Last Will. & Testament

Saturday, Oct. 26 at 9 p.m. on WV PBS.2

Explore one of the great literary mysteries of all time: Who wrote the works attributed to William Shakespeare? Although the official story of a Stratford merchant writing for the London box office has held sway for centuries, questions over the authorship of the plays and poems have persisted. Mark Twain, Sigmund Freud, Charlie Chaplin and Orson Welles are among the many famous figures who doubt that a grain-dealer from Stratford-Upon-Avon was England's "Star of Poets." Experts have debated, books have been written, and scholars have devoted their lives to protecting or debunking theories surrounding the authorship.

Sir Derek Jacobi leads an impressive cast on a quest to uncover the truth behind the elusive author and discovers a forgotten nobleman whose story could rewrite history.

All-Star Orchestra

Sundays in October at 8 p.m. on West Virginia PBS.2

The All-Star Orchestra offers exceptional performances of the world's greatest music as the foundation of a new arts-in-education paradigm that uses state-of-the-art broadcast and multi-media technologies to shatter barriers to access and to conceptually transform the classical music experience for the 21st century. Programs juxtapose beloved classical masterpieces with exciting new works from leading American composers. The new works, already recorded, include compositions by a veritable "who's who" of today's top composers.

The thematic content in each hour-long program will be illustrated with musical excerpts, images, and educational commentary, as well as complete performances of the classical and contemporary American works.

Oct. 6: "Politics And Art" (Dmitri Shostakovich: Symphony No. 5) -- Music has sometimes reflected, and at other times challenged repressive ideologies. Shostakovich abandoned the premiere of his challenging 4th symphony for fear of reprisals from the Stalinist government. His triumphant 5th Symphony was next, and the authorities were pleased. To this day the 5th is Shostakovich's most popular symphony. What is its message? What does "political music" mean today?

Oct. 13: "Relationships In Music" (Johannes Brahms: Academic Festival Overture, Robert Schumann: Symphony No. 3 "Rhenish") -- Robert Schumann's wife Clara was herself a gifted pianist and composer. She became a lifelong friend and source of inspiration for Schumann's protégé Johannes Brahms. This program will explore the turbulent musical and emotional relationships between these three, and the masterpieces that they produced.

Oct. 20: "The Living Art Form" (Richard Danielpour : "A Hero's Journey"(from Piano Concerto #4) Soloist: Xiayin Wang, Samuel Jones: Concerto for Violoncello Soloist: Julian Schwarz, Joseph Schwantner: The Poet's Hour – Soliloquy for Violin Soloist: Yevgeny Kutik) -- This program will focus on the soloist's role, the instruments, and the composer's juxtaposition of soloist with orchestra. Outstanding young soloists and leading American composers will be featured in performance and in interviews.

Oct. 27: "Music's Emotional Impact" (Piotr Ilyich Tchaikovsky: Symphony No. 4, David Stock: Blast!) -- This program will draw viewers into Tchaikovsky's dramatic personal life, his brief marriage, and his intense correspondence with his patroness Nadezhda von Meck, whom he never met and to whom he dedicated his Fourth Symphony. The dramatic brass fanfares that for Tchaikovsky symbolized Fate find a modern echo in David Stock's Blast!
