ABOUT WUWM

WUWM has served as southeastern Wisconsin's premier listener-supported public radio source providing quality news, public affairs and entertainment since 1964.

Operated by the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, WUWM reaches more than 100,000 weekly listeners. WUWM's primary coverage area extends throughout all of the Milwaukee metropolitan area including Racine, Waukesha, and West Bend.

89.7 FM: NPR / IN-DEPTH NEWS broadcasts locally-produced, award-winning, in-depth news, entertainment and music programming, and carries national and international news from NPR, APM, and BBC.

WUWM is a member-supported station, funded primarily by private listener donations, contributions by local businesses and foundations as well as the Corporation of Public Broadcasting and the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee.
