

WRKF Donor/Member Privacy Policy

The support from our individual members and donors is critical to fulfilling WRKF'S mission of community service. WRKF conducts our fundraising in compliance with nationally established guidelines while ensuring that our member's trust and faith in us is deserved.

WRKF maintains lists of names, addresses, giving history, programming interests and other pertinent data for those who have supported us financially or otherwise have indicated an interest in our organization's programming or activities.

WRKF does not sell or exchange its member or donor lists with any other organization.

On occasion, WRKF provides its list to vendors who conduct work or an activity for WRKF. WRKF requires all vendors to maintain the confidentiality of WRKF'S files and confidential information and to adhere to a policy of not exchanging, selling, or otherwise disclosing the organization's member, donor and underwriter lists.

WRKF will adhere to all federal, state and local laws.

WRKF is required to disclose the identity of all donors who provide direct funding for any program produced by WRKF.

WRKF will also comply with the Corporation for Public Broadcasting guidelines for list activities. These guidelines require WRKF to annually certify compliance with laws and regulations of the Internal Revenue Service regarding tax-exempt status, and with all federal laws and regulations governing political activity and lobbying.

WRKF will not rent or purchase any mailing list that is politically affiliated including, but not limited to, political organizations, campaigns and committees.
