Program Descriptions

A Prairie Home Companion – Sat. 6-8 pm/Sun. 12-2 pm

The only live music and variety show aired nationwide today, A Prairie Home Companion is now in its 37th season of production. A Prairie Home Companion features comedy sketches, music, and Garrison Keillor's signature monologue, "The News from Lake Wobegon."

All Things Considered – Weekdays 4-7 pm

This program wraps up your day with in-depth reporting. All Things Considered has transformed the way listeners understand current events and view the world. It features news mixed with compelling analysis and insight.

America Abroad – Irregular

America Abroad is the only hour-long international affairs documentary on public radio today. This monthly program covers global challenges ranging from the wars in Afghanistan and Iraq, to the European debt crisis, to the global fight against HIV/AIDS.

American RadioWorks – Irregular

American RadioWorks produces hour-long documentaries. Since the beginning, ARW has been anchored by some of the most experienced and acclaimed journalists in public radio. They cover education issues focusing on critical issues in K-12 and higher education.

The Animal House – Sat. 5 am

The Animal House is a weekly discussion that explores the latest in animal science, pet behavior, and wildlife conservation. The goal of the program is to deepen human understanding of animals and explain the powerful bonds that link us to the animal world.

As It Happens – Weekdays 7 pm

As It Happens is like a trip around the world. This current affairs program explores the heart of a story. Interviews are secured with world leaders and 'characters' of every kind.

Ask Me Another – Sat. 9 pm, June 23-Sept. 15

Tune in for a lively hour of puzzles, word games, and trivia played in front of (and with) a live audience. Play along, and test your knowledge of history, geography, literature, grammar, spelling, pop culture and even math.

Big Picture Science – Sun. 7 pm

Big Picture Science is a weekly program that examines life and technology on this planet and beyond. The show connects ideas about the origins, the behavior, and the future of life – and technology – on Earth in surprising and playful ways.

BirdNote – Weekdays 9:58 am

BirdNote shows are two-minute vignettes that incorporate the rich sounds of birds with stories that illustrate the interesting—and in some cases, truly amazing—abilities of birds.

Campbell Conversations – Fri. 6:30 pm; Sat. 4 pm

Every week Grant Reeher, Director of the Campbell Public Affairs Institute at Syracuse University, leads a conversation with a notable guest. Guests include people from Central New York - writers, politicians, activists, public officials, and business professionals whose work affects the public life of the community - as well as nationally-prominent figures visiting the region to talk about their work.

The Capitol Pressroom – Weekdays 7 pm

The Capitol Pressroom is a daily, one-hour public radio news show hosted by Susan Arbetter. It is broadcast from the heart of New York's political hub: the Legislative Correspondents Association Pressroom, on the third floor of the State Capitol.

Car Talk – Sat. 10 am

Tom and Ray Magliozzi have been America's funniest auto mechanics. Their mixture of honesty, authenticity, knowledge, and humor has won them major awards and the loyalty of millions of public radio listeners.

Day 6 – Sat. 2 pm

Day 6 is a news magazine show that delivers a surprising take on the week. Host Brent Bambury is obsessed with creating new content and does so with Day 6- blending journalism, current affairs, comedy and opinion together on the radio.

Destination DIY – Sat. 8 pm, Sept. 1-Oct. 13

It's beyond home improvement and crafts. Destination DIY explores all kinds of ways people are working with limited resources to create rather than consume the world around them.

The Diane Rehm Show – Weekdays 10 am-12 pm

A news program, the Diane Rehm Show brings in guests that include many of the nation's top newsmakers, journalists and authors. Each hour includes dialogue with listeners who call, email, tweet or post to Facebook.

Earth Eats – Sat. 4:30 pm

The mission of Earth Eats is to help people feel more connected with their food. Each week they bring you food news, interviews with local farmers and others in the local food movement, mixed with recipes and tips to try at home.

Fresh Air – Weekdays at Noon

Fresh Air is a weekday program of contemporary arts and issues. Terry Gross, the host, asks probing questions that often lead to revelatory interviews. A variety of publications count Gross among the country's leading interviewers.

Inside Europe – Sun. 6 am

This award-winning one-hour weekly news magazine explores the topical issues that shape the European continent, including interviews, background features and cultural reports from correspondents throughout the region.

Regional News

A news round up during Morning Edition and All Things Considered. Our reporters cover upstate New York politics, environment, government, education, health and more.

Marketplace Money – Sat. 6 am

Their mission is to provide programming that is smart, literate and witty to bring public radio's intelligent and sophisticated approach to the subject of business. Marketplace Money does this for a broad public radio information audience.

Morning Edition – Weekdays 5-10 am

Morning Edition prepares listeners for the day ahead with up-to-the-minute news, background analysis, commentary, and coverage of arts and sports. Morning Edition draws public radio's largest audience.

The Moth Radio Hour – Sat. 8 pm

True stories told live. The Moth Radio Hour features our most beloved tales and stories behind the stories.

On The Media – Sat. 3 pm

On The Media decodes what we hear, read and see in the media every day; and arms us with the critical tools necessary to survive the information age. The program carefully exposes the relationship of the media to culture and society.

Only A Game – Sat. 7 am

Hosted by Bill Littlefield, Only A Game is a weekly sports magazine that appeals to sports fans and sports avoiders alike. It is characterized by Littlefield's exceptional writing and affable personality.
