

Student Application

Thank you for your interest in WRVO Public Media. Our mission is to provide programming for the needs and interests of central New Yorkers. We offer programming that informs, challenges, provokes, broadens, educates and entertains. WRVO provides significant programming about significant issues for significant audiences. Radio that informs, challenges, provokes, broadens, educates and entertains.

Our Coverage

WRVO's 50,000 watt FM signal serves central and northern New York and is supplemented by repeater stations in Syracuse, Clayton, Watertown, Utica, Geneva, Rome, Ithaca, Hamilton, and Norwich, with part-time stations in Cortland and Hamilton. From Penfield Library, we broadcast 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

WRVO broadcast programs provided by NPR, Public Radio International (PRI), American Public Media (APM) and the BBC. WRVO also airs a number of independently produced content provided by the Public Radio Exchange (PRX). Finally, we air an old time radio program, Tuned to Yesterday, which is produced in-house; a health and wellness show called Take Care, and an interview program produced in conjunction with the Campbell Public Affairs Institute, in the Maxwell School of Citizenship at Syracuse University, hosted by Grant Reeher.

WRVO provides a compelling mix of regional, national, and international news, talk, information and entertainment. Our content is delivered on a variety of platforms including broadcast, internet, streaming, podcasts, and mobile apps. WRVO provides three distinct broadcast streams which provide the ability to listen to a variety of content asynchronously.

We look for interns that are self-starters, engaged and willing to learn. We treat our interns the same way we treat our employees and expect the same level of respect in return – consider this a professional position. Applicants should have a basic understanding of radio, public media, NPR and our news/information format.

Applications can be dropped off at WRVO Public Media, 102 Penfield Library (the same side entrance used for the 24 hour room), scanned and submitted by email to leah@wrvo.org, or submitted by mail to: WRVO Public Media, Attn: Internships/Leah Landry, 7060 State Route 104, Oswego NY 13126.
