

Construction Begins, Less Than $1 Million To Raise

Thanks to donations made to the Moving to a Sound Future project, construction has begun on Fire Station No. 3. Less than $948,000 remains to be raised to double working space and triple SPR's production capacity.

As interior walls came down and carpet came up, forgotten items saw the light of day. Playing cards. A newspaper dated 1982. An Olympia "stubby" bottle. Almost two dozen ping pong balls rained down from a false ceiling. All reminders of the firemen who lived and worked in the building from 1917 until 1991.

"It's a cool place, knowing I'm part of a project that's historical. I'm glad it's being remodeled instead of just torn down," says Damone Solomon, who joined the Fire Station construction crew last month.

Walker Construction, which renovated the Fox Theatre among other historical projects, has to date removed interior walls, reinforced the brick to meet modern seismic codes, and excavated the base of the elevator. Construction Manager Harvey Morrison says the renovation is on schedule; KPBX, KSFC, and KPBZ will be moved in and operating in the new space by the end of June 2015.

Demolition and environmental abatements are complete and the project has passed its historical preservation reviews. Now the actual 'remodeling' can begin to build SPR's new and improved broadcast home.

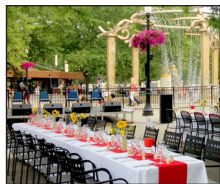

Private tours are welcome, and can be arranged by calling SPR at 328-5729 or (800) 328-5729. More information about the project and the historic Fire Station No. 3 is available at SpokanePublicRadio.org/moving.

Chris Czech with Walker Construction prepares the rebar double mat for the elevator footing. Czech is a longtime listener/member who remembers building additional office space for KPBX 20 years ago.

To watch renovation progress on Fire Station No. 3, or to find out how to make a financial gift to the SPR Moving to a Sound Future project, please visit KPBX.org/moving or call 1-800-328-5729.

Membership Drive Expands to Three Days

Our last four pledge drives have been just one day. As much as we love this format we’ve found that membership numbers have fallen behind, and new membership even more so. Therefore, as a compromise...we are going to a 3-day drive. 3x3 means:

- Three ways to give: Online, Phone, Mail
- Three diverse stations: KPBX, KSFC, KPBM
- Three Day Drive: Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, October 23, 24, and 25!

Spokane Public Radio relies on you, our listener, for the support we need not only keep our lights on but also to keep your favorite programs on the air. This Fall is the perfect time to renew your membership, make an extra gift, or become a new member. Therefore, we can continue to bring you the high quality, socially engaging, local and national programs that you rely on for arts, news and commentary.

Sustaining Membership

With SPR's Sustaining Membership program, your annual membership is always current—no more renewal notices! That saves SPR paper, postage, and staff time.

How it Works

1. You decide how much you want to contribute to Spokane Public Radio each month—$10, $20, $50, or whichever amount is right for you.
2. Go online to spokanepublicradio.org/sustaining-membership to print out the Sustaining Membership Authorization Form. Mail it, along with a voided check, to the offices at 2319 N. Monroe St, Spokane, WA 99205.
3. Sit back and relax. Your gift will automatically be deducted from your bank account each month AND automatically renew annually until you tell us to stop.

If your life changes, you can always choose to increase, decrease, or suspend your monthly gift. All you have to do is call the station at (509) 328-5729 or send an email to membership@kpbx.org. It's that easy!
