ABOUT WUWM

WUWM 89.7FM - Milwaukee Public Radio has served as southeastern Wisconsin's premiere listener-supported public radio source providing quality news, public affairs and entertainment programming since 1964. Licensed to the University of Wisconsin - Milwaukee, WUWM reaches more than 95,000 listeners each week.

An NPR affiliate, WUWM provides quality public radio, broadcasting on two channels. WUWM1/HD-1: IN-DEPTH NEWS provides local in-depth news, cultural information, conversations and entertainment. WUWM2/HD-2: MUSIC-24/7 provides hand-selected music. Listen on-air, online or mobile. Follow WUWM on Facebook, Twitter, Flickr and LinkedIn.

VOLUNTEER APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS

WUWM relies on dedicated people to undertake a variety of duties. Becoming a WUWM volunteer is a great way to show your support for Milwaukee Public Radio and the quality programming it offers. You can really make a difference!

When you join WUWM's volunteer community, you are kept informed of upcoming opportunities via e-mail. WUWM greatly appreciates the generous contribution of your time, energy and talents.

WUWM Ambassadors (evenings and weekends)

WUWM needs outgoing, passionate and reliable volunteers. From concerts to farmer's markets, WUWM participates in many community outreach events. WUWM needs friendly, enthusiastic volunteers to work at our information table to greet the public, hand out program schedules, ask individuals to sign-up for WUWM's e-newsletters and share your enthusiasm for WUWM with others.

Office Assistance (M-F daytime)

On occasion, we need office assistance. Office volunteers assist with clerical tasks, mass mailings and thank you phone calls. This position requires weekday availability. Volunteers are scheduled as needed on an on-call basis.

Virtual Volunteers

WUWM needs help spreading the word about WUWM online and for technical assistance (graphic design, photography, website, blogs, social networking) as well. If you have special skills and time to donate, let us know!
