrong, Sting and Cassandra Wilson.

The Jewish New Year, Rosh Hashanah

Monday, Sept. 10 at 10am

Rosh Hashanah, the Jewish new year, arrives this week, ushering in the year 5774. Enjoy songs that reflect the holiday's transformational power as Jews seek to get right with themselves, with others and the universe.

The Birthday of the World

Part I: Rosh Hashanah Monday, Sept. 10 at 11am

Part II: Yom Kippur Wednesday, Sept. 19 at 11am

Music and Liturgy for Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur sung by The Western Wind with guest cantors; narrated by Leonard Nimoy.

Yom Kippur, the Day of Atonement

Wednesday, Sept. 19 at 10am

Yom Kippur, the Day of Atonement, is the most important day in the Jewish calendar. Millions of Jews around the world will spend part of Yom Kippur at synagogue in worship. Enjoy music from the Yom Kippur liturgy plus other songs of repentance.

Public Radio 90 1920s Speakeasy Fundraiser Event

Event has been MOVED to Saturday, September 22, 6-9pm

WNMU, Public Radio 90 is hosting a 1920s Speakeasy fundraising event at the Ore Dock Brewing Company, 114 W. Spring St in Marquette. Featuring 1920s-style music and dancing and other fun activities. Listen to Public Radio 90 during the week of September 17 for the secret password that will get you entered into a drawing for a special prize. Admission is $5 per person.

Dear Public Radio 90 Members,

You count on WNMU, Public Radio 90 to stay connected to news, information, and the rich cultural offerings here in our UP communities and throughout the world.

Wherever you are—whatever you're doing—Public Radio 90 brings you the stories, the conversations, and the wide array of music you rely on every day.

Operating a public radio station – and sustaining the variety and depth of our Public Radio 90 programming – is challenging. We are nonprofit, and nearly 50% of our operating expenses are funded by listener donations.

That's an accomplishment we both can be proud of!

If you're like me, Public Radio 90, WNMU is a reliable, knowledgeable and entertaining companion – the best kind to have! When you think about how much you know and understand about what's happening in the world around you, consider how much of your information comes from Public Radio 90. And the music! Classical, jazz, blues, international music, Broadway and show tunes, Celtic, folk, swing...a music mix found only on WNMU, Public Radio 90

I'm writing today to thank you for the donations you already give to Public Radio 90 and to remind you that our next fundraising campaign is set for October 3-10 when we'll need your help once again to raise $45,000 to stay on track with program expenses.

Any amount you can give is greatly appreciated and will go directly to pay for the programs you'll enjoy next season.

Programs that favor substance over clutter, created with your interests in mind, require extensive resources...and depend on your financial investment. Day after day, each program you enjoy on Public Radio 90 translates into a bill we must pay.

What sets public radio apart from commercial stations is that we serve only you, and we must rely on you to help keep quality programming alive

Please give today at wnmufm.org, call us at 800-227-WNMU, or send a check to Public Radio 90, NMU, Marquette, MI 49855 and encourage your friends and neighbors to do the same.

Thanks in advance for helping to sustain your local public radio station, WNMU-FM, Public Radio 90.

Sincerely,

Evelyn Massaro, Station Manager

MEDIA MEET

Sundays at 7:30 am ET
Repeats Mondays at 3:30 pm ET

9/2-3 "Youth Substance Abuse Prevention" A discussion of efforts and challenges in preventing substance abuse in middle school, high school and college age young people with NorthCare Network Coordinators Gery Shelafae and Sandy Chapman, and veteran educator Iris Katers. (Repeat from Nov. 2016)

9/9-10 "Suicide Awareness and Prevention" A program on Michigan's leading cause of death among teens and young adults on the occasion of a Marquette County produced documentary film aimed at awareness, hope and prevention.

9/16-17 "Peter White Public Library Tax Proposal" Discussion of a local November ballot proposal to recoup $224,000 in tax repeal funding losses that would restore important services. The measure would appear on the ballot in five of the library's service areas.

9/23-24 "Neighborhood Business Legislation" About half of Michigan jobs come from Small Business, and the share is even greater in the Upper Peninsula. Guests State Representatives Scott Dianda and Sarah Cambensy, and the Small Business Development Center's Joshua Billington talk about growth challenges and proposals affecting our region. (Repeat from August)

9/30-10/1 "Global Issues on Aging" A look at the recent United Nations Open-Ended Work Group on Aging, focusing on a proposed charter for the rights of the elderly. Topics include elder independence and autonomy, long-term and palliative care, and other issues

Program topics are subject to change in order to cover timely news and events.
